COURSE DESCRIPTION

If you are interested in understanding how and why we see and interact with those who look or speak differently from us in a particular way, this web-enhanced college course will answer your question. It is designed to help you understand how attitudes and beliefs of individuals shape intergroup relations and their impacts on the daily lives of individuals as well as their effects on the larger social structure of US society. We will examine how profoundly our society and the groups to which we belong to influence us and our beliefs and ultimately how these beliefs shape prejudice in our society. Throughout this semester, you are encouraged to challenge ideologies that are considered "common sense" or that are taken for granted and this in turn will allow you to critically engage issues in society such as racism, classism, or sexism, and will leave with an understanding on how privilege affects our views on disability, LGBTQ issues, religion and immigration. Rather than investigating these themes in the abstract, you will identify and unpack how these larger structural issues play integral roles in our everyday lives, interactions, and existence. Ultimately, this course aims to address the social inequalities that exists in our society as a result of prejudice and will challenge you to identify and engage in strategies to work towards changing these aspects of society.

COURSE PREREQUISITE

MUTUAL EXPECTATIONS

COMMUNICATION WITH ME

- The best way to reach me is via eMail.
- Make an appointment with me in advance to reduce waiting time
- You are welcome to speak with me before or after class. Please be aware that these conversations have to be brief and are not private conversations.

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO DROP YOU FROM THE COURSE WHEN YOU...

- miss four class sessions (<https://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/class-absences-and-student-attendance.html>).
- commit academic dishonesty or plagiarism.

YOU CAN ALSO EXPECT ME TO ...

- come to class on time and be prepared to teach.
- contact you when you miss two class sessions.
- not accept late work or work that is not typed, unless permitted otherwise.
- respond to your eMails or phone messages by the next business day.
- return all assignments and exams in no more than two weeks.
- keep your phone/digital device until the end of the class session, when you use it for class-unrelated activities or without my permission.
- give you only one verbal warning when you are disruptive in class before I ask you to leave.
- call campus police to escort you out of the classroom if disruptive behavior continues.

COURSE POLICIES / ATTENDANCE

To excel in this class, I highly recommend you come to class and do the work.

This course is designed to prepare you for upper level courses. You are expected to:

- attend all class sessions. Watching class captures does not substitute for attendance. Any absences--excused or unexcused--will affect your grade.
- participate in your assigned Learning Team activities.
- arrive punctually--it is a matter of self-respect. You are considered tardy if you are 5 minutes late or leave 5 minutes prior to class dismissal and do not give me advance notice. Two late arrivals count as one absence. When late, please enter the classroom quietly.
- download all handouts and articles from UNM Learn before each class.
- complete all the questions in the handouts on the reading assignments for the week before coming to class—this requires between six and eight hours of reading per week.
- refrain from walking In and out of the classroom while carrying your phone.
- submit all assignments, that you complete on your own, on their respective due dates during the first five minutes of class.
- obtain class notes from your peers and watch class capture when you miss a class.
- check LoboMail at least once before each class session for class announcement.
- acknowledge receipt of all my eMails—this is a matter of courtesy.
- comply with the UNM Student Code of Conduct.

