Land Acknowledgement: Founded in 1889, the University of New Mexico sits on the traditional homelands of the Pueblo of Sandia. The original peoples of New Mexico Pueblo, Navajo, and Apache since time immemorial, have deep connections to the land and have made significant contributions to the broader community statewide. We honor the land itself and those who remain stewards of this land throughout the generations and also acknowledge our committed relationship to Indigenous peoples. We gratefully recognize our history.

Course Description

This course explores various theories of child guidance and the practical applications of each. It provides developmentally appropriate methods for guiding children and effective strategies and suggestions for facilitating positive social interactions. Strategies for preventing challenging behaviors through the use of environment, routines and schedule will be presented. Emphasis is placed on helping children become self-responsible, competent, independent, and cooperative learners with a strong emphasis on including families as part of the guidance approach.

Credit-hour statement: This is a three credit-hour course. Traditionally and on a college campus, class would meet for three 50-minute sessions/two 75-minute sessions of direct instruction for fifteen weeks during the Fall 2024 semester. Dual Credit students meet the attendance required by your HS policies. College classes plan for a minimum of six hours of out-of-class work (or homework, study, assignment completion, and class preparation) each week. As a Dual Credit Student, out-of-class work will be up to your HS Instructor.

Course Competencies

This course is part of the articulated Universal Catalogue of Courses for Early Childhood Education in the State of New Mexico. The following objectives are taken from the New Mexico State Department of Education’s Common Core Competencies for early childhood professionals (see Common Core Content manual). Upon completion of this course, students will be able to demonstrate the following competencies at the established level of proficiency:

- Apply knowledge of cultural and linguistic diversity and the significance of socio-cultural and political contexts for development and learning and recognize that children are best understood in the contexts of family, culture and society. A.6
- Demonstrate knowledge of the many functions that language serves in the cognitive, social, and emotional aspects of development in the formative years. A.7
- Demonstrate knowledge of the relationship among emotions, behaviors, and communication skills to assist children in identifying and expressing their feelings in appropriate ways. A.10

- Use appropriate guidance to support the development of self-regulatory capacities in young children. A.11
- Recognize and respond to each child’s physical health, intellectual and emotional well-being, and nutritional and safety needs. B.1
- Demonstrate knowledge and skill in building positive, reciprocal relationships with families. C.1
- Demonstrate knowledge of and respect for variations across cultures, in terms of family strengths, expectations, values, and child-rearing practices. C.4
- Demonstrate the ability to incorporate the families’ desires and goals for their children into classroom or intervention strategies. C.7
- Demonstrate knowledge and skills in developmentally appropriate guidance techniques and strategies that provide opportunities to assist children in developing positive thoughts and feelings about themselves and others through cooperative interaction with peers and adults. E.3
- Demonstrate understanding of the influence of the physical setting, schedule, routines, and transitions on children and use these experiences to promote children’s development and learning. E.7
- Demonstrate knowledge of assessment techniques, interpretation of assessment in information in the application of this data to curriculum development or intervention planning. F.9

Student Learning Outcomes

- A. Use assessment and evaluation to apply developmentally appropriate and culturally relevant guidance techniques to support children with self-regulation and problem-solving skills.
- B. Articulate the guidance philosophy of your classroom with respect for diverse families and cultural practices.
- C. Apply knowledge of child growth and development, mental and physical health, and socio-emotional development to support positive guidance techniques in a classroom setting.

Textbook – Not Required

Online Participation/Classroom Discussions

Discussions are an extremely important part of the course and are considered in the communication part of the grade. We will take advantage of the Discussion Board and/or a class discussion. The discussion will take place when new information is presented and will be included in the Canvas module. The topic will be relevant to information already covered in class. If the discussion will take place on the Discussion Board of Canvas, directions will be given prior to the event.

Students/Instructor Communication

Please check your UNM email and course messages regularly. You don't have to reply with text to the emails unless you have questions, but a thumbs up or other emoji would be appreciated so I know you got it. Email is the best way to communicate with me; I reply promptly and within 24 hours. I check my email and course messages at least once a day except for Sundays. I encourage you to email me with any questions you have. If you need to speak with me, please visit my office hours. You may also schedule an appointment to meet with me anytime.

Attendance

Attendance is a significant part of your grade (see grading below) and is part of your communication grade. If you are not able to attend, please let your instructor/teacher know prior to missing class.

Due Dates/Late Assignments

Students are expected to turn in work on or before the date that it is due. If there is an expectation that the assignment will be late, please communicate this to your instructor including the anticipated date the assignment will be turned in. Lack of communication on late assignments will affect your overall grade. The information in the course is cumulative and each assignment builds on previous information. If special consideration is necessary, please communicate this to instructor/teacher and alternative methods can be discussed.

