Course Description
Welcome to English 110: Accelerated Composition. To succeed in college and beyond, students need to become agile writers who can adapt their writing to a wide variety of audiences, contexts, purposes, media, and technologies. In the world at large, students will need to analyze new situations and respond to them with appropriate and effective written communication. This course helps teach students how to communicate for a variety of audiences. Instead of teaching one right way of writing, the course makes students flexible writers who can transfer what they’ve learned in English 110 to new contexts and new genres. A variety of modes may be utilized within this course, including: Academic Essays, Blog Posts, Book Reviews, Annotated Bibliographies, PowerPoint Presentations, Videos, Podcasts, Websites and more.

Student Learning Outcomes
Throughout the semester in English 110, students will progress toward the following student learning outcomes:

Rhetorical Situation and Genre
A. Analyze, compose, and reflect on arguments in a variety of genres, considering the strategies, claims, evidence, and various mediums and technologies that are appropriate to the rhetorical situation

Writing as a Social Act
B. Describe the social nature of composing, particularly the role of discourse communities at the local, national, and international level

Writing as a Process
C. Use multiple approaches for planning, researching, prewriting, composing, assessing, revising, editing, proofreading, collaborating, and incorporating feedback to make your compositions stronger in various mediums and using multiple technologies

Grammar and Usage
D. Improve your fluency in the dialect of Standard Written American English at the level of the sentence, paragraph, and document
E. Demonstrate competency in: sentence fragments, run-on sentences, and comma splice errors; parallel structure; parts of speech; verb tense shifts; pronoun errors; punctuation/apostrophes; and subject-verb agreement.
Reflection
F. Evaluate your development as a writer over the course of the semester and describe how composing in multiple genres and mediums using various technologies can be applied in other contexts to advance your goals.

Research
G. Use writing and research as a means of discovery to examine your personal beliefs in the context of multiple perspectives and to explore focused research questions through various mediums and technologies.
H. Integrate others' positions and perspectives into your writing ethically, appropriately, and effectively in various mediums and technologies.

Library Information Literacy Outcomes

1. Students will access Libros library database software and find a book relevant to the writing project. Students will learn how to skim the book and find quotations that are both relevant and appropriate for the paper.
2. Students will be able to identify what type of database source they have found, e.g., magazine, journal, newspaper, website.
3. Students will write a correctly formatted Works Cited page.
4. The UNM Valencia Campus library contact info is: http://valencia.unm.edu/library/ and (505) 925-8990.

Instructor Information
For assistance with course-related questions, I am available to meet with you during regular office hours. (See office hours above.) If you cannot meet during these times, let me know and we can schedule an appointment. You can also reach me by e-mail at mbibs@unm.edu during normal business hours from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, M-F. Please allow 24 hours for a response.

Biography: Ms. Libbey has taught composition, public speaking and communications courses at UNM Valencia for more than ten years. She taught high school literature and composition for 17 years and worked as a business writer and editor for nearly 20 years before her teaching career. She holds a master degree in journalism from Northwestern University and a master of fine arts in creative writing from the University of New Mexico.

Required Texts and Materials

- Access to Internet, Blackboard Learn, and Microsoft Office (available on UNM-VC computers).
- UNM e-mail address.
- Flash Drive.

Basic Course Policies
Students are expected to arrive to class early so they are prepared to work when class begins. Because we use the computers almost every day, having your NetID and password is mandatory for success in the course. No cellphones are allowed in class. There is a zero tolerance policy for cell phone use or non-class related computer use during class. You will lose your computer privileges for that day and have to do the work at home for a late grade if the instructor sees you using these devices for other than class work. If you keep your assignment calendar on your phone, there will be time at the end of class when you can access it for this purpose.

Attendance Policy
Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. Missing class is not an excuse for being unprepared. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to keep up with reading, get class notes from a fellow student, and/or see me during office hours if you have questions about the material. Students who miss the first week of classes will be dropped. Students who miss more than 4 classes will be dropped. Arriving 10 minutes after class starts or leaving early without letting the instructor know what the issue is counts as a “half” absence, so if you do it twice, that’s a full absence. Excused absences include documented hospitalization or other documented, unexpected extreme emergencies. If excessive absenteeism that falls under the purview of “excused absences” continues, I reserve the right to drop students from the course. Please note: doctor’s appointments, child-care, court dates, and job scheduling conflicts do not count as excused absences.

Plagiarism
Any form of plagiarism is unacceptable and the paper in question will receive a failing grade. Plagiarism means using language and/or ideas without acknowledging their source. Plagiarism includes such activities as copying another student’s papers or ideas, downloading and turning in papers from the Internet, or copying passages from outside sources without proper documentation. Plagiarism may also result in failure of the entire course or disciplinary action by the University. To learn how to avoid plagiarism, students can speak to me, consult a tutor, or refer to http://library.acadiau.ca/sites/default/files/library/tutorials/plagiarism/.

Classroom Behavior
While I do not expect problems when working with adult learners, these policies ensure a safe and productive classroom environment. The following policies are listed in the University of New Mexico Student Handbook.

