6. Treasurer’s Report
   Khaled reported that the budget balance is still the same; broken down as follows:
Discussion: Since these funds are rarely used and the Branch Faculty Colloquium is a faculty event, Khaled asked administration is Faculty Assembly funds could be used towards the room rental and the lunches for our faculty for this event. The amount contributed would be around $150.00.

Vote: Michael Ceschiatt made a motion that Faculty Assembly funds be used to support the Branch Faculty Colloquium this year / Eva Rivera seconded. The motion was accepted.

7. Committee Reports:
   • Assessment (Claudia Barreto)—
     ▪ There will be three mentoring sessions with the CARC on February 19th and 26th and May 3rd to use the rubric and “spiff up” course reports.
   • Faculty Handbook Committee (Angelica Boyle): —
     ▪ Proposed changes to the description of the Conflict Resolution Committee were discussed with the Chair of the committee, Rosa Auletta.
     ▪ Proposed changes were discussed at the last Faculty Assembly meeting and sent out via email.
       ▪ Question: What is involved in the mediation training? Elaine responded that the training is at least once a year at Main Campus and consists of 4, 8-hour sessions. If there is enough interest, we can see about having the training here at the VC. Julia So added that in addition to the scheduled sessions, there are a few hours of work to do in order to get your certification.
     ▪ Heather Wood moved to approve the description change for the Conflict Resolution Committee to the Faculty Handbook / Eva Rivera seconded the motion.
     ▪ Motion approved.
     ▪ Angelica said that all changes to the handbook that have been approved so far will be sent up to the Provost and put up on the website.
   • FE/DI Committee (Michael Ceschiatt) –
     ▪ The updated FE/DI has been beta tested and continues to be changed to create a more concise, cohesive instrument with less disparity.
     ▪ Early in Fall semester the committee will have their work completed and will present the revised instrument to with a calendar that will outline completion of the FE/DI instrument within the Academic year.
