Welcome to Introduction to Literature 150! This course is designed to help you increase your understanding and enjoyment of many genres of literature, such as short stories, poems, essays, and films. Introduction to Literature 150 focuses on stories, poems, drama, and films that are often weird, strange, or macabre, to explore ways writers enhance their writing through images and language. The course requires you to read, discuss, and write critically about literature. It also includes some interesting and creative ways to look at the written word.

Your Professor

I am Dr. Jami L. Huntsinger (pronounced Hun-singer). After graduating from the University of New Mexico in 1997, with a Ph.D. in English, I chose to work at a two-year college because I enjoy teaching. In 1997, I accepted a position as a professor at Valencia Campus, where I teach many classes, such as Composition 101 (face-to-face and online), 102, Grammar 240 (face-to-face and online), Introduction to Literature 150 (face-to-face and online), Southwest Literature 211, Native American Literature 264 (face-to-face and online), and American Literature 296.

I grew up in South Dakota (I am Lakota French), and I moved to New Mexico in 1989. I am now a resident of Belen, New Mexico, and I live in the country. I love life in the valley -- I especially enjoy hearing the braying of the burro, Chelsea, who lives next door -- she is my 6:00-am alarm clock. To make my life complete, I have three special animal friends – Heidi, my Dachshund who loves to eat socks, Mia, my Dachshund cross who loves to hop about the yard, and Dawn Noel, my baby who came down the chimney on Christmas a few years ago.
Learning Outcomes for Introduction to Literature 150

By the end of the semester, you should be able to,
1) Read and analyze varied genres of literature,
2) Interpret and recognize important quotations in a text,
3) Define and employ literary terms when discussing a work,
4) Analyze literary conventions, such as plot, theme, character, setting, and point of view,
5) Understand and interpret figurative language,
6) Express ideas about the literature clearly in postings and writing assignments using Standard Written English, and
7) Use MLA conventions when quoting.

Grading Scale

Not all assignments and their grades are equal in value. At UNM VC, you can earn a course grade of A, B, C, D (fractionated), F, W, or I. Daily Work and Discussions are worth 20%. Quizzes are worth 20%, and Test One, which is given in week 8, is worth 30%. The Final Examination, given during finals week, is worth 30% of the Final Grade and is a comprehensive test over all material covered. All tests and quizzes are timed open note and open book assessments.

The Grading Scale is as follows: A+, 98-100%; A, 93-97%; A-, 90-92%; B+, 88-89%; B, 83-87%; B-, 80-82%; C+, 78-79%; C, 73-77%; C-, 70-72%; D+, 68-69%; D, 63-67%; D-, 60-62%, below 60% F or W. Incompletes, or I, are earned if students have completed all coursework, but are unable to complete the final examination or if a student is deployed. Documentation will be requested. Incompletes must be complete during the next year, or the university converts the I to an F.

Support for Student Success

Begin with Dr. Huntsinger

My office hours for this course are held T, 8:00-9:00 online and TR, 12:30-1:20 pm, Academics Office where you can visit me or call me on the phone (925-8600). You may contact me anytime with “Mail” in Blackboard LEARN. In Course Tools, click on “Mail” to send me a message. I will respond within 24 hours. Please do not wait for responses on Sunday – I rest. ☺

Blackboard LEARN Support Services

Computer Technicians: Password problems? Trouble with files opening? If you have questions about computer problems, call 277-5757, M-F, 8:00 am-12:00 noon and M-F, 1:00 pm-5:00 pm MST. Computer technicians are available and happy to help you solve those difficult problems.

Tutorials: Having problem with one of the Course Tools in Blackboard LEARN? Consult one of the tutorials available on the Blackboard LEARN information page. http://Blackboard LEARNinfo.unm.edu/student/.

Tutors: At the Writing Center at UNM Valencia Campus, tutors are available, both face-to-face and online, to help you navigate Blackboard LEARN. Call for an appointment: 925-8513.

Library Resources

The UNM Valencia Campus library is a resource for articles and books. Go to http://valencia.unm.edu/library/ to search remotely (from home). To search remotely, you will need passwords which are on the website. Call (505)-925-8990 to get help.
Equal Access Services/ADA

The UNM Accessibility Services, phone (505) 925-8560 and website http://valencia.unm.edu/students/advise-and-counseling/equal-access-services.html, provides academic support to students with disabilities. If you need alternative formats for completing coursework, you should contact this service immediately to ensure your success. Once you have been to UNM Valencia Campus Equal Access Services and I have received your paperwork, I can accommodate your needs. I cannot accommodate any special needs without the proper authorization from UNM Valencia Campus Equal Access Services, which tells me how to help you best. I accommodate documented special needs required by the ADA. I encourage students to discuss their concerns with me!

