Course Description

Course Description: This course is designed to provide you with basic theories and skills that are essential to effective public speaking. Topics include audience analysis, organization of ideas, persuasive/informative speaking, credibility, and extemporaneous delivery. Ideally, you should be able to apply these skills in a variety of public speaking situations whether in future college courses or non-academic settings. As a member of the class you will also become an active listener and learn to analyze, critique, and evaluate the speaking of others.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLO's)

1. Write coherent speech outlines that demonstrate their ability to use organizational formats with a clear specific purpose.
2. Incorporate research, sound reasoning and evidence that support claims they make in their presentations of speeches and outlines.
3. Demonstrate that they are careful and critical thinkers both as speakers and listeners.
4. Adapt their presentations to the audience based on situational, demographics and psychological audience analysis.
5. Explain their relationship and ethical responsibilities to others in the communication transaction.
6. Explain the basic principles of communication, and apply selected theories of rhetoric and/or communication.

COURSE COMPETENCIES (CC's):

1. Demonstrate effective and ethical speech preparation, including planning, research, forms of elaboration, critical and creative thinking, organization, research, outlining, audience adaptation, and speech introductions and conclusions.
2. Describe and interpret the theoretical framework behind public speaking. □ Demonstrate critical thinking skills when examining arguments, sources, processes, etc.
3. Apply appropriate presentational skills across a variety of contexts, ranging from interpersonal, to the workplace, to formal encounters.
4. Evaluate and critique a variety of presentations including classmates' and student's own presentations, in order to become a more effective speaker and audience member.
5. Demonstrate effective speech delivery through use of language, nonverbal elements and consider presentation aids. Develop impromptu and extemporaneous delivery skills.
6. Manage presentation anxiety.

Required Texts and Materials

- The Art Of Public Speaking, 12th Edition, 2015 by Stephen E. Lucas. McGraw Hill
- UNM e-mail address & Blackboard Learn.
- Access to ZOOM – Preferably a Zoom Account

Instructor Information

For assistance with course-related questions, I am available to meet with you online during regular office hours. (See office hours) If you cannot meet during these times, let me know and we can schedule an appointment. You can also reach me by e-mail at laxelrod@unm.edu during normal business hours from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, M-F. Please allow 24 hours for a response.

Biography: Lizbeth Axelrod, MFA has been teaching undergraduate English and Writing for over five years, motivating her students with a true passion to discover the nuances of the written word. She teaches Writing & Rhetoric, Writing & Literature, Composition, Contemporary Literature, and Creative Writing. She has held previous academic appointments at State University of New York, Westchester Community College, and the New York City College of Technology. Liz received her MFA from the New School for Public Engagement, NYC in 2013. Her work has been published in Yes Poetry, The Rumpus, The Brooklyn Rail, Electric Literature, The Ampersand Review, Wicked Alice by Dancing Girl Press, Counterpunch.com, and many more. Her first book of poetry, "Go Ask Alice" (June 2016) was a finalist in the Finishing Line Press New Woman's Voices Competition. She has been a book reviewer for Kirkus Reviews, and Publisher's Weekly, and was founder, co-host and curator of the Cedarmere Reading Series in the home of William Cullen Bryant (2014-2018).

Basic Course Policies

No late work is accepted in this course. Weekly assignments cannot be made up if a student is absent. Students are expected to attend weekly Zoom meetings, to log in to blackboard at least three times a week, and be prepared to work when class begins. Open up your notebook, have your pen ready, and be prepared to take notes when our Zoom meetings begin. Make sure your computer is on and that you are logged in to begin work in Microsoft Word/Blackboard Learn. Because we use the computers every day, having your NetID and password is mandatory for success in the course. No talking is allowed during the lecture. No cellphones are allowed in class. There is a zero tolerance policy for any of these actions. Students who do not comply will be asked to leave without warning and will receive a zero for the day's activities.

Attendance Policy

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each Zoom meeting. Missing class is not an excuse for being unprepared. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to keep up with reading, get class notes from a fellow student, and /or see me during office hours if you have questions about the material. Students who miss the first week of classes will be dropped. Students who miss more than 4 Zoom meetings will be dropped. Arriving 10 minutes after class starts counts as an absence. Excused absences include documented hospitalization or other documented, unexpected extreme emergencies. If excessive absenteeism that falls under the purview of "excused absences" continues, I reserve the right to drop students from the course. Please note: doctor's appointments, child-care, court dates, and job scheduling conflicts do not count as excused absences.

Plagiarism

Any form of plagiarism is unacceptable and the paper in question will receive a failing grade. Plagiarism means using language and/or ideas without acknowledging their source. Plagiarism includes such activities as copying another student's papers or ideas, downloading and turning in papers from the Internet, or copying passages from outside sources without proper documentation. We will have a class discussion and assignment on Plagiarism. There will be additional resources on Blackboard as well. Plagiarism may also result in failure of the entire course or disciplinary action by the University.

