COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a web-enhanced college course that requires both reading and writing. Designed to introduce students to the basic sociological concepts, this course will help students to better understand how culture and socialization influence one's behaviors and worldviews. In addition to promoting a clearer understanding of the impact of the social, political, and economic environments on individual lives, this course will also examine the relationships between social structures and one's personal lives.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the semester, when you do your part as a student, you will be able to:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES	NM HIGHER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT REQUIREMENT

MUTUAL EXPECTATIONS

COMMUNICATION WITH ME

- The best way to reach me is via eMail.
- Make an appointment with me in advance to reduce your waiting time at my office.
- You are welcome to speak with me before or after class. Please be aware that these conversations have to be brief and are not private conversations.

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO DROP YOU FROM THE COURSE WHEN YOU...

- do not show up on the first day of class.
- miss four class sessions.
- miss the first exam.
- miss a total of two exams.

YOU CAN ALSO EXPECT ME TO ...

- come to class on time and be prepared to teach.
- contact you when you miss two class sessions.
- not accept late work or work that is not typed.
- respond to your eMails or phone messages by the next business day.
- return all activity sheets, assignments, and exams in no more than two weeks.
- keep your phone/digital device until the end of the class session, if you use it in class.
- give you only one verbal warning when you are disruptive in class before I ask you to leave.
- call campus police to escort you out of the classroom if disruptive behavior continues.

TO EXCEL THIS CLASS, I HIGHLY SUGGEST THAT YOU...

- come to class and do the work.
- complete all reading assignments for the week before coming to class.
- spend a minimum of six hours per week on activities pertaining to this course. These activities include reading the assignments to seek answers for the questions in the workbook, reviewing and organizing the lecture notes so to create your own study notes, completing the assignments, etc.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS / ATTENDANCE

- attend all class sessions. Watching class captures does not substitute for attendance. Any absences--excused or unexcused--will affect your grade.
- arrive punctually--it is a matter of self-respect. Tardiness will be noted if you are 10 minutes late or leave 10 minutes before class is dismissed and do not give me advance notice. Two late arrivals count as one absence. When late, please enter the classroom quietly.
- submit all assignments, that you complete on your own, on their respective due dates during the first five minutes of class.
- No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work, unless permitted otherwise.
- comply with the UNM Student Code of Conduct.

Student Code of Conduct

Students will be disciplined when engaged in any behaviors that “affect adversely the University’s educational function...disrupt community living on campus, or...interfere with the rights of others to pursue their education, to conduct their University duties and responsibilities or to participate in University activities” per UNM policy at:

<http://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/student-code-of-conduct.html>

Mutual respect is expected between students as well as between students and the professor. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see p. 15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu) at Main Campus. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

Academic Dishonesty includes “dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done by you or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students...” and Plagiarism—an academic theft. It is when you copy an idea or any text that is more than six words from any source, including the internet or your friends, without citing the source. To avoid plagiarism, you must enclose whatever you copy in quotation marks and cite the source. Any student suspected of academic dishonesty will be subject to the investigative and disciplinary process of UNM. Please refer to <http://handbook.unm.edu/policies/section-d/d100.html>

This course has a zero tolerance policy on academic dishonesty. When found guilty, you will be dropped from the course and a report will be submitted to the Division Chair and the Instruction Dean. The same report will be kept in the student's academic file.

COURSE GRADING SCHEME

THE EVALUATION OF FINAL COURSE GRADE IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

Four Exams	60%
Class Participation	10%
Four Assessment Assignments	10%
Three Video Reflection Essays	20%
	100%

EXAMS (60% OF COURSE GRADE)

A total of four exams will be given. The average of all exams accounts for 60% of your course grade. Format for scheduled exams includes true/false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blanks, and short-answer essays. All exams are closed book and closed notes. No make-up exams or re-takes are given. If you miss the first exam, you will be dropped from the course unless you contact me prior to exam and provide bona fide documentation. Under extenuating circumstances, only ONE make-up exam is permitted with supporting documents from a third party. Make-up exam is essay exam and has to be taken before the scheduled exam. Be sure to have your Lobo ID with you on exam days.

If UNM closes on the day of final exam because of inclement weather or other reasons, your final course grade will be calculated based on all work assessed up to that point during this semester. It includes the grades from: (1) the first three exams, (2) three video reflection essays, (3) class participation, (4) assessment assignments, and (5) all of your earned extra credit.

PARTICIPATION GRADE: LEARNING TEAM ACTIVITY SHEET (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

Attendance is mandatory. Class session format includes lectures, team activities, videos, and/or team discussions. Students are randomly assigned to Learning Teams of three. Your team is to take exams together, discuss materials, give review as subject experts, and participate in team activities throughout the semester. As a team, you are to assign a speaker at each class session. The assigned speaker will speak for the team in class. To earn credit, your team is to submit the Learning Team Activity Sheets at the end of each class sessions. On the sheet, your team is to write at least one concept that is still confused. You do not earn any grade for the day that you are absent, or when your team do not turn in the sheet. I hope you will find the class interesting and engaging because interest and engagement are valuable parts of your learning.

Guidelines for class discussions:

- acknowledge we all have misinformation
- acknowledge we live in a society where various forms of privilege and oppression exist
- acknowledge your peers are like you--doing the best they can to learn
- listen with open mind and speak with open heart
- practice active listening

ASSESSMENT ASSIGNMENTS (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

Four assessments are required--one for each unit. The average of the four assessments accounts for 10% of the course grade.

Unit (1): Learning Style (p.79) or Study Time Assessment (p.83)

Unit (2): Gratitude Assessment (p.87)

Unit (3): Self-esteem Assessment (p.91)

Unit (4): Test Anxiety Assessment (p.93)

VIDEO REFLECTION ESSAYS (VRE: 20% OF COURSE GRADE)

A total of three VREs are required. Students are required to watch a video and write a minimum of 250-word reflection essay, addressing the questions posted in the assignment sheets. The average of all essays accounts for 20% of course grade. A grading rubric is provided on the assignment sheets.

Extra Credit Essays (ECE)

Four extra credit essays (ECE) are offered. Each ECE is weighted to account for up to 2 points towards your final course grade.

*According to UNM policy at http://degrees.unm.edu/undergrad_programs/1004/degree_plans, the passing grade of all sociology courses is a "C." Students must complete all course requirements to earn credit for the course. Those who fail to complete the requirements will be assigned an "F".

To protect student's privacy, grades will only be given out face to face. The final letter grade on your transcript will be based on the following:

99 - 100	A+
94 - 98.9	A
90 - 93.9	A-
87 - 89.9	B+
84 - 86.9	B
80 - 83.9	B-
77 - 79.9	C+
72 - 76.9	C* Please note that any grade less than a 72 is a failing grade.
67 - 71.9	D+
64 - 66.9	D
60 - 63.9	D-
Less than 60	F
