Course Descriptions

This course is the first part of a college level introduction to Spanish that promotes language learning in a cultural context. This course is designed for students with little exposure to Spanish. This course develops basic listening, speaking, reading and writing skills and intercultural competence in interpretive, interpersonal and presentational modes of communication at the Novice Level of proficiency based on ACTFL guidelines.

This course is comprised of free, open-educational resources which are available to anyone. These include SpanishDict.com, Studyspansih.com, Spanishlearninglab.com, courses.lumenlearning.com, YouTube and much more.

The course is divided into 15 modules with each module centering around specific themes and grammatical structures. Even though grammar is essential to learning any language, in this course, you will find that speaking the language, strategies for learning languages and culture are just as (or even more) important than extensive grammar drills.

Technology Skills and Requirements

This class was designed for people who are comfortable with technology. We will be learning via various modes; videos, audio, visual presentations, and navigating the web. The class will be intense for those who are not comfortable with multimodal instruction that uses various sites to complete your assignments. Be aware that you will be responsible for becoming familiar with all the tools required to complete your assignments. Also be aware that help is always available through campus technology, website assistance, or the instructor. If you are computer and internet savvy, this class is for you.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

- Computer and Webcam or mobile device with webcam *required

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- 1. Students can communicate on very familiar topics using a variety of words and phrases that they have practiced and memorized.
- 2. Students can present information about themselves and some other very familiar topics using a variety of words, phrases, and memorized expressions.
- 3. Students can write short messages and notes on familiar topics related to everyday life.
- 4. Students can often understand words, phrases, and simple sentences related to everyday life.
- 5. Students can recognize pieces of information and sometimes understand the main topic of what is being said.
- 6. Students can understand familiar words, phrases, and sentences within short and simple texts related to everyday life.

- 7. Students can sometimes understand the main idea of what they have read.
- 8. Students can demonstrate connections between beliefs, behaviors and cultural artifacts of the Spanish-speaking world and make informed cross-cultural comparisons to develop their sense of personal and social responsibility.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS/ATTENDANCE

Discussions: Each module will have discussions where you will be able to share thoughts/ideas/resources with classmates revolving around culture, lexical variations, family traditions ect. For full credit you will be required to respond to two classmate's posts. Because these are interactive assignments, meaning they are assignments that require a response to other classmate's posts late assignment will not be accepted.

Grammar and Writing Assignments: Grammar and writing assignments will be available in each week's learning module. The online grammar assignments provide practice of the material presented in the learning modules. All exercises should be submitted before or on the assigned due date. The reason for requiring that online exercises be completed by the scheduled due date is because this is not a self-paced course.

Quizzes: There will be a quiz at the end of each chapter on specific topics at the instructor's discretion. There are no make-up quizzes; however, the instructor will drop the lowest quiz score at the end of the semester. Thus, should a student miss a scheduled quiz due to unavoidable circumstances, the grading consequences are minimized. Only one 'drop' is allowed. Quizzes will become unavailable after the due date. Please ensure that you prepare ahead of time to complete your quizzes before the due date. All quizzes will be due on a Sunday before midnight.

Final: There will be a mandatory final exam covering the material in Lecciones 1 through 5.

Presentations: In lieu of a midterm each student will be assigned a Spanish speaking country. In a PowerPoint presentation you will focus on some of the following topics: food, culture, traditions, history, languages, government ect. More information and a Rubric will be provided.

Lección Cultural: You will watch and listen to authentic Spanish conversation and practice your speaking skills.

Grading:

20% Discussions

10% Lección Cultural

25% Grammar and Writing Assignments

20% Quizzes

15% Presentation

10% Final

Attendance Policy: Learning a new language well requires consistent effort. In the online classroom attendance and participation are determined by your involvement and engagement with the weekly assignments. There are assignments that must be completed each week on Canvas.

This is a three credit-hour course delivered in an entirely online modality over 15 weeks during the Fall 2023 semester. Please plan for a minimum of 4-6 hours per week to learn course materials and complete assignments.