To learn how to avoid plagiarism, students can speak to me, consult a tutor, or refer to <http://library.acadiau.ca/sites/default/files/library/tutorials/plagiarism/>.

ONLINE Classroom Behavior

While I do not expect problems when working with adult learners, these policies ensure a safe and productive classroom environment. The following policies are listed in the University of New Mexico Student Handbook.

- 1) Students must treat one another and the instructor with respect. Derogatory remarks or name-calling is prohibited.
- 2) Students should not interrupt classroom lectures or discussion with non-related comments.
- 3) Students may discuss complaints about the course with their instructor; however, the students must do so in the proper environment, such as via email to the instructor, or during private office hours. Constant complaining in class discussions or in ZOOM meetings may result in the student being asked to leave that day's lesson; continued complaining after the first warning may result in the student being dropped from the course.
- 4) Students should not yell or curse at other students or at the teacher. Class time is a professional learning environment. Obscene language will not be tolerated.
- 5) Sexual harassment will not be tolerated.
- 6) Behavior that threatens the safety of any class member, including the instructor, will not be tolerated. The offending student will be asked to leave for the day and may be dropped from the course. Security will be called. Intoxication, physical assault and or battery, violence, stalking, or threats fall into this category.
- 7) Students must not threaten the instructor concerning their grades. This type of behavior is considered harassment and/or verbal assault. Security will be called.
- 8) If you ever feel unsafe on campus, please call security at (505) 925-8570.

NETIQUETTE STATEMENT:

Netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly in an online class.

In our class we will follow the following rules: Be considerate of your fellow students. No swearing or hate speech in the forums. All opinions are welcome, but they must be backed up by facts and reliable sources. No one is allowed to inflame or coerce another student's beliefs, ideas, or assumptions. Everyone has different points of view and debate is a large part of the discussions in this class. Speeches & Debate must be respectful, collegiate, informed and constructive – and it must stay in our class. Proper use of MLA format, grammar, and tone is required in all formats of this class (discussion boards, email, messages, written responses, workshops and writing assignments).

Title IX Statement

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see page 15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

Computer and Technology Policies

Students must log in on the scheduled class meeting times with materials in hand. Save your work often and have a back-up file so as to avoid losing your work. Using computers during class time for entertainment, social networking, or personal e-mailing is strictly forbidden. Students who violate this policy will be asked to leave and counted absent for the day. The same rule applies for cell phones. Cell phones must remain off and stored away from work areas. No texting or phone calls are allowed. Be prepared to dedicate our Zoom Meeting exclusively to English.

E-Mail Etiquette

In general, e-mails that you write to me during the semester should include professional language, addressed with a subject heading including the type of question you are asking. For example, “Essay 1” would be an appropriate subject heading for a question regarding the first essay. E-mails should also include a salutation. For example, “Dear Professor Axelrod” would be an appropriate salutation for an electronic message. Be sure to sign your first and last name, and proofread your e-mail for grammatical errors. Please avoid text-speak. Learning to write professional e-mails early on is a skill you need as you progress to higher academic levels and further career pursuits.

Equal Access

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), students with documented special needs will be accommodated in this course. Students with disabilities should visit Accessibility Services to obtain an Equal Access form, which needs to be sent to the professor within the first two weeks of class. The contact information for the Student Services Office is (505) 925-8560 and <http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm>.

Academic Support

Free tutoring is available at the Learning Resources Center (L Building). Please call 925-8907 for an appointment. I am also available to help you with individual writing issues during my office hours or by appointment. Students who regularly seek tutoring usually see a great improvement in their grades.

Assignment Policy

Unless otherwise specified, all writing assignments must follow MLA format and be typewritten, double-spaced in a 12pt, Times New Roman font. Essay length requirements are 750-1000 words each, or 3-4 pages. MLA specifications and help are available on our Blackboard in the Course Content and Resources section and are clearly laid out in Diana Hacker’s Pocket Style Manual.

MISSED WORK – I will not allow students to make up missed work. I hardly ever allow students to make up missed speeches. Exceptions are limited to documented, serious, and inescapable emergencies, such as car accident or hospitalization. If you should miss a speech, you would do well to submit your outline to me in Learn ASAP (for partial credit only).

ENGAGEMENT – You can participate best when you are prepared, having done the reading and homework before class. Come ready to demonstrate what you’ve learned. I evaluate your level of engagement – evidenced by active listening, quality contributions, and productive use of class time – during and after each class.