Grading

Attendance and Communication 30%
Assignments 10%
Discussions 15%
Reflections 20%
Final 25%

TECHNOLOGY-

Access to UNM Canvas is Imperative!!! All other technology necessary will be determined on a student by student basis.

Technical Requirements Con't.

Computer

- A high-speed Internet connection is highly recommended.
- Supported browsers include: Detailed Supported Browsers and Operating Systems
- Any computer capable of running a recently updated web browser should be sufficient to access your online course. However, bear in mind that processor speed, amount of RAM and Internet connection speed can greatly affect performance.
- For the best experience when using the Kaltura Media Tools inside UNM Canvas, be sure to use a supported browser on a desktop.
- Microsoft Office products are available free for all UNM students (more information on the UNM IT Software Distribution and Downloads page)
- Please update your contact information in Loboweb: MyUNM Login. When you log into MyUNM, Enter LoboWeb. Click on the Personal Information link to make sure your contact information is up to date.

Web Conferencing

This is asynchronous class and Web conferencing will not be used in this course.

You will be informed well in advance if changes to this are necessary

In the event of an online sessions, you will need:

Netiquette-

See Netiquette document also in Canvas Course "Introduction"

- Netiquette document

Submitting Assignments

When you submit an assignment via UNM Learn, you will receive an email receipt of your submission from do-not-reply@learn.unm.edu. Save this email as confirmation of your submission.

Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. Your professor will respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. As for all students in the class, family emergency-related absences are normally excused with reasonable notice to the professor, as noted in the attendance guidelines above. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. The Administration's welcome is found on our website: <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>.

Respectful and Responsible Learning: We all have shared responsibility for ensuring that learning occurs safely, honestly, and equitably. Submitting material as your own work that has been generated on a website, in a publication, by an artificial intelligence algorithm, by another person, or by breaking the rules of an assignment constitutes academic dishonesty. It is a student code of conduct violation that can lead to a disciplinary procedure. Please ask me for help in finding the resources you need to be successful in this course. I can help you use study resources responsibly and effectively. Off-campus paper writing services, problem-checkers and services, websites, and AIs can be incorrect or misleading. Learning the course material depends on completing and submitting your own work. UNM preserves and protects the integrity of the academic community through multiple policies including policies on student grievances (Faculty Handbook D175 and D176), academic dishonesty (FH D100), and respectful campus (FH CO9). These are in the Student Pathfinder (<https://pathfinder.unm.edu>) and the Faculty Handbook (<https://handbook.unm.edu>).

Our classroom and our university should always be spaces of mutual respect, kindness, and support, without fear of discrimination, harassment, or violence. Should you ever need assistance or have concerns about incidents that violate this principle, please access the resources available to you on campus. Please note that, because UNM faculty, TAs, and GAs are considered "responsible employees" any disclosure of gender discrimination (including sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and sexual violence) made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported by that faculty member, TA, or GA to the university's Title IX coordinator. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct and reporting, please see:

<https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>.

Student Support: Many students have found that time management workshops or work with peer tutors can help them meet their goals. These and are other resources are available through PASOS (Pathways to Articulation and Sustainable Opportunities for Students), TRIO Student Support Services, and Student Learning Support at the Center for Teaching and Learning.

Connecting to Campus and Finding Support: UNM has many resources and centers to help you thrive, including opportunities to get involved, mental health resources, academic support including tutoring, resource centers for people like you, free food at Valencia Campus Food Pantry, and jobs on campus. Your advisor, staff at the resource centers and Academic Affairs Office, and I can help you find the right opportunities for you.

Student Support:

UNM-Valencia Learning Commons (Tutoring)

Tutoring is available to you in math, science, writing, and other subjects through the Learning Commons: Learning and STEM Centers and Writing Center. In person tutoring is in these centers in the LRC (the building that also has the library). Tutoring in Zoom and, for writing, through email, is also available.

Making use of tutoring is a fantastic way to use your resources and set yourself up to learn deeply and well in your courses.

To schedule an appointment, please go to: Learning Commons Bookings

If you are making an email appointment with the Writing Center, email your draft to tutor@unm.edu after you fill out the form above.

If you have difficulty with the scheduling link above, would like an appointment in a subject not listed at that link, or have a question, email tutor@unm.edu. You'll get answers during business hours Monday through Friday.

The webpage, with more details about available hours, is here: Learning Commons: Tutoring Services webpage

Resources to support study skills and time management are available through Student Learning Assistance at the Center for Teaching and Learning in Zimmerman Library or online.

