

FA18_POLSCI-110-501_AND_502_MELZERR
THE POLITICAL WORLD
POLITICAL SCIENCE 110
FALL 2018

Instructor: Richard Melzer, Ph.D.
Office: Room #142D, Academic Building
Office Phone: 925-8620
e-mail: rmelzer@unm.edu
Office Hours: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:30-noon & 4:15-5:15 p.m.
Tuesdays, 10-10:30 & 4:15-5:15 p.m. & by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An introduction to politics, with emphasis on the ways people can understand their own political systems and those of others. (Students who have already taken courses in Political Science may not count POL SC 110 towards a major in Political Science.)

OPTIONAL TEXTBOOK:

SPECIAL ORDER IN THE BOOKSTORE (OVER $100)

OR

BUY VIA AMAZON.COM ($.01 AND UP) OR RENT FOR $30 AND UP

Michael G. Roskin, Robert L. Cord, James A. Medeiros, & Walter S. Jones, Political Science: An Introduction (Upper Saddle River, New Jersey: Prentice Hall, ANY EDITION).

Students who opt to purchase the textbook should read about each day's topic by finding the appropriate pages in the textbook. If students need help in identifying the appropriate pages, they should see the instructor for assistance.

NOT OPTIONAL:

Course Binder: essential course material

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To introduce students to the basic terms and concepts of Political Science;
2. To introduce students to the world's major political philosophies and ideologies;
3. To introduce students to the world's main democratic systems;
4. To introduce students to the role of political violence, especially terrorism;
5. To introduce students to international relations;
6. To view four important movies relating to critical events in political history;
7. To help students develop the habit of keeping up-to-date on political developments as they occur in the United States and around the world.

COURSE SCHEDULE:

WEEK #1 Tuesday, August 21:
Syllabus Review; Basic Political Terms & Concepts;
Why do we study political science?
Plato and the Republic

WEEK #2 Tuesday, August 28:
Monarchy & Machiavelli's The Prince
Movie: Good Night and Good Luck

WEEK #3 Tuesday, September 4:
Map Quiz (first 10 minutes of class)
Political Philosophy: Liberalism

WEEK #4 Tuesday, September 11:
Political Philosophy: Conservatism
Political Updates

WEEK #5 Tuesday, September 18:
Political Philosophy: Marxism
Political Updates

WEEK #6 Tuesday, September 25:
Political Philosophy: Fascism
Political Updates

WEEK #7 Tuesday, October 2:
Review Sheet #1 due
Movie: All the President's Men

Friday, October 5
Optional review session, 11 a.m., room A131

WEEK #8 Tuesday, October 9:
Exam #1 (first 45 mins. of class)
Comparative Government: American Democracy

WEEK #9 Tuesday, October 16:
Comparative Government: American Democracy
Political Updates

WEEK #10 Tuesday, October 23:
Comparative Government: English Parliamentary Democracy
Political Updates

WEEK #11 Tuesday, October 30:
Comparative Government: Multi-party Parliamentary Democracy
Political Updates

WEEK #12 Tuesday, November 6: ELECTION DAY
Review Sheet #2 due
Movie: Lincoln

Friday, November 9
Optional review session, 11 a.m., room A131

WEEK #13 Tuesday, November 13:
Exam #2 (first 45 mins. of class)
 National Political Violence

WEEK #14 Tuesday, November 20:
 International Relations
Political Updates
Optional Extra Credit Projects due

WEEK #15 Tuesday, November 27:
 International Relations
Political Updates

WEEK #16 Tuesday, December 4:
Review Sheet #3 due
Movie: 13 Days

WEEK #17 Tuesday, December 11:
Exam #3

GRADING:

GRADED ACTIVITY	DATE	PERCENTAGE OF FINAL GRADE
8 Political Updates	September 11, 18, & 25; October 16, 23, & 31; November 20 & 27	10%
Map Quiz	Tuesday, September 4	10%
Review Sheet #1	Tuesday, October 2	3.3%
Review Sheet #2	Tuesday, November 6	3.3%
Review Sheet #3	Tuesday, December 4	3.3%
Exam #1	Tuesday, October 9	20%
Exam #2	Tuesday, November 13	20%
Exam #3	Tuesday, December 11	30%
Optional Extra Credit Project	Tuesday, November 20	+1
TOTAL.....		100%

REVIEW SHEETS:

Review sheets are distributed about a week before each exam to help you prepare and study well. Review sheets are not corrected. They are graded in the following manner:

- A if all questions are thoroughly answered
- C if most questions are thoroughly answered
- D if some questions are thoroughly answered
- F if a review sheet was not submitted

TUTORING

Students who seek assistance in studying should

1. ask questions in class, during office hours, via phone, or via email;
2. seek tutoring assistance at the Learning Center (925-8907).

EXAMS:

All exams are objective and include the following 3 parts:

Part 1: 35 Matching Ids	35 points
Part 2: 30 Short Answer Questions	60 points
Part 3: 5 Political Map Questions	5 points
TOTAL.....	100 points

Sample exams (with answer keys) are in the course binder.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Students cannot use I-Pods, cell phones, earphones, or other electronic equipment during quizzes or tests.