The particular hour and day you “attend” aren’t important, but you must show participation regularly and while logged on, e.g., posting on the discussions boards, submitting assignments, and completing other course work.

Students must actively participate during the first week of class through responses and/or assignment completion. A student who does not submit the required tasks/assignments for Week 1 and has not contacted the instructor may be dropped from the course.

A student with excessive missed assignments may be dropped from the course. Missing 3 or more learning modules in a 12-15-week term (2 or more learning modules in a 6-11 week term) constitutes excessive missed assignments.

Students should not assume he/she will be dropped automatically. A student who is dropped by an instructor for nonattendance is notified at their UNM e-mail address. The instructor’s decision is final, but if the student disagrees with the action, he or she must contact the instructor within two working days of receipt of the notification.

Support: Center for Academic Program Support (CAPS) <https://caps.unm.edu/>. Many students have found that time management workshops can help them meet their goals (consult (CAPS) website under “services”).

Withdrawal Policy: Participants are expected to comply with UNM regulations regarding withdrawal from a course as noted in the class schedule. Note: If you have not shown regular participation for the first full week of the course you may be dropped for non- attendance. Students should not assume they will be dropped automatically. Please drop the class if you no longer intend to attend.

Instructor Communication Policy: Emails and messages will be responded to within 24 hours Monday- Thursday, and within 48 hours Friday-Sunday. Contact me directly through lgalvan2@unm.edu. Provide your name and class section in the subject box.

Grades are generally released for all assignments and assessments within five days after the due date for the assignments has ended. Feedback will be provided.

Special Needs Accommodations (Americans with Disabilities Act-ADA):

UNM is committed to providing courses that are inclusive and accessible for all participants. As your instructor, it is my objective to facilitate an accessible classroom setting, in which students have full access and opportunity to participate. To engage in a confidential conversation about the process for requesting reasonable accommodations for this class and/or program, please contact Accessibility Resource Center at arcsrvs@unm.edu or by phone at 505-277-3506. The UNM-Valencia Equal Access Services (Sarah Clawson, Coordinator), at (505) 925-8840 or by email at sjclawson@unm.edu.

Title IX

Our classroom and our university should always be spaces of mutual respect, kindness, and support, without fear of discrimination, harassment, or violence. Should you ever need assistance or have concerns about incidents that violate this principle, please access the resources available to you on campus. Please note that, because UNM faculty, TAs, and GAs are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education, any disclosure of gender discrimination (including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and sexual violence) made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported by that faculty member, TA, or GA to the university's Title IX coordinator. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, please see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

Support: Lobo RESPECT Advocacy Center and the support services listed on its website <https://loborespect.unm.edu/>, the Women's Resource Center <https://women.unm.edu/> and the LGBTQ Resource Center <http://lgbtqrc.unm.edu/> all offer confidential services and reporting.

Resource: Division for Equity and Inclusion. <https://diverse.unm.edu/>

Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. Your professor will respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. As for all students in the class, family emergency-related absences are normally excused with reasonable notice to the professor, as noted in the attendance guidelines above. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. The Administration's welcome is found on our website: <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>

Respectful and Responsible Learning: We all have shared responsibility for ensuring that learning occurs safely and equitably. UNM has important policies to preserve and protect the academic community, especially policies on student grievances (Faculty Handbook D175 and D176), academic dishonesty (FH D100), and respectful campus (FH CO9). These are in the Student Pathfinder (<https://pathfinder.unm.edu>) and the Faculty Handbook (<https://handbook.unm.edu>). Please ask for help in understanding and avoiding plagiarism or academic dishonesty, which can both have very serious consequences.

Land Acknowledgement: Founded in 1889, the University of New Mexico sits on the traditional homelands of the Pueblo of Sandia. The original peoples of New Mexico Pueblo, Navajo, and Apache since time immemorial, have deep connections to the land and have made significant contributions to the broader community statewide. We honor the land itself and those who remain stewards of this land throughout the generations and also acknowledge our committed relationship to Indigenous peoples. We gratefully recognize our history.