The Writing Center: Tutoring

Face-to-face tutoring is available at The Writing Center. You may call 925-8513 for information, or you may visit https://www.facebook.com/unmvcwritingcenter/ on Facebook. Either Patricia Gillikin, Manager of The Writing Center, or any of the tutors will be happy to arrange tutoring sessions.

Assignments

Assignments are announced in individual lessons under “Checklist” in Blackboard Learn. Students will have readings, quizzes, and discussions, which may be due on Wednesday and/or Saturday, by 11:59 PM. The First Test will be submitted Saturday of Week Eight, by 11:59 PM, and the Final Examination will be submitted Friday of Week Sixteen, by 11:59 PM.

Due Dates – Late Work

- Due dates for work will be posted in Blackboard LEARN folders. I do not accept late homework, postings, quizzes, or tests. If you have an emergency, and if you have consistently submitted work on time, contact me. I may ask for documentation to make an exception. Do not use consistent emergencies which are unverifiable to extend due dates.
- Your assignments are due during a period of several days and are not accepted after that period.

Grade Disputes

If you wish to challenge your final grade, follow the procedure in The Student Handbook. Always discuss grade concerns with your instructor first. You should be familiar with one very important rule regarding disputes: the Student Privacy Act, a federal statute called FERPA, strictly prohibits the instructor or administrators from talking to anyone but the student about his/her grades, progress, or work.

Reasons for Failing

The sad fact is that some students will fail the course. Logging in, trying hard, and/or turning in work does not ensure you a passing grade. You must complete work at an acceptable level of competency, and if you do not, your writing will fail.

1. If you have an average of less than 73% on work completed, you will fail the course.
2. If you do not submit assignments and quizzes on time, take the First Test and Final Examination, and have a passing average, you will fail. To avoid failing, meet the Learning Outcomes listed above.
Reasons Students May Be Dropped If…

Students may be dropped from the course if they,
1. Do not post assignments for more than two weeks,
2. Do not take the First Test or Final Examination,
3. Do not submit all assignments correctly by the deadline,
4. Have a 50% grade average at the Midterm (end of Week 8).
5. Are disrespectful to the instructor or other classmates in correspondence, such as discussions, e-mails, or peer editing sessions. This behavior includes rude comments, swearing, or threats.
6. Threaten the mental or physical safety or well-being of any member of the class. This includes stalking, cyber stalking, or threats of/actual physical violence, online or face-to-face.

Avoiding Plagiarism

Your assignments must not be plagiarized. Plagiarism means using or copying language and/or ideas without acknowledging where you got them. Plagiarism includes copying another student’s papers or ideas, downloading and turning in papers from the Internet, copying passages from sources without proper documentation, or rephrasing an author’s ideas and then presenting them as your own original thoughts. To learn how to avoid plagiarism, talk to me, e-mail me, or consult a tutor. To learn more, complete the Plagiarism Tutorial in Course Materials in Blackboard LEARN or at http://library.acadiau.ca/tutorials/plagiarism. (Pick Dylan in the tutorial.) If you would like even more information about plagiarism, The Owl at Purdue website offers sage advice: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/01. In addition, talk to me about methods of quoting that will help you avoid plagiarizing. In a world of high stress and busy schedules, coupled with ample resources on the Internet, you may be tempted to plagiarize. Stop! Ignore that temptation! Why? If you do plagiarize, you will face one or more of the following consequences: being dropped from the course, failing the assignment, failing the course, or facing disciplinary action taken by the University. Your actions may also be reported to the Dean of Instruction. Further disciplinary action, in addition to the actions taken for the plagiarism, may be taken based on the severity of the behavior. The University considers plagiarism a serious form of academic dishonesty or stealing.

Materials, Supplies, and Skills Needed

Books are available at UNM Valencia’s bookstore: https://valencia.unm.edu/campus-resources/bookstore/index.html; textbooks are listed here: https://valencia.unm.edu/campus-resources/bookstore/spring-2019-textbooklist.pdf.

Materials and Skills Required

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature:
Reading, Thinking, Writing; 11th edition. ISBN: 978-1-319-03727-7

Films (listed in Blackboard Learn.) You can acquire them through any means available to you, i.e. Amazon.com, Netflix, UNM libraries, public libraries, etc.)

