COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides an overview of signed languages, including American Sign Language (ASL), signed English as well as signing systems that are used by deaf people. Cross-linguistic and cross-cultural information is discussed with the primary focus on ASL, signed English and fingerspelling. This course exposes students to the most common manually coded signed systems and discusses their historical relevance in the education of deaf people. Historical figures and linguists are highlighted and recognized for the development and use of American Sign Language in the United States. In addition to the acquisition of basic vocabulary and grammar, this course emphasizes knowledge of the characteristics and values of Deaf Culture.

This is an accelerated course that requires a great deal of discipline and practice both inside and outside of class time. Class sessions will take place face to face during the scheduled time and day. Additionally, resources and assignments will be posted on Canvas. You will be required to have at least one practice partner that you connect with outside for an hour per week to have conversations using your developing skills. Each week you will submit a report summarizing what you and your partner talked about and reflecting on your personal growth. The reports will follow a provided template and will be submitted on Canvas every Thursday before midnight.

DEAF/HH VISITORS

Deaf/HH children and adults from the community are invited to attend the class to add input and to make certain that no stereotyped image of the “typical” deaf person prevails. Students will be asked to prepare questions for these dates that will be announced later in the semester.

Federal Credit Hour Definition

Federal Credit Hour Definition: A credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally-established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than:

(1) one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or (2) at least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other activities as established by an institution, including laboratory work, internships, practicum, studio work, and other academic work leading toward to the award of credit hours. 34CFR 600.2 (11/1/2010) <https://www.hlcommission.org/Policies/assignment-of-credits.html>

This is a three credit-hour course. Class meets for two 75-minute sessions of direct instruction during the semester. Students are expected to complete a minimum of six hours of out-of-class work (or homework, study, assignment completion, and class preparation) each week.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Class participation is essential in this class. The key advantage of class participation is that it encourages each student to be well-prepared and thus become an active, rather than a passive learner. Participation also provides you with the opportunity to gain from the experiences and talents of everyone in the class. You should feel free to ask questions, provide supportive comments, or challenge constructively what has been said. Those who participate regularly and well will benefit. If they are within one point of the next higher grade level, they will earn the higher grade. For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well, he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course. This does not apply for grades between an A and an A+ (check grading chart below).

It is expected that you will attend every class and that you will arrive on time. Recurring lateness or repeated absences will be considered grounds for removal from the course. If a guest speaker is scheduled for class, it is imperative that you arrive promptly.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

While the instructor does not expect problems when working with adult learners, a guiding principle of respect for one another will ensure a safe and productive environment. Interruptions with non-related comments are discouraged. There may be issues a student needs to discuss that would be more appropriately handled in private and outside of the classroom. No Toleration policy for obscene language, sexual harassment, and threatening behavior towards students or instructor. There is a process in place to handle complaints...report to The Chair of CHESS and to the Dean of Instruction.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Attendance is taken at the beginning of each session. Students with two (2) or more consecutive absences or three (3) or more regular absences may be dropped from the class by the instructor. *Student's grades will be affected by absences, dropping half a grade for every three absences.

Grades are determined from the total test scores accumulated, signing skills, class participation, and weekly partner reports.

98-100 : A+ Students must have a 98-100 average and do an extra credit paper in order to qualify for an A+ for the course. 94-97:A 90-93:A- 88-89:B+ 84-87:B 80-83:B
78-79:C+ 74-77:C 70-73:C 68-69:D+ 64-67:D 60-63:D- 0-59:F

The grade of INCOMPLETE (INC) is given only when extenuating personal circumstances prevent completing the work by the official ending date of the course (as per UNM Faculty Handbook).

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students found cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero for the exam or assignment in question. UNM Plagiarism Policy <http://unm.edu/~unmvclib/handouts/somplagiarism.pdf>

*Use of Electronic Devices (cell phones/recording audio & video) is not permitted in class.

Cell phones are very disruptive to class. As a matter of courtesy, all audible signals of communication devices should be turned off or disabled during class. Individual discretion should be used in determining when exceptions should be made relative to emergency or personal situations.

EXAMS

Students are eligible to take a make-up exam [written only] if they (in UNM handbook)

1. Have an emergency that prevents them from taking the regularly scheduled exam;
2. Alert the instructor to the emergency prior to the regularly scheduled exam
3. Obtain the instructor's agreement that this is an emergency and that the regularly scheduled exam cannot be taken. If you miss an exam without the permission of the instructor a score of zero will be assigned. Make-up exams are granted at the discretion of the instructor, only with prior arrangement, and must be completed prior to the next class meeting (unless circumstances involved make this clearly impractical).

PARTNER REPORTS

Required outside classroom participation: selection of a partner from within the class. The pair should meet a minimum of one hour each week to practice signing without their voices. A Journal entry is expected from each partner specifying location of practice, time, and a brief summary and both signatures. Reports are collected weekly on Thursdays throughout the semester before midnight. Partner reports will NOT be accepted if late.

CAMPUS POLICY REGARDING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Title IX: The Equal Opportunity in Education Act of 2002 (known as Title IX) states that "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance." It is important for all faculty, teaching assistants, graduate assistants, staff and students to understand the following. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education (<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>, p. 15). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>. There are organizations on campus that can maintain anonymity and are not required to report possible Title IX violations. These include Student Health and Counseling, CARS, and UNM Advocacy centers including the LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center, the Women's Resource and the LGBTQ Resource center.