Copyright Issues

All materials in this course fall under copyright laws and should not be downloaded, distributed, or used by students for any purpose outside this course.

The UNM Copyright Guide has additional helpful information on this topic.

Accessibility and Accommodations

Accommodations: UNM is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for students with documented disabilities. As your instructor, it is my objective to facilitate an inclusive classroom setting, in which students have full access and opportunity to participate. To engage in a confidential conversation about the process for requesting reasonable accommodations for this class and/or program, please contact the UNM-Valencia Equal Access Services (Sarah Clawson, Coordinator), at (505) 925-8840 or by email at sjclawson@unm.edu. Or the UNM-Albuquerque Accessibility Resource Center (<https://arc.unm.edu/>) at arcsrvs@unm.edu or by phone at 505-277-3506.

The American with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodations of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring accommodation, please contact:

- UNM-Valencia Student Services if you are a Valencia campus student. The phone number is 505-925-8560
- UNM Accessibility Resource Center in 2021 Mesa Vista Hall if you are a main campus student. The phone number is 505-277-3506.

Information about your disability is confidential and your instructor cannot refer you for accommodations. Be aware that you will need to provide documentation. If you need assistance in obtaining documentation, the offices above can assist you.

Title IX: The University of New Mexico and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and providing an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. The University's programs and activities, including the classroom, should always provide a space of mutual respect, kindness, and support without fear of harassment, violence, or discrimination. Discrimination on the basis of sex includes discrimination on the basis of assigned sex at birth, sex characteristics, pregnancy and pregnancy related conditions, sexual orientation and gender identity. If you have encountered any form of discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence, we encourage you to report this to the University. You can access the confidential resources available on campus at the LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center (<https://loborespect.unm.edu>), the Women's Resource Center (<https://women.unm.edu>), and the LGBTQ Resource Center (<https://lgbtqrc.unm.edu>). If you speak with an instructor (including a TA or a GA) regarding an incident connected to discrimination on the basis of sex, they must notify UNM's Title IX Coordinator that you shared an experience relating to Title IX, even if you ask the instructor not to disclose it. The Title IX Coordinator is available to assist you in understanding your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus. For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct and reporting, please see <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html> and CEEO's website.

If you are pregnant or experiencing a pregnancy-related condition, you may contact UNM's Office of Compliance, Ethics, and Equal Opportunity at ceo@unm.edu. The CEEO staff will provide you with access to available resources and supportive measures and assist you in understanding your rights.

Academic Integrity

You should be familiar with UNM's Policy on Academic Dishonesty and the Student Code of Conduct which outline academic misconduct defined as plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, or facilitating any such act.

Artificial Intelligence and Academic Integrity: A 2023-24 task force led by Dean Leo Lo concluded that current policies on student conduct (RPM 4.8, FH D100, D175, and D176) “reasonably articulate the university’s student conduct expectations.” We do not anticipate the need for a new policy on student use of AI.

Drop Policy:

[This section states your departmental policy for dropping students – edit or include your own statement.]

UNM Policies: This course falls under all UNM policies for last day to drop courses, etc. Please see or the UNM Course Catalog for information on UNM services and policies. Please see the UNM academic calendar for course dates, the last day to drop courses without penalty, and for financial disenrollment dates.

The Pathfinder; UNM’s Student Handbook can be located here:

<https://pathfinder.unm.edu/>

Campus Safety: UNM maintains a Threat Assessment Team (TAT) comprised of qualified professionals trained in mental health, law enforcement, emergency response, and university resources and policy. The TAT convenes in a rapid response to address potential threats to the campus community and maintains communication with local and federal law enforcement, as well as the CARE team. In cases of emergency, call the UNM-Valencia Police Department \(505\) 925-8570 (phone number on the back of your Lobo ID) or your Health and Health Sciences or branch campus security. You may also call 911. Practice situational awareness: note the nearest building exit to your classroom and identify the nearest Automated External Defibrillator (AED) for use in an emergency by a trained individual. In an emergency, such as response to a fire alarm, you will be able to direct your students to the safest building exit and reassembly point. The interactive campus map visualizes building layout and adjacent spaces for all UNM campuses.

COVID-19 Health and Awareness. UNM is a mask friendly, but not a mask required, community. If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, please do not come to class. If you do need to stay home, please communicate with me; I can work with you to provide alternatives for course participation and completion. Let me, an advisor, or another UNM staff member know that you need support so that we can connect you to the right resources. Please be aware that UNM will publish information on websites and email about any changes to our public health status and community response.
