Course Description: The primary objective of this course is to serve as an introduction to the history of New Mexico from the pre- Columbian times to the present day. The elements of this course are designed to inform students on the major events and trends that are essential in the understanding of the development of New Mexico within the context of the Americas.

Course Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will be able to EXPLAIN in their work how humans in the past shaped their own unique historical moments and were shaped by those moments, and how those cultures changed over the course of the centuries for the history of New Mexico from pre- Columbian times to the present day. Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: REMEMBER AND UNDERSTAND

2. Students will DISTINGUISH between primary and secondary sources, IDENTIFY and EVALUATE evidence and EMPATHIZE with people in their historical context.

Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: ANALYZE, REMEMBER, EVALUATE, CREATE

3. Students will SUMMARIZE and APPRAISE different historical interpretations and evidence in order to CONSTRUCT past events. Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: UNDERSTAND, EVALUATE, APPLY

4. Students will IDENTIFY historical arguments in a variety of sources and EXPLAIN how they were constructed, EVALUATING credibility, perspective, and relevance. Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: REMEMBER, UNDERSTAND, EVALUATE

5. Students will CREATE well-supported historical arguments and narratives that demonstrate an awareness of audience. Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: CREATE, APPLY

6. Students will APPLY historical knowledge and historical thinking "in order to infer what drives and motivates human behavior in both past and present." Bloom Taxonomy's Cognitive Process: APPLY, ANALYZE 16

Required Texts: Joseph P. Sánchez, Robert L. Spude, and Art Gómez, New Mexico: A History (Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 2014; ISBN 9780806146638).

Edward Abbey, Fire on the Mountain (New York: Harper Perennial Modern Classics, 2012; 9780062193902). This novel will serve as the basis for the two short essays you will write this semester.

Additional readings will be made available on Blackboard (and noted as such in the course outline).

Course Requirements:¹

1. Exams: There will be three in-class exams. Each exam consists of short answer identification questions and essay questions. A study guide will be provided the week before each exam. Exam 1 is on September 23. Exam 2 is on October 28. Exam 3 is on December 16.

2. Short Essays: You will write two five-paragraph essays in response to prompts that address Edward Abbey's novel Fire on the Mountain. This means that it is essential for this course to obtain a copy of this novel. Your essays will need to have a clear thesis articulated in an introduction, a body with supporting evidence for that thesis, and a conclusion. The five-paragraph essay is a format that has been widely maligned for a variety of

¹ The instructor for this course reserves the right to change, at any time, the schedule of assignments, required material to be completed and/or read, dates assignments are due, and other elements of the course and syllabus. Such changes, including date changes, will be announced in class.

Blackboard. Further details on the short essays and the rubric that I will use when grading them will be distributed in class. The short essays are not the kind of assignment that can be thrown together the night before they're due. Make sure to start working on them well in advance of the due date.

The Short Essay #1 Final Draft is due by 11:59 PM on October 28 and Short Essay #2 is due by 11:59 PM on November 18.

3. Short Essay #1 Rough Draft and Self-Review: Before you submit Short Essay #1 for grading, you will submit a rough draft of your essay and a self-review of that draft. The self-review assignment is intended to push you to think critically about your writing process and the ways in which your rough draft does and/or does not meet the objectives of the essay assignment. After submitting your rough draft and peer-review, you will have the opportunity to revise and improve your essay before submitting your final draft. The rough draft and self-review for Short Essay #1 is due by 11:59 PM on October 7.

4. Reading Responses: It is necessary that you keep up with the assigned reading for this course. It will be very difficult to do well in this course if you fall behind with the reading. Each week, you will respond to a question or prompt that addresses the week's assigned reading on Blackboard. Make sure that you pay close attention to the assigned readings in the course outline so that you know what reading (or readings) are assigned for any given week and will be addressed in that week's reading response on Blackboard. The deadline for each week's reading response is just before the start of the first class of the week (i.e. you need to ensure that you complete each week's reading response before 10:30 AM on Tuesday). You are free to use the assigned texts while completing your reading response. However, since you will only have 15 minutes to complete your response it is essential that you complete the assigned reading before beginning your response. Once you attempt a reading response in Blackboard the clock starts ticking and the reading response will automatically submit whatever you've written when the time is up. Don't attempt a reading response until you're ready to take and complete it. Each reading response is worth 10 points. You will receive at least 5 points for any reasonable attempt at a response. Your two lowest reading response scores will be dropped in the calculation of your grade. The first reading response is an exception to everything you just read in this section. It will address your own background studying history rather than an assigned text and will be completed in class rather than on Blackboard.