A working computer, and thumb drive, and a UNM Net ID and password

Keyboarding and general computer skills, such as saving files, attaching files, and e-mailing
General Policies for English 120: Student Responsibilities

While I do not expect problems when working with adult learners, these policies ensure a safe and productive online environment. These policies are also in University of New Mexico Student Handbook:

1. Students must treat one another and the instructor with respect. Nasty remarks and name-calling are prohibited.
2. Students should not post non-related comments or questions about matters that are not a part of course curriculum.
3. Students may discuss complaints about the course with their instructor; however, they must do so in the proper environment, e.g. in the instructor’s office or in a private e-mail to the instructor.
4. Students should use appropriate, polite language. Class time, e.g. discussion postings, is a professional learning environment, so obscene or offensive language, such as cursing, will NOT be tolerated.
5. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated.
6. Behavior that threatens the safety of any class member, including the instructor, will not be tolerated. The offending student may be dropped from the course. Threats, cyber stalking, or stalking fall into this category.
7. Threatening the instructor to get a change of grade is prohibited. This behavior is harassment and/or verbal assault. Grades can be disputed; students should use the process outlined in the UNM Student Handbook.
8. Students violating any of these rules will be given a written warning and may be dropped from the class. They may be required to meet with the Chair of CHESS and the Dean of Instruction.

Title IX Policies – Required Announcement

The following statement indicates your rights under Title IX: “In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered responsible employees. This designation requires that any report made to a faculty member, TA, or GA regarding sexual misconduct or gender discrimination must be reported to the Office of Equal Opportunity and the Title IX Coordinator. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html”

E-mail Netiquette

Please keep the following in mind when you write e-mails:

- Send messages to me through Blackboard LEARN e-mail, not through my UNM e-mail account. Please use UNM e-mail for emergencies ONLY. If you must use UNM e-mail for an emergency, type “___(Your Name)___ from English 120: E-mail Concerning____(fill in blank)____” in the subject line. I am not expecting e-mails from you in the general account, and I do not want to delete your message as spam. Also, I may not answer e-mails in UNM e-mail immediately.

- Include an informative subject line. In every e-mail you write to me, the subject line should contain a descriptive phrase specifically about the problem. For example, “Problems with Nouns Worksheet in Lesson 5, question 4” is clear and helpful, but “Homework” is not. Unclear subject lines slow my response because I may not have enough information to help you without having to asking you for clarification.

- Include a salutation. E-mails do not usually include “Dear,” as a letter does, but they do include titles and last names. When you write to me, call me Dr. Huntsinger or Professor Huntsinger. Informal words of address, such as “Hey,” are never appropriate and are often rude.

- Include a closing. Please close with an appropriate phrase and sign your e-mail with your name. Signatures help me; I may not recognize your e-mail address. Some examples of appropriate phrases are “Sincerely” or “Thank you for your help.”

- Capitalize only the first word of a complimentary close. If you close your e-mail with a multi-word phrase such as "Thank you," only the first word takes an initial capital letter.

- Use short paragraphs. Because legibility on the screen is not as good as legibility on paper, use short paragraphs (3-4 lines maximum) to make the e-mail easy to read. In addition, be sure to skip lines between paragraphs.

- Do not use instant-messaging spelling. BTW, if u want 2 b treated like a pro, write like 1.“Oh, I meant to say ‘oh’ 😊.”
• Adhere to the conventions of Standard English. Please edit and proofread for spelling errors and grammatical mistakes. Use your spell/grammar check in Blackboard Learn, located above the right-hand side of the text box. In addition, the computer does not catch all errors (form/from), so give your document one final read before submitting or sending it.

• DO NOT SEND ALL CAP MESSAGES. All capital letters mean you are screaming at me. This is inappropriate behavior. To emphasize a point, underline or use bold font for an important point.

Computer Policies

Technical Safeguards
Please save all your work. First, save all assignments on your hard disk and then save copies to memory sticks. For even better protection, print out hard copies of your work. Important Note: At UNM Valencia, losing a file or computer problems is not an excuse for late work. Have a back-up file and an available computer if you have problems with yours. The UNM, UNM VC, Los Lunas, and Belen libraries have computers available if you have computer problems.

Getting Computer Help
If you experience computer difficulties, you must call (505) 277-5757 for help and fix the problem. These computer technicians can answer questions you may have concerning specific software, hardware, and other procedural issues related to this course.

Computer Policies in a UNM VC Lab
If you use the computers on campus, you must adhere to all policies set forth by the University of New Mexico at Valencia Campus. Check with the person who oversees the lab for a copy of the policies.

Printing Syllabus at UNM Valencia
If you use computers at UNM Valencia Campus to print your syllabus, please print on both front and back of the paper. Ask for assistance if you do not know how to do this.

Assignments

Assignments for the course are in Blackboard Learn. In each lesson, there is a checklist of required quizzes and postings which are required on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 11:59 PM. The Midterm Examination is due Saturday, Week Eight, 11:59 PM, and the Final Examination is due Saturday, Week Sixteen, 11:59 PM.
