REVIEW SHEETS

Review sheets are to help you prepare for exams. They should not be done during class instead of taking notes. Your completed review sheets are due on the dates listed above.

Review sheets are not corrected, but are graded in the following manner:

A for review sheets that are completely done	D for review sheets that are partly done
C for review sheets that are mostly done	F for review sheets that are not submitted

EXAMS

All exams are objective and include the following 4 parts:

Part 1: 30 Matching IDs.....	30 points
Part 2: 30 Short Answer Questions.....	60 points
Part 3: 5 Historical Map Questions.....	5 points
Part 4: 5 Historical Periods Questions...	5 points
TOTAL.....	100 points

Sample exams (with answer keys) are in your class binder. Students are urged to take the sample exams after studying for the test. If you do well, it is a good measure that you will do well on the test and you should have confidence (and less anxiety) going into the test.

Students can take make up exams, although they are essay exams and are considered harder.

ESSAYS

Two take-home essays are based on any two chapters EXCEPT CHAPTERS 1, 2, 3, AND 8 (on Billy the Kid) of From Where I Stand that are of most interest to you.

Each essay will answer the question:

Contrast (point out the differences in) the two points of view expressed in your chapter.

Each essay will be no longer than one double-spaced page and will be graded with a grading checklist included in your class binder.

The instructor is willing to read and makes suggestions on an early draft of each essay, either in hard copy or via e-mail.

Each essay is worth 10% of your final grade.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students cannot use cell phones, earphones, or other electronic equipment during the quiz and tests.

Students found cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero for the exam or assignment in question.

LATE POLICY

Students who miss exams or turn assignments in late will lose 10 points off the late exam or assignment.

This penalty is not enforced only if the student lets the instructor know prior to the due date that he/she has an emergency and will be unable to take the test or submit the assignment by the scheduled time.

If the instructor agrees that there is in fact an emergency, a new due date will be scheduled as soon as possible.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students are not graded on their class participation. However, those who participate regularly and well will benefit if they are within one point of the next higher grade level. In such a case the student would receive the higher grade. For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

PAIR & SHARE MOMENTS

You will be asked to identify a person sitting near you to be your Pair and Share Partner.

Periodically, questions will be asked in class that you will discuss briefly with your Pair and Share Partner. After a few moments of discussion (called Pair and Share Moments), you may be asked to share your small group's ideas with the class as a whole. In this way we'll try to get as many people as possible involved in class discussions.

Pair and Share Partners are also valuable in case you miss a class and need to get the notes for the material you missed. Partners can be helpful when you are completing your review sheets and studying for exams.

EXTRA CREDIT

Students can earn 1 extra credit point to be added to your final average by

1. attending all three optional review sessions

or

2. writing a third essay based on a chapter in From Where I Stand (even chapter 8)

or

3. writing an acceptable one-page reaction paper on one of the following activities:

a. going on historical field trips on your own, including to such places as the Spanish mission ruins at Abo, the Spanish mission ruins at Quarai, the Pueblo and Spanish mission ruins at Gran Quivira, the Acoma Pueblo, the Albuquerque Museum, the Albuquerque Balloon Museum, the Museum of New Mexico (in Santa Fe).

b. viewing one of the following videos available in the campus library at no charge:

"The Chaco Legacy"; "The Voyage of Discovery: Spanish Colonial Exploration"; "El Camino Real"; "El Camino Real and the Taos Trade Fairs"; "The Mission"; "Surviving Columbus"; "The Ballad of Gregorio Cortez"; "La Tules"; "Land Grants in Valencia County"; "Tome, New Mexico, Tour"; "History of the Santa Fe Trail"; "The U.S.-Mexican War"; "Susan Magoffin"; "The Native Americans: Natives of the Southwest"; "The Native Americans: Tribes of the Southwest"; "Geronimo and the Apache Resistance"; "Seasons of the Navajo"; "The New Mexico Buffalo Soldiers"; "Trouble in Lincoln County"; "Quien es? Billy the Kid"; "Sheriff Pat Garrett"; "Early Albuquerque: The Railroad Boom Years"; "Fred Harvey and the American West"; "Viva La Causa: 500 Years of Chicano History"

c. reading one of the following books:

Irwin A. Blacker, Taos (1959); Joseph J. Bohnaker, Of Arms I Sing (1990); Willa Cather, Death Comes for the Archbishop (1927); Agnes Morely Cleaveland, No Life for a Lady (1941); Harvey Fergusson, The Conquest of Don Pedro (1957); Harvey Fergusson, Grant of Kingdom (1975); Ruth Laughlin, The Wind Leaves No Shadow (1956); Tim MacCurdy, Caesar of Santa Fe (1990); or any novel by Eugene Manlove Rhodes, Rudolfo Anaya, Frank Waters, John Nichols, Richard Bradford, Leslie Marmon Silko, and Tony Hillerman.

Reaction papers should briefly describe the field trip, video, or novel and comment on its main points as they relate to our discussions in class.

Reaction papers can be submitted at any time before Monday, July 24.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office on campus will provide the instructor with a letter outlining your accommodations. The instructor will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment.

If you feel you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Jeanne Lujan, the coordinator for Equal Access Services, at 925-8910 or jmlujan@unm.edu.

TITLE IX

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see pg 15 -<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

CELL PHONES, etc.

Students can bring cell phones into class to receive emergency calls. However they must be set to "discreet" and should not ring during class.

Lectures can be taped.

No electronic equipment can be used during the quiz or exams.

PERSONAL CONVERSATIONS

Students should not engage in personal conversations during class time. Those who do will be given a yellow warning card. If the conversation continues, they will be given a red card, which means that they must leave the class for the rest of the day.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend all class sessions, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Attendance is taken both before and at the end of each class session. Students can only sign in prior to and at the end of each class by initializing the attendance book.

Late arrivals can not sign in, although they can stay to participate and take notes in class. Late arrivals are considered absent.

Students must attend the entire class, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., to be given credit as attending class. Students who leave before 1:15 p.m. (and therefore do not sign the attendance book at the end of class) are officially absent.

Students with 2 consecutive absences (that is, missing 2 straight full days of class) or 3 regular absences (that is, missing any 3 full days of class) will be dropped from the course by the instructor.

There are no “excused absences.”

If you are forced to miss a class due to an emergency, you are encouraged to get the notes for the day you missed from your Pair and Share Partner (or any other reliable member of the class) and carefully reread the suggested reading for the day.