You need to ensure that you complete each week's reading response before 12:00 PM on Monday

4. Attendance: Attendance is necessary to your success in this course. You can receive up to 30 points simply by attending class. Three absences will be allowed with no need for an explanation and no penalty. If you have three or fewer unexcused absences you will receive the full 30 points for attendance. Each additional unexcused absence after three will result in a deduction of 10 points per class from your point total in the course.

Absences do not relieve students from the responsibility for missed assignments and exams. Students must take the initiative in arranging with me to make up missed work resulting from an absence, including in the cases of officially excused absences and emergencies.

5. Class Participation: Class discussions will be a regular feature of this course. You are expected to read each week's assigned reading before coming to the first class meeting of that week and to participate in class discussions that address textbook readings and other course materials. 30 points of your grade will be determined on the basis of your participation in class discussions. Do not blow this off—I will give you a 0 if you do not participate! The points you receive for class participation will not be based on reciting "right" or "wrong" answers (which often will not exist in the context of discussion in this course) but rather on your willingness to participate in discussion and your engagement with the topics and issues covered in this course. The points you receive for class discussion can be a great way of bumping your grade up to a higher letter grade.

Course Policies:

1. Assigned Readings: Students are responsible for all assigned chapters in the textbook, the novel Fire on the Mountain, and additional assigned texts distributed on Blackboard or handed out in class. Each week's assigned reading (see course outline at the end of this syllabus) should be read before attempting that week's reading response and coming to the first class meeting of that week. Keep in mind that reading Fire on the Mountain will be necessary both to complete the short essays and to meaningfully participate in the class discussions that will address the novel. You will struggle to do well in this course if you do not read Fire on the Mountain. Completing assigned readings for the week—whether they are from the textbook, the novel, or on Blackboard—before submitting that week's reading response will be necessary to prepare you both for writing that response and participating in class discussion.

2. Attendance, Participation, and Classroom Policies: Please arrive on time for class. If you do not arrive on time you will be marked as absent. Please be sure that cell phones are silenced during class and put away. Cell phones are fun and useful, and completely inappropriate to use in class. After a first warning, each time I catch you looking at your cell phone during class I will deduct 1% from your final grade. If you are caught using a cell phone during class, I will not interrupt class in order to call you out. Instead, I will send you an email informing you that you are either receiving your first warning or losing 1% of your final grade. As stated above, your attendance and participation comprise 60 points of your total grade. I reserve the right to dock any or all your attendance and/or participation points for a class period if you engage in behavior that is rude or disrespectful to me or your fellow students during that period. Examples of disrespectful or rude behavior may include using a laptop computer for something other than note taking, sleeping, chatting with your neighbor, or the use of a cell phone for any reason. There may be others and I'll know it when I see it. I may give you a warning, but I may not wish to disrupt class to correct you. Consider THIS your warning.

3. Late Work and Missed Exams: Late submissions of reading responses, the short essay rough draft, and the short essay self-review will only be accepted up to one week after the due date and will result in an automatic deduction of 50% of the possible points. After one week past the due date, those assignments will not be accepted and a grade of 0 will be given. Without an official excuse, the Short Essay #1 Final Draft and Short Essay #2 will only be accepted up to one week after the due date and will result in an automatic deduction of 50% of the possible points. After one week past the due date, those assignments will not be accepted and a grade of 0 will be given except in cases of official excuses. Without an official excuse, a missed exam will result in a grade of 0. Make-up exams will be provided to students who provide an official excuse within three business days of the exam day. After this time, a grade of 0 will be given. If you know you will be unable to take an exam or submit a short essay on time due to an officially excusable reason, please let me know as soon as possible. It is far easier to make alternative arrangements before an exam or due date than after.

