Welcome to English 110: Accelerated Composition. To succeed in college and beyond, students need to become agile writers who can adapt their writing to a wide variety of audiences, contexts, purposes, media, and technologies. In the world at large, students will need to analyze new situations and respond to them with appropriate and effective written communication. This course helps teach students how to communicate for a variety of audiences. Instead of teaching one right way of writing, the course makes students flexible writers who can transfer what they’ve learned in English 110 to new contexts and new genres. A variety of modes may be utilized within this course, including: Academic Essays, Blog Posts, Book Reviews, Annotated Bibliographies, PowerPoint Presentations, Videos, Podcasts, Websites and more.

Throughout the semester in English 110, students will progress toward the following student learning outcomes:

Rhetorical Situation and Genre
A. Analyze, compose, and reflect on arguments in a variety of genres, considering the strategies, claims, evidence, and various mediums and technologies that are appropriate to the rhetorical situation

Writing as a Social Act
B. Describe the social nature of composing, particularly the role of discourse communities at the local, national, and international level

Writing as a Process
C. Use multiple approaches for planning, researching, prewriting, composing, assessing, revising, editing, proofreading, collaborating, and incorporating feedback in order to make your compositions stronger in various mediums and using multiple technologies

Grammar and Usage
D. Improve your fluency in the dialect of Standard Written American English at the level of the sentence, paragraph, and document
E. Analyze and describe the value of incorporating various languages, dialects, and registers in your own and others’ texts
Reflection
F. Evaluate your development as a writer over the course of the semester and describe how composing in multiple genres and mediums using various technologies can be applied in other contexts to advance your goals

Research
G. Use writing and research as a means of discovery to examine your personal beliefs in the context of multiple perspectives and to explore focused research questions through various mediums and technologies
H. Integrate others’ positions and perspectives into your writing ethically, appropriately, and effectively in various mediums and technologies

Library Information Literacy Outcomes
1. Students will access Libros library database software and find a book relevant to the writing project. Students will learn how to skim the book and find quotations that are both relevant and appropriate for the paper.
2. Students will be able to identify what type of database source they have found, e.g. magazine, journal, newspaper, website.
3. Students will write a correctly formatted Works Cited page.
4. The UNM Valencia Campus library contact info is as follows: http://www.unm.edu/~unmvclib/ and (505) 925-8990.

Required Texts and Materials
• Access to Internet, Blackboard Learn, and Microsoft Office (available on UNM-VC computers).
• UNM e-mail address.
• Flash Drive.

Basic Course Policies
No late work is accepted in this course. In-class writing assignments cannot be made up if a student is absent. Students are expected to arrive to class early so that they are prepared to work when class begins. Open up your notebook, have your pen ready, and be prepared to take notes when class begins. When you first arrive, make sure your computer is on and that you are logged in to begin work in Microsoft Word/Blackboard Learn. Because we use the computers every day, having your NetID and password is mandatory for success in the course. No talking is allowed during the lecture. No cellphones are allowed in class. There is a zero tolerance policy for any of these actions. Students who do not comply will be asked to leave without warning and will receive a zero for the day’s activities.

Attendance Policy
Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. Missing class is not an excuse for being unprepared. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to keep up with reading, get class notes from a fellow student, and/or see me during office hours if you have questions about the material. Students who miss the first week of classes will be dropped. Students who miss more than 4 classes will be dropped. Arriving 10 minutes after class starts counts as an absence. Excused absences include documented hospitalization or other documented, unexpected extreme emergencies. If excessive absenteeism that falls under the purview of “excused absences” continues, I reserve the right to drop students from the course. Please note: doctor’s appointments, child-care, court dates, and job scheduling conflicts do not count as excused absences.

