REVIEW SHEETS

Review sheets are to help you prepare for exams. They are included in your Class Blinder. Your completed review sheets are due on the dates listed above.

Review sheets are not corrected, but are graded in the following manner:

A:for review sheets that are completely done D: for review sheets that are partly done
C: for review sheets that are mostly done F: for review sheets that are not submitted

EXAMS

Regularly scheduled exams are objective and include the following 4 parts:

- Part 1: 30 Matching IDs..... 30 points
- Part 2: 30 Short Answer Questions..... 60 points
- Part 3: 5 Historical Map Questions..... 5 points
- Part 4: 5 Historical Periods..... 5 points
- TOTAL..... 100 points

Sample exams (with answer keys) are included in your Course Binders.

Make-Up Exams:

Make-up exams are essay exams and are generally more difficult. (See LATE POLICY statement below.)

QUIZZES

There are 4 quizzes: one map and three reading quizzes based on primary sources in The American Journey.

Students are responsible for reading The American Journey at your own pace in preparation for the quizzes.

Review sheets for the reading quizzes are distributed about a week prior to each quiz.

PAIR & SHARE MOMENTS

You will be asked to identify a person sitting near you to be your Pair & Share Partner. Periodically, questions will be asked in class that you will discuss briefly with your Pair & Share Partner. After a few moments of discussion (called Pair & Share Moments), you may be asked to share the ideas you and your partner have had a chance to discuss.

Pair & Share Partners also make helpful study partners, sources of notes (if you miss a class), and sources of morale support!

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students are not graded on their class participation. However, those who participate regularly and well in class will certainly benefit in the learning process. They will also benefit if they are within one point of the next higher grade level. In such a case the student would receive the higher grade.

For example, if a student has an 89 final average and has participated regularly and well in class, he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

TUTORING

Students who seek assistance in studying should

1. ask questions in class, during office hours, via phone, or via email;
2. attend optional review sessions;
3. seek tutoring assistance at the Learning Center (925-8907).

TITLE IX

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, students, and staff should report cases of gender discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and sexual violence, to the Title IX Coordinator at the UNM Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

SPECIAL NEEDS

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, students with special needs based on learning disabilities are encouraged to discuss them with the instructor.

To be tested for learning disabilities, contact the Student Enrichment Center in the library building or at 925-8560 or at <http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm>.

Students who have been tested and have special needs should present their documentation to the instructor as early in the semester as possible.

EXTRA CREDIT

Students can earn 1 extra credit point (to be added to your final average) in any one of the following 2 ways:

- By attending all 3 optional review sessions
- By viewing one of the following films (available to borrow from the library):

- "The Vikings"
- "The Voyage of Discovery: Spanish Colonial Exploration"
- "Surviving Columbus"
- "The Lewis and Clark Expedition"
- "Roots" (7 tapes; watch at least one)
- "Roots of Resistance: The Underground Railroad"
- "Birth of a Nation"
- "The Civil War" (9 tapes; watch at least one)
- "Glory"
- "Echoes of the Blue and Gray"
- "12 Years a Slave"
- "Twilight of the Blue and Gray"

or other movies suggested by the student and agreed on by the instructor.

After viewing a film, students write a 1-page, double-spaced typed reaction paper describing the film and relating it to our discussions in class.

Extra credit papers can be submitted no later than November 28.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students found cheating will receive a zero for the quiz or exam in question.

Students cannot use any electronic devices during quizzes or exams.

CELL PHONES

Students can bring cell phones to class to receive emergency calls. However the phones must be set to "discreet" and should not ring during class.

If you receive an emergency call during class you should leave, deal with the emergency, and return to class.

PERSONAL CONVERSATIONS

Students should not engage in personal conversations or engage in other distracting behavior during class time. Those who do will be given a yellow warning card. If the conversation or distracting behavior continues, they will be given a red card, which means that they must leave the class for the rest of the day.

LATE POLICY

Students who miss the map quiz or exams will lose 5 points for every day they do not make-up the missed quiz or exam.

This penalty is not enforced only if the student lets the instructor know prior to the due date that he/she has an emergency and will be unable to take the test or submit the assignment by the scheduled time.

If the instructor agrees that there is in fact an emergency, a new due date will be scheduled as soon as possible.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Attendance is taken before the start of each session. To be late is to be absent.

Students with 3 consecutive absences or 5 absences overall may be dropped from the class by the instructor.

There are no excused absences.

If you are forced to miss a class due to an emergency, you are encouraged to get the notes for the day you missed from your Pair & Share Partner or another member of the class.
