Course Schedule:

8-week self-paced course available online via Canvas. 8 week course begins August 19th and ends October 12th.

Course Description:

This 8-week course is designed to help students release the stress and tension of everyday life using the body as a mechanism for release. In turn, the relaxation of the body can relieve mental stress and emotional unease. This class focuses on using active stretching as opposed to passive stretching techniques. In active stretching a muscle group is engaged and held over 15-30+ seconds enabling the complementary muscle group to lengthen and release. Passive stretching is used in restorative yoga classes. Coordinating active stretching with the breath increases that release, increases focus, and builds tolerance and perseverance. The basics of pranayama, or the control of the breath, will be taught. Props will be used to support modifications if needed. All fitness levels welcome.

Required Materials:

Yoga mat (preferably sticky so that feet/hands don't slip)
2 Yoga blocks (4"x 9"x 6" - can be found fairly inexpensively on Amazon)
Yoga strap (a long leather belt or something non-stretchy can be substituted)
All yoga props can be found in the Bookstore in the Learning Center.

Homework:

Each Monday there will be an approximately 45-minute video uploaded for you to follow along and practice with the instructor. You have the full week to practice whenever you choose. Feel free to use the video more than once.

After the practice session ends write in your journal explaining how to do each of 3 poses of your choice plus uploaded photos to receive participation points. Class Journal due the following Sunday.

--Each Class Journal consists of you describing how to do each of 3 poses (your choice). Include 3 technical details described in your own words. The choice of these 3 poses must be different every week. Do not choose Passive Child's Pose nor Relaxation Pose. Also, what was your emotional response to the class and how you felt you did: challenging or not? You can talk about alignment, strength, flexibility or breathing, for example. Weekly Journal is 75 words minimum.

--Then take photos of those 3 poses (include names of poses) you have chosen to detail for that day. Photos can be sent as a jpeg on a Word document. Please keep the file small or medium. Make sure I can see your body in full and that the lighting is in front and not behind you (as you will appear as a silhouette).

-- Each Weekly Journal entry + photos should be on one running (or continuing) document. Each week you will add to that same document, upload it and send it to me. Do not send me a new document each week!

--Title each week, for example, Week 1, Week 2, etc. Label each pose with its name.

Critiques: Once an assignment is turned in I will send back critiques (constructive criticism) on how to do the pose a bit better. Some of your poses will look fine and I will say so. Other poses may need an adjustment here, an adjustment there, a use of blocks or a strap to better the pose. I expect you to use 3 of these critiques to better your poses for the Final Assignment. Again, I am not expecting a 'perfect' pose but I do expect an 'improved' pose using my critiques.

Late Assignments: Unfortunately, I have to add penalties for lateness. I've been teaching this online class for over a year now and each term I get students who wait until the end to send me either ALL the assignments at once or multiple assignments at once. In order to put a stop to this (I was being very lenient on students handing in late assignments previously) I will incorporate penalty points for each day late. You will have one full week to do the assignment. There will be a penalty of 1 point for each day late after the due date up to 5 points off for each week. So, if you are late 7 days for an assignment the most points taken off for that week is 5.

Along with the 7 Weekly Class Journals + Photos there will be one Final Journal Summary due at the end of the 8th week.

The Final Journal will be a summary paragraph of how you did over the whole of the 8 weeks: improvements or not? What you have learned or not? So, if you have been keeping up on the journaling then most of the final paper is already complete (!). Also, I would like to see before and after photos of 3 poses that I critiqued. Choose any 3 poses from past 7 weeks as the before photos and add an after photo (using my critiques) next to it. You can write about the challenges and improvements of these 3 poses, too. Your poses do NOT have to be perfect. I want to see you get as close to an aligned pose as possible using my critiques and/or props for modifications as needed. 125 word minimum.

--Paper should be typed in 12 pt. font size, Times New Roman font, single spacing.

All Recorded Class Videos, Weekly Class Journals and the Final Journal Summary will be found on UNM Canvas in Assignments. Due dates listed below.