1) Students must treat one another and the instructor with respect. Derogatory remarks or name-calling is prohibited.
2) Students should not interrupt classroom lectures or discussion with non-related comments.
3) Students may discuss complaints about the course with their instructor; however, the students must do so in the proper environment, such as the instructor’s office during office hours. Constant complaining in class may result in the student being asked to leave for the day’s lesson; continued complaining after the first warning may result in the student being dropped from the course.
4) Students should not yell or curse at other students or at the teacher. Class time is a professional learning environment. Obscene language will not be tolerated.
5) Sexual harassment will not be tolerated.
6) Behavior that threatens the safety of any class member, including the instructor, will not be tolerated. The offending student will be asked to leave for the day and may be dropped from the course. Security will be called. Intoxication, physical assault and or battery, violence, stalking, or threats fall into this category.
7) Students must not threaten the instructor concerning their grades. This type of behavior is considered harassment and/or verbal assault. Security will be called.
8) If you ever feel unsafe on campus, please call security at (505) 925-8570.
9) No food or drink is allowed in class.

Title IX Statement

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see page 15 -http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html

Computer and Technology Policies

Students must arrive at class on the scheduled class time with materials and a flash drive in hand. Save your work often and have a back-up file so as to avoid losing your work. Using computers during class time for entertainment, social networking, or personal e-mailing is strictly forbidden. Students who violate this policy will be asked to leave and counted absent for the day, or at the very least, lose their computer privileges for the day. The same rule applies for cell phones. Cell phones must remain off and stored away from work areas. No texting or phone calls are allowed. Be prepared to dedicate this hour and fifteen minutes exclusively to English.

E-Mail Etiquette

In general, e-mails that you write to me during the semester should include professional language, addressed with a subject heading including the type of question you are asking. For example, “Essay 1” would be an appropriate subject heading for a question regarding the first essay. E-mails should also include a salutation. For example, “Dear Professor Wood” would be an appropriate salutation for an electronic message. Be sure to sign your first and last name, and proofread your e-mail for grammatical errors. Please avoid text-speak. Learning to write professional e-mails early on is a skill you need as you progress to higher academic levels and further career pursuits.

Equal Access

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students with documented special needs will be accommodated in this course. Students with disabilities should visit Accessibility Services to obtain an Equal Access form, which needs to be sent to the professor within the first two weeks of class. The contact information for the Student Services Office is (505) 925-8560 and http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm.
Academic Support

Free tutoring is available at the Learning Resources Center (L Building). Please call 925-8907 for an appointment. I am also available to help you with individual writing issues during my office hours or by appointment. Students who regularly seek tutoring usually see a great improvement in their grades. The Writing Center is also available to you. We will visit this facility early in the term.

Assignment Policy

Unless otherwise specified, all formal writing assignments must follow MLA format and be typewritten, double-spaced in a 12pt, Times New Roman font. Essay length requirements are 750-1000 words each, or 3-4 pages. MLA specifications are available at the website the OWL (Online Writing Lab) at Purdue University. The website is www.thewowl@purdue.edu.

Required Work and Grading

- 4 Major Essays: 100 points each 400 pts (40%)
- Daily Writing Assignments & Quizzes 150 pts (15%)
- Grammar Exam 100 pts (10%)
- Grammar Presentation 50 pts (5%)
- Portfolio 300 pts (30%)

There are 1000 points possible in the course. Grades will be determined on a traditional percentage system, with the appropriate plus or minus sign: 100-90% = A (1000-900 points); 89-80% = B (899-800 points); 79-73% = C (799-700 points); 69-60% = D (699-600); and below = F.

PowerPoint Grammar Presentation

In groups, students will be responsible for presenting a grammar presentation on one of the following features of grammar and mechanics: 1) fragments, 2) comma splices/run-on sentences, 3) pronoun reference, 4) point of view, 5) capital letters and italics, 6) commas, 7) apostrophes, 8) pronouns, or 9) parallelism. Students should deliver a professional presentation to the class (no longer than 10 minutes) that defines their assigned term. Acceptable formats for the presentation include: digital presentations, blogs, collages, video or audio essays, comic strips, and storyboards. Presentations cannot be made up if a student is absent.
Participation

Participation is mandatory in this course. Participation means actively participating in your education, including class discussions, in-class writing workshops, and other exercises. Make sure you have done the assigned reading and made notes as you read so that you can participate fully in class. Bring course materials and take notes during every class meeting.

Final Portfolio

A final portfolio of student work is required in this course. It is judged by a panel of UNM-Valencia professors. The portfolio includes a collection of essays and the professor will provide the guidelines to students ahead of time. Please keep a copy of all graded work and rubrics for this purpose. Part of the portfolio grade is based on revision abilities. Panel graders look to see whether students have responded to instructor comments and whether students have made substantial changes. The panel graders will determine student readiness for English 120, based on the portfolio. Students must receive a 73% or higher overall grade in the course in order to pass English 110. A final note about “Incompletes”—this grade is rarely given as it is reserved for students who have completed all of the coursework, but due to some unforeseen emergency, is unable to complete the Final Portfolio.

Student Privacy

Student privacy is strongly protected by professors at UNM-Valencia. In fact, a federal statute called FERPA strictly prohibits the instructor or administrators from talking to anyone but the student about his/her progress. If a student has questions about a grade on an assignment or about the final grade for the course, FERPA dictates that the student is the ONLY ONE who may speak to the instructor regarding their grades. In sum, parents, relatives, or friends will not be allowed access to information about student performance. All other outside requests for information release must be sent to and approved by the UNMVC registrar: (505) 925-8580.

Technical Assistance

If you have questions about computer-related issues, please call (505) 277-5757, M-F, 8:00 am-12:00 noon and M-F, 1:00 pm-5:00 pm MST. Computer technicians are available and happy to help you solve those difficult problems. For Blackboard Learn Assistance click on the tab entitled, “How to use Learn,” which is located on the left-hand menu bar of our course page.