RESPECT – Public speaking can be very nerve wracking. It is of utmost importance to demonstrate courtesy to your fellow classmates. Each of you will be working for a grade when you get up to present your speech. As such, distractions and inattentive audience can have a negative effect on the speaker. I have zero tolerance for rude or disruptive behavior. Students who persist in such behavior will forfeit points from their own presentation and those points will be awarded to the speaker who was disrupted.

Disruptions include: use of phones at all – call, text, surf; cell phone ringing during a classmate’s speech; open laptops or other electronic devices; rummaging through backpacks, grooming, practicing your own speech, general behaviors associated with non-listening, or any other behavior that I deem controllable and inappropriate during a presentation.

Required Work and Grading

You will perform four assessed speeches: Introduction; informative; persuasive, and ceremonial, applying our developing knowledge of effective public speaking. Much Zoom class time is dedicated to presentations and feedback. You will also provide constructive feedback to classmates’ speeches and integrate your emerging knowledge and experience through reflective writing.

ASSESSED WORK & POINT VALUES:

Speeches & Writing Assignments:

- 1: Introduction (2-3 minutes) 100 points
- 2: Informative Speech (4-6 minutes) 25 elements x 4@ possible 100pts
- 3: Topic Proposals (4 speeches) 25 points each total 100 points
- 4: Persuasive Speech (6-8 minutes) 25 elements x 4@possible 100pts
- 5: Ceremonial (1-2 minutes) 100 points
- 6: Final Evaluation Speech (2-3 minutes) 100points
- 7: Group Peer Evaluation* 4 each - total 100 points
- 8: Participation & audience 100 points
- 9: Weekly Journal and Writing Assignments - 100 points
- 10: Discussion Board - 100 points

*Peer Evaluations: During the practice day in zoom workshop, you will work with a classmate and evaluate each other’s speeches. I will provide further guidance on our evaluation focus. The purpose of this exercise is to practice constructive criticism, and work to practice and improve upon our speeches.

Self-evaluation: This assignment involves video-recording a speech, then reflecting in a 2page paper the effective aspects of your speech and the aspects to improve.

There are 1000 points possible in the course. Grades will be determined on a traditional percentage system, with the appropriate plus or minus sign: 100-90% = A (1000-900 points); 89-80% = B (899-800 points); 79-73%= C (799-700 points); 69-60% = D (699-600); and below = F.

Score	Grade
93-100	A
90-92	A-
87-89	B+
83-86	B
80-82	B-
77-79	C+
73-76	C
70-72	C-
67-69	D+
63-66	D
60-62	D-
0-59	F

Participation

Participation is mandatory in this course. Participation means actively participating in your education, including class discussions, in-class writing workshops, and other exercises. Make sure to bring course materials and take notes during every class meeting. In the case of absence, in-class writing assignments cannot be made up regardless of the reason.

Your contribution is valuable to your peers' learning as well as your own. You are expected to participate respectfully and thoughtfully. If you are distracting yourself electronically, you are not present. Any distracting/inappropriate behavior (e.g., texting), will earn you a "check -". At the end of the course, your attendance and participation points will be calculated based on this system.

Participation is important to the entire class; therefore, it is rewarded. Attentive audience is part of your participation grade. Missing class is not an excuse for being unprepared; if you are absent it is your responsibility to keep up with reading, get class notes from a classmate, and/or confer with me at an appropriate time if you have questions. Excessive absences (missing more than 4 of our Zooms in the 16 week class, even "excused") can result in being dropped. Two instances of arriving late, leaving early, or persistent (non-course) electronics use can be counted as an absence. Excused absences are illness or emergencies; non-emergency appointments, child/family care, court hearings, and job scheduling conflicts do not count to excuse absences.

QUALITY – I strongly advise you to dress up a bit on your speech days; this includes removing outer jackets, hat, etc - Doing so shows that you care and that you are professional.

Student Privacy

Student privacy is strongly protected by professors at UNM-Valencia. In fact, a federal statute called FERPA strictly prohibits the instructor or administrators from talking to anyone but the student about his/her progress. If a student has questions about a grade on an assignment or about the final grade for the course, FERPA dictates that the student is the ONLY ONE who may speak to the instructor regarding their grades. In sum, parents, relatives, or friends will not be allowed access to information about student performance. All other outside requests for information release must be sent to and approved by the UNMVC registrar: (505) 925-8580.

Technical Assistance

If you have questions about computer-related issues, please call (505) 277-5757, M-F, 8:00 am-12:00 noon and M-F, 1:00 pm-5:00 pm MST. Computer technicians are available and happy to help you solve those difficult problems. For Blackboard Learn Assistance click on the tab entitled, "How to use Learn," which is located on the left-hand menu bar of our course page.