Students found cheating will receive a zero for the quiz or exam in question.

GRADE LEVELS:

FOR EXAMS & FINAL COURSE GRADES

98-100: A+

Students must have a 98 or above average and do an extra credit paper to qualify for an A+ in the course.

93-97 : A	70-76 : C
90-92 : A-	67-69 : D+
87-89 : B+	63-66 : D
83-86 : B	60-62 : D-
80-82 : B-	0-59 : F
77-79 : C+	Incomplete: I

LATE POLICY

Students who miss exams or turn assignments in late will lose 5 points for every day they do not make-up the missed quiz or exam.

This penalty is not enforced only if the student lets the instructor know prior to the due date that he/she has an emergency and will be unable to take the test or submit the assignment by the scheduled time.

If the instructor agrees that there is in fact an emergency, a new due date will be scheduled as soon as possible.

POLITICAL UPDATES:

Eight classes will include discussions of recent political events or issues in the United States or the world. The dates of these discussions are: September 11, 18, & 25; October 16, 23, & 31; November 20 & 27.

Each student should be prepared to present at least 3 such events or issues in case they are called on to do so during these sessions. This will require regularly reading newspapers and/or newsmagazines and/or the internet and/or listening to radio and/or TV news broadcasts.

Students receive 100% for each day they report on a Political Update. They received 0% for each day they do not report on a Political Update, either because they don't have one or because they are absent. Political Updates are worth 10% of your final grade.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are not graded on their general class participation. However, those who participate regularly and well in class will benefit if they are within one point of the next higher grade level. In such a case the student would receive the higher grade.

For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

PAIR & SHARE MOMENTS:

You will be asked to identify a person sitting near you to be your Pair & Share Partner. In fact, Pair & Share groups are asked to give themselves flashy (but appropriate) names.

Periodically, questions will arise in class that you will be asked to discuss with your Pair & Share Partner. After a few moments of discussion (called Pair & Share Moments), you may be asked to share your group's ideas with the class as a whole. In this way we'll try to get as many people as possible involved in class discussions.

Pair and Share Partners are also valuable in case you miss a class and need to get the notes for the material you missed. Partners can be helpful when you are completing your review sheets and studying for exams.

EXTRA CREDIT:

Students can earn one extra credit point to be added to their final average by writing an acceptable one-page reaction paper on one of the following:

VIDEOS:

"Lord of the Flies"	"All the Kings Men"
"Ghosts of Mississippi"	"Mississippi Burning"
"The Prize: America's Civil Rights Years"	"The Secret Government"
"Inside the CIA"	"High Crimes & Misdemeanors"
"Classics of Political TV Advertising"	"13 Days"
"The Butler"	"42"
"Suffragettes"	"Selma"
"1984"	"Iron Lady"
"Milk" (the political career of Harvey Milk)"
"The Face of Terrorism: Protecting a Free Society"
"Delicate Balance: The 1st Amendment and Hate Speech"
"Blackkkkklanman"

Propaganda movies:

Any movie by Michael Moore
"The Death of a Nation"

or other political videos agreed on with the instructor

BOOKS:

Robert Penn Warren, All the Kings Men	George Orwell, 1984
Edwin O'Connor, The Last Hurrah	Brad Meltzer, The 10th Justice or other political novels agreed on with the instructor

Most of these books and videos are available in the campus library.

Reaction papers should briefly describe the video or book and comment on its main points as they relate to our discussions in class and your readings.

Students can also earn 1 extra credit point by registering to vote and submitting a copy of your voter registration document to the instructor.

Extra credit reaction papers can be submitted no later than November 20.

SPECIAL NEEDS:

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, students with special needs based on learning disabilities are encouraged to discuss these needs with the instructor.

To be tested for learning disabilities, contact the Student Enrichment Center in the Library Building or at 925-8560 or at <http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm>.

Students who have been tested and have special needs should present their documentation to the instructor as early in the semester at possible.

TITLE IX

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, students, and staff should report cases of gender discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and sexual violence, to the Title IX Coordinator at the UNM Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

CELL PHONES:

Students can bring cell phones into class to receive emergency calls. However, they must be set to "discreet" and should not ring during class. If you receive an emergency call you should leave the room, deal with the situation, and return.

PERSONAL CONVERSATIONS

Students should not engage in personal conversations or other distractive behavior during class time. Those who do will be given a yellow warning card. If the conversation or other distractive behavior continues, they will be given a red card, which means that they must leave the class for the rest of the day.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend all class sessions, from beginning to end.

Attendance is taken both before and at the end of each class session by students initializing the attendance book.

Late arrivals can not sign in, although they can stay to participate and take notes in class. Late arrivals are considered absent.

Students with 2 consecutive absences or 3 absences overall will be dropped from the class by the instructor.

There are no excused absences.

If you are forced to miss a class due to an emergency, you are encouraged to get the notes for the day you missed from your Pair and Share Partner or any other reliable member of the class.