Student Code of Conduct

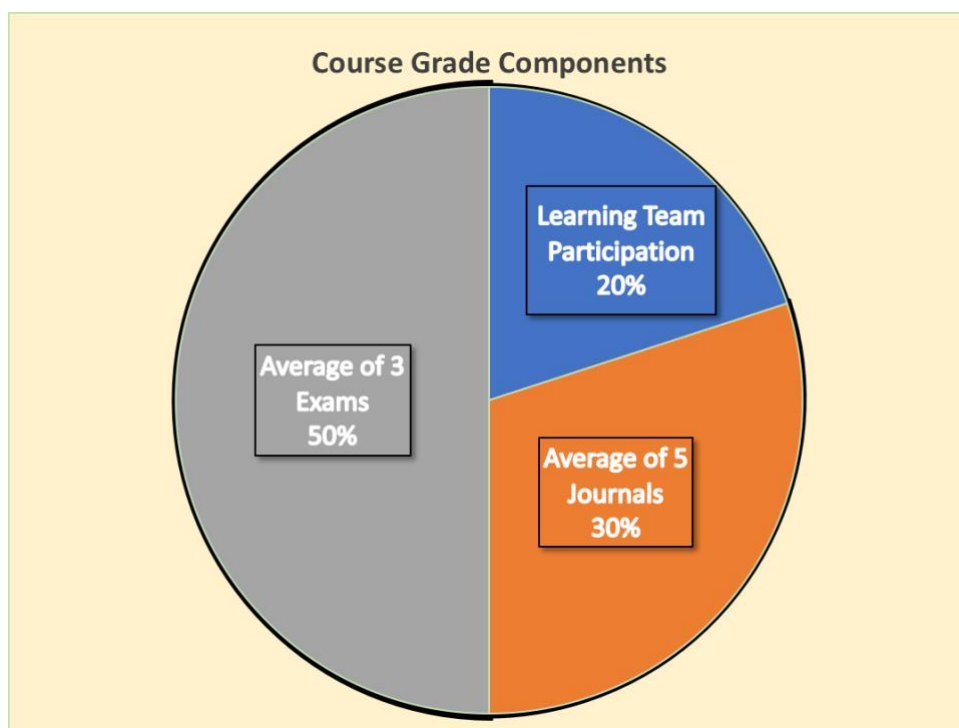

Students will be disciplined when engaged in any behaviors that “affect adversely the University’s educational function...or...interfere with the rights of others to pursue their education, to conduct their University duties and responsibilities or to participate in University activities” per UNM policy at: <http://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/student-code-of-conduct.html>

Mutual respect is expected between students as well as between students and the professor. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see p. 15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu) at Main Campus. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <http://pathfinder.unm.edu/campus-policies/sexual-violence-and-sexual-misconduct.html>

Academic Dishonesty includes “dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done by you or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students...” and Plagiarism—an academic theft. It is when you copy an idea or any text that is more than six words from any source, including the internet or your friends, without citing the source. To avoid plagiarism, you must enclose whatever you copy in quotation marks and cite the source. Any student suspected of academic dishonesty will be subject to the investigative and disciplinary process of UNM. Please refer to <http://handbook.unm.edu/policies/section-d/d100.html>

This course has a zero-tolerance policy on academic dishonesty. When found guilty, you will be dropped from the course and a report will be submitted to the Division Chair and the Instruction Dean. The same report will be kept in the student’s academic file.

COURSE GRADING SCHEME: A ROAD MAP TO YOU COURSE SUCCESS

THE EVALUATION OF FINAL COURSE GRADE IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

A. LEARNING TEAM PARTICIPATION (20% OF COURSE GRADE)

Class attendance is mandatory. Class session format includes lectures, group activities, videos, and/or small group discussions. Students are expected to discuss and present a summary of the assigned articles, participate in class discussion, and take quizzes/exams together. You do not earn any grade for the day that you are absent. I hope you will find the class interesting and engaging because interest and engagement are valuable parts of your learning.

Guidelines for class discussions:

- acknowledge we all have misinformation
- acknowledge we live in a society where various forms of privilege and oppression exist
- acknowledge your peers are like you--doing the best they can to learn
- listen with open mind and speak with open heart
- practice active listening

B. THREE EXAMS (50% OF COURSE GRADE)

The average of three exams constitutes 50% of your course grade. Scheduled exam format includes true/false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blanks, and short answer essays. Exam materials include lecture, videos, handouts, journals and ALL assigned articles. All exams are closed books and closed notes. No retakes or make-up exams are given. Under extenuating circumstances, only ONE make-up exam is permitted with supporting documents from a third party. Make-up exam is an essay exam and has to be taken before the scheduled exam. Be sure to have your Lobo ID with you on exam days. Final exam is mandatory.

C. FIVE JOURNALS (30% OF COURSE GRADE)

The average of five journals accounts for 30% of course grade. Due within the first 5 minutes of class on their respective due dates, all journals have to be at least 500 words (about 2-page double-spaced) and address the questions listed on the assignment sheet. No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work. Grading rubric is provided on the assignment sheet. Please follow the below format:

1. At the top left corner of the first page, insert the following:
 - First and Last Name
 - Lobo ID#
 - SOC 2315-501
 - Semester, Year
2. Add a page #
3. Add a title for the essay

The final grade on your transcript will be based on the following:

99 - 100	A+
90 – 98.9	A
87 – 89.9	B+
80 – 86.9	B
77 – 79.9	C+
72 – 76.9	C*
67 – 71.9	D+
60 – 66.9	D
Less than 60	F

Please note that any grade less than a 72 is a failing grade.

*According to UNM policy at http://degrees.unm.edu/undergrad_programs/1459, the passing grade of all sociology courses is a “C.” Students must complete all course requirements by the end of the semester to earn credit for the course; otherwise, an “F” will be assigned.

To protect student’s privacy, grades will only be given out face to face.

If UNM closes on the day of final exam because of inclement weather or other reasons, your final course grade will be calculated based on all work assessed up to that point during this semester. It includes the grades from: (1) the first two exams, (2) five journals, & (3) Learning Team Activity Sheet.