Plagiarism
Any form of plagiarism is unacceptable and the paper in question will receive a failing grade. Plagiarism means using language and/or ideas without acknowledging their source. Plagiarism includes such activities as copying another student’s papers or ideas, downloading and turning in papers from the Internet, or copying passages from outside sources without proper documentation. Plagiarism may also result in failure of the entire course or disciplinary action by the University. To learn how to avoid plagiarism, students can speak to me, consult a tutor, or refer to http://library.acadiau.ca/tutorials/plagiarism/.

Classroom Behavior
While I do not expect problems when working with adult learners, these policies ensure a safe and productive classroom environment. The following policies are listed in the University of New Mexico Student Handbook.

1) Students must treat one another and the instructor with respect. Derogatory remarks or name-calling is prohibited.
2) Students should not interrupt classroom lectures or discussion with non-related comments.
3) Students may discuss complaints about the course with their instructor; however, the students must do so in the proper environment, such as the instructor’s office during office hours. Constant complaining in class may result in the student being asked to leave for the day’s lesson; continued complaining after the first warning may result in the student being dropped from the course.

4) Students should not yell or curse at other students or at the teacher. Class time is a professional learning environment. Obscene language will not be tolerated.

5) Sexual harassment will not be tolerated.

6) Behavior that threatens the safety of any class member, including the instructor, will not be tolerated. The offending student will be asked to leave for the day and may be dropped from the course. Security will be called. Intoxication, physical assault and or battery, violence, stalking, or threats fall into this category.

7) Students must not threaten the instructor concerning their grades. This type of behavior is considered harassment and/or verbal assault. Security will be called.

8) If you ever feel unsafe on campus, please call security at (505) 925-8570.

9) No food or drink is allowed in class.

Students violating any of these rules will be reported to the Division Head of CHESS and to the Chair of the English Department. Students will be asked to leave the class for the day and will be asked to meet with the instructor and the Chair of the English Department or the Division Head of CHESS concerning the behavior.

Computer and Technology Policies

Students must arrive at class on the scheduled class time with materials and a flash drive in hand. Save your work often and have a back-up file so as to avoid losing your work. Using computers during class time for entertainment, social networking, or personal e-mailing is strictly forbidden. Students who violate this policy will be asked to leave and counted absent for the day. The same rule applies for cell phones. Cell phones must remain off and stored away from work areas. No texting or phone calls are allowed. Be prepared to dedicate this hour and fifteen minutes exclusively to English.

E-Mail Etiquette

A handout that introduces students to professional etiquette for electronic communications will be furnished to students. In this handout, instructions for professional e-mail writing will be offered. In general, e-mails that you write to me during the semester should include professional language, addressed with a subject heading including the type of question you are asking. For example, “Essay 1” would be an appropriate subject heading for a question regarding the first essay. E-mails should also include a salutation. For example, “Dear Professor Wood” would be an appropriate salutation for an electronic message. Be sure to sign your first and last name, and proofread your e-mail for grammatical errors. Please avoid text-speak. Learning to write professional e-mails early on is a skill you need as you progress to higher academic levels and further career pursuits.

Equal Access

Accessibility Services, located in Student Services, provides academic support to students who have disabilities. Their phone number is 925-8560 and their website is http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm. If students have a disability, they should contact this service right away to ensure their needs are met in a timely manner. Students are responsible for getting all documented forms to me within the first two weeks of class. I cannot accommodate any special needs without the proper authorization from UNM Valencia Campus.
Accessibility Services. Pursuant to the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), I accommodate documented special needs cases.

Academic Support

Free tutoring is available at the Learning Resources Center (L Building). Please call 925-8907 for an appointment. I am also available to help you with individual writing issues during my office hours or by appointment. Students who seek tutoring regularly improve their grades.

Assignment Policy

Unless otherwise specified, all formal writing assignments must follow MLA format and be typewritten, double-spaced in a 12pt, Times New Roman font. Essay length requirements are 750-1000 words each, or 3-4 pages. MLA specifications are clearly laid out in Diana Hacker’s Pocket Style Manual.

