Course Description
ECME 103: Health Safety and Nutrition (2 credit hours) provides information related to standards and practices that promote children’s physical and mental well-being, sound nutritional practices and maintenance of safe learning environments. It includes information for developing sound health and safety management procedures for the prevention of childhood illnesses and communicable diseases. The course examines the many nutritional factors that are important for children’s total development, healthy eating habits, physical activity and rest. Students gain knowledge necessary for creating safe teaming environments for decreasing risk and preventing childhood injury.

Course Competencies
This course is part of the articulated Universal Catalogue of Courses for Early Childhood Education in the State of New Mexico. The following objectives are taken from the New Mexico State Department of Education’s Common Core Competencies for early childhood professionals. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to demonstrate the following competencies at the established level of proficiency:

- Recognize and respond to each child’s physical health, intellectual and emotional well-being, and nutritional and safety needs. B.1
- Articulate an understanding of indoor and outdoor learning environments that provide opportunities for children to put into practice healthy behaviors (physically, socially and emotionally). B.2
- Use appropriate health appraisal and management procedures and make referrals when necessary. B.3
• Recognize signs of emotional distress, child abuse, and neglect in young children and use procedures appropriate to the situation, such as initiating discussion with families, referring to appropriate professionals and in cases of suspected abuse or neglect, reporting to designated authorities. B.4.
• Establish an environment that provides opportunities and reinforcement for children’s practice of healthy behaviors that promote nutrition and physical and psychological well-being. B.5
• Provide a consistent daily schedule for rest/sleep as developmentally appropriate. B.6
• Implement health care and educational activities for children and families based on health and nutritional information that is responsive to diverse cultures. B.7
• Assist young children and their families, as individually appropriate, in developing decision-making and interpersonal skills that enable them to make healthy choices and establish health-promoting behaviors. B.8

Dual Credit
Dual Credit is a program which provides public high school students the opportunity to receive credit for both a high school course and a college course by taking a single qualifying course. For more information, please see the UNM-Valencia 2014-2016 Course Catalog (4).

Attendance
Attendance is part of your final grade. Lack of attendance will affect your final grade. We will meet 4 times over the semester. If you are absent on that day, you can arrange to meet me during my office hours at UNM-Valencia.

Due Dates and Late Assignments
Students are expected to turn in work on the date that it is due. Late assignments will be accepted; however, 5 points will be deducted for every day that it is late.

Students with Disabilities and Special Learning Needs: Student Services provides a number of services for students with documented special needs. The Equal Access Office number is 925-8910. If you have a documented disability, please provide me with a copy of your letter from Equal Access Services as soon as possible to ensure that your accommodations are provided in a timely manner.

Academic Support
Student tutors are available for tutoring appointments at The Learning Resource Center. For more information phone 925-8907.

Sexual Harassment
In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see pg 15 -http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html

Dishonesty in Academic Matters

As stated in 2014-2016 UNM-Valencia Catalog:

Each student is expected to maintain the highest standards of honesty and integrity in academic and professional matters. The University reserves the right to take disciplinary action, including dismissal, against any student who is found responsible for academic dishonesty. Any student who has been judged to have engaged in academic dishonesty in course work may receive a reduced or failing grade for the work in question and/or for the course. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, dishonesty in quizzes, tests or assignments; claiming credit for work not done or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students; and misrepresenting academic or professional qualifications within or outside the University (11)
Course Outline
