REVIEW SHEETS

Review sheets are to help you prepare for exams. Review sheets are included in your Class Packet. Your completed review sheets are due on the dates listed above.

Your completed review sheets are due on the dates listed above.

Review sheets are not corrected, but are graded in the following manner:
- A for review sheets that are completely done
- D for review sheets that are partly done
- C for review sheets that are mostly done
- F for review sheets that are not submitted

TUTORING

Students who seek assistance in studying should
1. ask questions in class, during office hours, via phone, or via email;
2. attend optional review sessions;
3. seek tutoring assistance at the Learning Commons (925-8907), especially the Writing Center in preparing your essays (925-8513)

EXAMS

All exams are objective and include the following 4 parts:

ESSEYS

Two take-home essays are based on any two chapters EXCEPT CHAPTERS 1, 2, 3, AND 8 (on Billy the Kid) of From Where I Stand that are of most interest to you.

Each essay will answer the question:
Contrast (point out differences) in the two points of view in your chapter.

Each essay will be no longer than one double-spaced page and will be graded with the grading checklist in your class binder.

The instructor is willing to read and makes suggestions on an early draft of each essay, either in hard copy or via e-mail.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students cannot use cell phones, ear phones, or other electronic equipment during quizzes or tests.

Students found cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero for the quiz, exam, or essay in question.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students are not graded on their class participation. However, those who participate regularly and well will benefit if they are within one point of the next higher grade level. In such a case the student would receive the higher grade. For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

PAIR & SHARE MOMENTS

You will be asked to identify a person sitting near you to be your Pair and Share Partner. Periodically, questions will be asked in class that you will discuss briefly with your Pair and Share Partner. After a few moments of discussion (called Pair and Share Moments), you may be asked to share your small group's ideas with the class as a whole. In this way we'll try to get as many people as possible involved in class discussions.

Pair & Share Partners are also valuable in case you miss a class and need to get the notes from that day. They are also good folks to work on review sheets and study with for quizzes or exams.

EXTRA CREDIT

Students can earn one extra credit point to be added to your final average by

1. attending all three review sessions
2. writing a third essay based on a chapter in From Where I Stand— even chapter 8!
3. writing an acceptable one-page reaction paper on one of the following activities:
   a. going on historical field trips on your own or with the class, including to such places as the Spanish mission ruins at Abo, the Spanish mission ruins at Quarai, the Pueblo and Spanish mission ruins at Gran Quivira, the Acoma Pueblo, the Pueblo Indian Cultural Center (in Albuquerque), the Camino Real Museum (between Socorro and TorC) the National Hispanic Cultural Center (in Albuquerque), the Farm and Ranch Heritage Museum (in Las Cruces), the Space Museum (in Alamogordo), the National Atomic Museum (in Albuquerque), the Albuquerque Museum, or the Museum of New Mexico (in Santa Fe).
   c. reading one of the following books (mostly historical novels): Irwin A. Blacker, Taos (1959), Willa Cather, Death Comes for the Archbishop (1927), Agnes Morely Cleveland, No Life for a Lady (1941), Harvey Fergusson, The Conquest of Don Pedro (1957), Harvey Fergusson, Grant of Kingdom (1975), Ruth Laughlin, The Wind Leaves No Shadow (1956), or any novel by Eugene Manlove Rhodes, Rudolfo Anaya, Frank Waters, John Nichols, Richard Bradford, Leslie Marmon Silko, or Tony Hillerman.

Reaction papers should briefly describe the field trip, video, or novel and comment on its main points as they relate to our discussions in class.
Extra credit reaction papers are due by November 28, but can be handed in at any previous time during the semester.

LATE POLICY

Students who miss exams or the map quiz or turn in assignments in late will lose 5 points for every day they do not make-up the missed exam or quiz or submit the late assignment.

This penalty is not enforced if the student lets the instructor know prior to the due date that he/she has an emergency and will be unable to take the test or quiz or submit the assignment by the scheduled time. If the instructor agrees that there is in fact an emergency, a new due date will be scheduled as soon as possible.

*****************************************************

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office on campus will provide the instructor with a letter outlining your accommodations. The instructor will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment.

If you feel you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Jeanne Lujan, the coordinator for Equal Access Services, at 925-8910 or jmlujan@unm.edu.

*****************************************************

TITLE IX

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, students, and staff should report cases of gender discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and sexual violence, to the Title IX Coordinator at the UNM Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html

*****************************************************

PERSONAL CONVERSATIONS

Students should not engage in personal conversations or distracting behavior during class time. Those who do will be given a yellow warning card. If the conversation or distracting behavior continues, they will be given a red card, which means that they must leave the class for the rest of the day.

*****************************************************

CELL PHONES

Students can bring cell phones into class to receive emergency calls. However they must be set to "discreet" and should not ring during class. If you have an emergency call you should leave the room, deal with the situation, and return.

*****************************************************

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class meetings. Attendance is taken prior to the start of each class meeting.

To be late is to be absent.

Students with 3 consecutive absences or 5 total absences will be dropped from the class by the instructor.

There are no excused absences.

If you are forced to miss a class due to an emergency, you are encouraged to get the notes for the day you missed from your Pair and Share Partner or another trusted member of the class.