4. Academic Integrity: This is a big deal and I take it VERY SERIOUSLY (as should you). Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. The University of New Mexico's definition of academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students; misrepresenting academic or professional qualifications within or without the University; and nondisclosure or misrepresentation in filling out applications or other University records. For further information, see the university's academic dishonesty policy at <https://policy.unm.edu/regents-policies/section-4/4-8.html>. Any instances of academic dishonesty will result in a ZERO for that assignment and may be referred to the Dean of Instruction with the possibility of more serious consequences. A second offense will result in FAILURE OF THE COURSE. DO NOT ASK ME IF YOU CAN "MAKE UP" THE POINTS. YOU CAN'T.

5. Grading System:

14 reading responses @ 10 points each	140
Short Essay #1 Rough Draft and Self-Review	30
2 short essays @ 75 points each	150
3 exams @ 100 points each	300
Attendance	30
Participation	30
Total Possible Points	680

Your grade can be calculated by dividing the number of points you have earned by the total number of possible points in the course (680).

A+ = 97+
 A = 93-96%
 A- = 90-92%
 B+ = 87-89%
 B = 83-86%
 B- = 80-82%
 C+ = 77-79%
 C = 73-76%
 C- = 70-72%
 D+ = 67-69%
 D = 63-66%
 D- = 60-62%
 F = Below 60%

6. Extra Credit: An extra credit assignment or assignments will be announced over the course of the semester. Extra credit assignments will only be offered to the entire class. Additional extra credit assignments will not be offered to individual students.

7. Accommodations: If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office will provide me with a letter outlining your accommodations. I will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment. If you feel that you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Cheryl Dilger, the coordinator for Equal Access Services at 925-8910 or cdilger@unm.edu.

8. Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. I will respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. More information can be found at <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>.

COVID-19 Policies:

1. UNM Administrative Mandate on Required Vaccinations: All students, staff, and instructors are required by UNM Administrative Mandate on Required Vaccinations to be fully vaccinated for COVID-19 as soon as possible, but no later than September 30, 2021, and must provide proof of vaccination or of a UNM validated limited exemption or exemption no later than September 30, 2021 to the UNM vaccination verification site. Students seeking medical exemption from the vaccination policy must submit a request to the UNM verification site for review by the UNM Accessibility Resource Center. Students seeking religious exemption from the vaccination policy must submit a request for reasonable accommodation to the UNM verification site for review by the Compliance, Ethics, and Equal Opportunity Office. For further information on the requirement and on limited exemptions and exemptions, see the UNM Administrative Mandate on Required Vaccinations.

2. UNM Requirement on Masking in Indoor Spaces: All students, staff, and instructors are required to wear face masks in indoor classes, labs, studios and meetings on UNM campuses. See the masking requirement for more details. Students who do not wear a mask indoors on UNM campuses can expect to be asked to leave the classroom and to be dropped from a class if failure to wear a mask occurs more than once in that class. Students and employees who do not wear a mask in classrooms and other indoor public spaces on UNM campuses are subject to disciplinary actions. UNM will periodically evaluate and update the mask policy relative to public health conditions.

3. Communication on change in modality: The university may direct that classes move to remote delivery at any time to preserve the health and safety of the students, instructor and community. Please check your email and your UNM Learn site regularly for updates about our class, and please check <https://bringbackthepack.unm.edu> regularly for general UNM updates about COVID-19 and the health of our community.

4. Acceptable masks and mask wearing in class: A two-layer mask that covers the nose and mouth and that is cleaned regularly is acceptable, as are disposable medical masks, KN95, KF94, FFP1 and FFP2 masks. A face shield is not sufficient protection. It is vital that you wear your mask correctly, covering your nose and mouth. Removing your mask for an extended period to eat or drink in class violates the university mask requirement and endangers others.

5. Consequences of not wearing a mask properly: If you don't wear a mask, or if you do not wear a mask properly by covering your nose and mouth, you will be asked to leave class. If you fail to wear a mask properly on more than one occasion, you can expect to be dropped from the class. If you insist on remaining in the classroom while not wearing a mask, class will be dismissed for the day to protect others and you will be dropped from the class immediately. Disposable masks will be available in the classroom on a first-come, first-served basis.