PowerPoint Grammar Presentation

In groups, students will be responsible for presenting a grammar presentation on one of the following features of grammar and mechanics: 1) fragments, 2) comma splices/run-on sentences, 3) pronoun reference, 4) point of view, 5) capital letters and italics, 6) commas, 7) apostrophes, 8) pronouns, or 9) parallelism. Students should deliver a professional presentation to the class.
(no longer than 10 minutes) that defines their assigned term, explains key concepts that the text highlights, and provides original examples that will prepare the class for a short quiz. Before students present, we will go over the features of successful presentations. Acceptable formats for the presentation include: Powerpoints, Prezis, blogs, collages, video or audio essays, comic strips, and storyboards. Presentations cannot be made up if a student is absent. If a group member is absent they will not receive points for the assignment. Make sure that everyone has copies of the presentation so that you can still present if one group member is absent.

Discussion Posts
Students are responsible for posting responses to discussion questions/prompts that I have posted on our course page via Blackboard Learn. These questions are designed to generate class discussion and promote further inquiry into our topics. BB Learn posts are due before we meet as a class on the assigned due date. Late posts are not accepted.

Participation
Participation is mandatory in this course. Participation means actively participating in your education, including class discussions, in-class writing workshops, and other exercises. Make sure to bring course materials and take notes during every class meeting. In the case of absence, in-class writing assignments cannot be made up regardless of the reason.

Final Portfolio
A final portfolio will be turned in for this course to be judged by a group of outside professor reviewers. It will include a collection of your best work and the professor will provide the guidelines to students ahead of time. Please keep a copy of all graded work and rubrics for this purpose. Part of the portfolio grade is based on revision abilities. Panel graders look to see whether students have responded to instructor comments and whether students have made substantial changes. The panel graders will determine student readiness for English 120.

Please Note: You need a “C,” at least 73%, to pass the course
A “C-” means that the student has failed the course and must retake the course. Attending class, trying hard, and turning in work does not always ensure a passing grade. Students must write at an acceptable level of competency and meet the student learning outcomes of the course. Students must turn in all major writing projects, take the grammar competency, and submit a Final Essay and Evaluation to pass the course. The panel of evaluators will determine whether students have met this level of competency.

Grade Disputes
If you feel a mistake has been made with the final evaluation of your portfolio and you wish to challenge the grade, you must follow a set procedure for doing so. You should start by reading about how to dispute a grade, which is in the University of New Mexico Student Handbook. Below is a brief outline of some of the policies:

1. You must discuss the grade concerns with your instructor of record first.
2. If you have discussed the problem with your instructor and the problem has not been solved, then you may discuss the problem with the Coordinator of the English Department.
3. If you have discussed the problem with the Coordinator and the problem has not been solved, then you may discuss the grade dispute with the Chair of Communications, Humanities, Education, and Social Sciences. (CHESS)
Student Privacy
Student privacy is strongly protected by professors at UNM VC. In fact, a federal statute called FERPA strictly prohibits the instructor or administrators from talking to anyone but the student about his/her progress. If a student has questions about a grade on an assignment or about the final grade for the course, FERPA dictates that the student is the ONLY ONE who may speak to the instructor regarding their grades. In sum, parents, relatives, or friends will not be allowed access to information about student performance. All other outside requests for information release must be sent to and approved by the UNMVC registrar: (505) 925-8580 http://www.unm.edu/~unmvc/Admissions/admiss.htm

Incompletes (I grade)
Incompletes are rarely assigned in this course. Incompletes is reserved for students who have completed all of the coursework, but due to some unforeseen emergency (the instructor may ask for documentation concerning the emergency), are unable to complete the Final Essay and Evaluation. Students must complete the work by the end of the following semester, or the University automatically converts the “I” to an “F.”

Technical Assistance
Computer Technicians: If you have questions about computer-related problems, call 277-5757, M-F, 8:00 am-12:00 noon and M-F, 1:00 pm-5:00 pm MST.
