OFFICE HOURS: Wednesday 1:15-1:45 pm in VB&T 124 immediately after class.

SYLLABUS: Subject to change.

Course Objectives

- Learn to use formulas, charts, and macros in business.
- Learn to navigate Microsoft worksheets, tabs, groups, and buttons.
- Learn to use Excel's financial, database, logical, and statistical functions.
- Learn to use Microsoft Word and PowerPoint to communicate effectively.

Required Textbook

Computer Applications for Business Management, Third Edition is available at the UNM Bookstore. The textbook must be brought to every Lecture and Lab session for discussion and grading purposes. All written assignments will be done and graded in the textbook.

Grade Components

Each student's final course grade is based on one midterm exam (100 points), one non-cumulative final exam (100 points), Review Questions (16 points), two Portfolios (30 points), one Resume (2 points), and one PowerPoint slideshow (2 points) for a total 250 points possible.

Students may calculate their grade at any time by (1) summing their points earned; (2) dividing their points by the total points possible; and (3) checking the chart below (without rounding).

Course Procedures

This is a 'hybrid course' so students attend Lecture once per week and attend lab once per week. Students will present their textbook at the beginning of each lab session for grading; submit two activity Portfolios online using UNM's Learn On-line System; submit a resume and a power point slideshow online - separate from their portfolios; and take two noncumulative exams.

Deadlines for All Submissions

Students' late work will not be graded. Students are responsible for using UNM's hardware and internet service or something just as reliable as no late work or second attempts will be accepted. To check if Learn had a technical issue causing an assignment submission problem, phone their 24/7 Tech Support phone number at 505-277-0857. If Tech Support determines they had a technical issue, then have them email me with the details.

Lab Expectations

Students are expected to arrive to each Lab session on time, insert a thumb drive, and turn on the computer. A Teaching Assistant (TA) will be in charge of the lab. The TA will create a seating chart, help students with course material, hold office hours, and mark students' textbook Review Questions for neatness & completeness at the beginning of every lab session. Students must have their books opened to the Review Questions for grading with their name printed on the top line of each page. Review Questions presented to TAs late or with no name will receive zero credit.

Student Behavior

Students are expected to arrive to each Lecture and Lab on time and stay until the end so as to not distract others from learning. Students must raise a hand and wait to be called upon to speak. No sunglasses, earphones, cell phones, texting, tapping, clicking, chatting, profanities, improper posturing, food, or drink are allowed in class or lab. Seating may be reassigned by the Instructor or the TA for disruptive students. Students who disrupt others or share or copy work or disregard any rule of this course may lose one letter grade per offense or may receive an F in the course.

Disabilities

During the first week of class students with disabilities should provide UNM Accessibility Resource Center with documentation so UNM can provide possible assistance. ARC Website: http://arc.unm.edu & Office phone: (505) 277-3506

Miscellaneous

Students should print their name clearly on their textbooks and thumb drives as late work will NOT be excused due to lost or stolen materials; or the use of ineffective hardware or internet services; or the failure to attach correct files to resume, slideshow, or portfolio submissions.

Students in athletics need coaches' signed notice in advance of missing a class or lab.

Computer Lab Responsibility

Please be advised that use of computer labs on UNM properties is governed by "Policy 2500: Acceptable Computer Use" which can be found at http://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2500.html. Food and drink are also prohibited in any computer lab on campus. Anyone violating these policies is subject to possible suspension and loss of computer lab privileges.

Title IX

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education (see page 15 – http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html

UNM Email/Black Board Learn Access:

Beginning fall 2015 semester, all UNM-Valencia students will be required to have a UNM Net ID which can be created by going to: http://it.unm.edu/accounts/. UNM Net ID will give you access to the computer labs on campus, blackboard learn and UNM Email. Make sure to update this information as your method of contact under personal information on Lobo Web.
