COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a web-enhanced college course that requires both reading and writing. Designed to introduce students to the basic sociological concepts, this course will also address how sociological theories can be utilized to analyze and interpret our social world, and how society and groups influence individuals. Students will be challenged their “taken-for-granted” or “common sense” understandings about society, social institutions, and social issues. Special attention will be paid to the intimate connections between personal lives and the larger structural features of social life. The implications of social inequalities, such as race/ethnicity, gender, and social class will be discussed.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the semester, when you do your part as a student, you will be able to:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

- define sociological imagination and illustrate its application (set 1)
- define sociological perspectives and illustrate its application (set 1)
- apply the perspectives of symbolic interactionist theory, conflict theory and structural-functionalist theory to qualitative and/or quantitative data (sets 1)
- explain the relationships between social structure, social forces, and individuals (sets 2 – 4)
- describe the contributions that sociological knowledge can bring to the social sciences (sets 5 - 7)
- explain intersectionality and the connections between race, class, gender, disability, sexual identity and other forms of structural inequality (sets 8 - 10)

MUTUAL EXPECTATIONS

COMMUNICATION WITH ME

- The best way to reach me is via eMail.
- Make an appointment with me in advance to reduce your waiting time at my office.
- You are welcome to speak with me before or after class. Please be aware that these conversations have to be brief and are not private conversations.

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO DROP YOU FROM THE COURSE WHEN YOU...

- do not show up on the first day of class, without notifying me in advance.
- miss four class sessions.
- miss the first exam.

YOU CAN ALSO EXPECT ME TO ...

- come to class on time and be prepared to teach.
- contact you when you miss two class sessions.
- not accept late work or work that is not typed.
- respond to your eMails or phone messages by the next business day.
- return all activity sheets, assignments, and exams in no more than two weeks.
- keep your phone/digital device until the end of the class session, when you use it without permission in class.
- give you only one verbal warning when you are disruptive in class before I ask you to leave.
- call campus police to escort you out of the classroom when disruptive behavior continues.

TO EXCEL THIS CLASS, I HIGHLY RECOMMEND YOU...

- come to class and do the work.
- complete all reading assignments for the week before coming to class.
- spend a minimum of six hours per week on activities pertaining to this course. These activities include (1) reading the assignments to seek answers for the questions in the Workbook, (2) reviewing and organizing the lecture notes so to create your own study notes, (3) completing the assignments, and (4) studying for exams.

ATTENDANCE / COURSE POLICIES

- attend all class sessions. Watching class captures does not substitute for attendance. Any absences--excused or unexcused--will affect your grade.
- this is a college course—it requires both reading and writing at a college level.
- arrive punctually--it is a matter of self-respect. Tardiness will be noted if you are 10 minutes late or leave 10 minutes before class is dismissed and do not give me advance notice. Two late arrivals count as one absence. When late, please enter the classroom quietly.
- walking In and out of the classroom, carrying your phone.
- submit all assignments, that you complete on your own, on their respective due dates during the first five minutes of class.
- No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work, unless permitted otherwise.
- comply with the UNM Student Code of Conduct.

Student Code of Conduct

Students will be disciplined when engaged in any behaviors that “affect adversely the University’s educational function...disrupt community living on campus, or...interfere with the rights of others to pursue their education, to conduct their University duties and responsibilities or to participate in University activities” per UNM policy at:

<http://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/student-code-of-conduct.html>

Mutual respect is expected between students as well as between students and the professor. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see p. 15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu) at Main Campus. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <http://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/sexual-violence-and-sexual-misconduct.html>

Academic Dishonesty includes “dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done by you or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students...” and Plagiarism—an academic theft. This is when you copy an idea or any text that is more than six words from any source, including the internet or your friends, without citing the source. To avoid plagiarism, you must enclose whatever you copy in quotation marks and cite the source. Any student suspected of academic dishonesty will be subject to the investigative and disciplinary process of UNM. Please refer to <http://handbook.unm.edu/policies/section-d/d100.html>

This course has a zero tolerance policy on academic dishonesty. When found guilty, you will be dropped from the course and a report will be submitted to the Division Chair and the Instruction Dean. The same report will be kept in the student’s academic file.

COURSE GRADING SCHEME – A ROADMAP TO YOUR COURSE SUCCESS

EXAMS (50% OF COURSE GRADE)

Four exams will be given. The first exam accounts for 10% of course grade whereas the average of the other three exams accounts for a total of 40% of your course grade. Format for scheduled exams includes true/false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blanks, and short- answer essays. All exams are closed book and closed notes. No make-up exams or re-takes are given. If you miss the first exam, you will be dropped from the course unless you contact me prior to exam and provide bona fide documentation. Under extenuating circumstances, only ONE make-up exam is permitted with supporting documents from a third party. Make-up exam is essay exam and has to be taken before the scheduled exam. Be sure to have your Lobo ID with you on exam days.

If UNM closes on the day of final exam because of inclement weather or other reasons, your final course grade will be calculated based on all work assessed up to that point during this semester. It includes the grades from: (1) the first three exams, (2) three video reflection essays, (3) class participation, (4) assessment assignments, and (5) all of your earned extra credit.

CLASS PARTICIPATION GRADE: (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

Attendance is mandatory. Class session format includes lectures, team activities, videos, and/or team discussions. Students are randomly assigned to Learning Teams of three. Your team is to take quizzes and exams together, discuss materials, and participate in team activities throughout the semester. As a team, you are to assign a speaker at each class session. The assigned speaker will speak for the team in class. You do not earn any grade for the day that you are absent. I hope you will find the class interesting and engaging because interest and engagement are valuable parts of your learning.

Guidelines for class discussions:

- acknowledge we all have misinformation
- acknowledge we live in a society where various forms of privilege and oppression exist
- acknowledge your peers are like you--doing the best they can to learn
- listen with open mind and speak with open heart
- practice active listening

ASSESSMENT ASSIGNMENTS (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

Three assessments are required. The average of the three assessments accounts for 10% of the course grade.

Assessment (1): Test Anxiety Assessment (p.91)

Assessment (2): Gratitude Assessment (p.85 - 88)

Assessment (3): Self-esteem Assessment (p.89)

VIDEO REFLECTION ESSAYS (VRE: 30% OF COURSE GRADE)

A total of three VREs are required. Students are required to watch a video and write a minimum of 500-word reflection essay, addressing the questions in the assignment sheets. The average of the three essays accounts for 30% of course grade. A grading rubric is provided on the assignment sheets. Check schedule below for due dates.

VRE (1): Food Inc. (complete the worksheet on p.97 - 98)

VRE (2): Raising Cain (p.99 - 100)

VRE (3): Unnatural Causes: Is Inequality Making Us Sick? (complete the worksheet p. 105)

A revised assignment sheet will be distributed for each VRE. Please do not use the ones in the Workbook. They are outdated.

Extra Credit Essays (ECE)

Four extra credit essays (ECE) are offered. Each ECE is weighted to account for up to 2 points towards your final course grade. Check course schedule below for due dates.

*According to UNM policy at http://degrees.unm.edu/undergrad_programs/1459, the passing grade of all sociology courses is a “C.” Students must complete all course requirements to earn credit for the course. Those who fail to complete the requirements will be assigned an “F”.

To protect student’s privacy, grades will only be given out face to face. The final letter grade on your transcript will be based on the following:

99 - 100	A+
94 – 98.9	A
90 – 93.9	A-
87 – 89.9	B+
84 – 86.9	B
80 – 83.9	B-
77 – 79.9	C+
72 – 76.9	C* Please note that any grade less than a 72 is a failing grade.
67 – 71.9	D+
64 – 66.9	D
60 – 63.9	D-
Less than 60	F

DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES: In accordance with University Policy 2310 and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), any student who, because of a disability, may require certain special arrangements in order to meet course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make necessary accommodations. If you are a student with documented physical or learning disability, please notify me during the first week of class. If you have special need and require accommodation in the classroom or other academic setting, it is your responsibility to contact the Office of Equal Access Services at 505-925-8560. (<http://valencia.unm.edu/about/accessibility.html>).

VETERAN SUPPORT SERVICES: If you are a veteran, I strongly encourage you to identify yourself to me, especially if you seek awareness for or need accommodations. For additional assistance, please contact Frances Duran (Campus Branch Registrar) at 505-925-8585 or fduran@unm.edu

ACCOMMODATION FOR SPIRITUAL TRADITION AND/OR FAITH-BASED OBSERVANCE

Please notify me of your obligations to spiritual tradition or faith affiliation. Reasonable accommodation for such observances, upon request in advance, will be considered.

Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. We respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. As for all students in the class, family emergency-related absences are normally excused with reasonable notice to the professor, as noted in the attendance guidelines above. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. The Administration’s welcome is at: <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>.

Safe Zone Areas

Located throughout the campus, these areas offer a safe space for LGBTQI students to share a conversation. You are welcome to come by my office.

GENDER NEUTRAL RESTROOMS

They are two: one is inside the Writing Center and the other is next to the elevator between the Nursing Education Center and Student Community Center.
