Greetings and welcome to Hist 161. I am the professor—Dr. Stephen Sylvester—and my plan is to engage you in the study of history, perhaps to spark and encourage interest in the past, and to assist you in arriving at conclusions based on careful analysis of certifiable evidence. My academic degrees—B.I.S. in history, New Mexico State University; M.A. in History, University of North Dakota, Doctor of Arts, History and Journalism, University of North Dakota, post-graduate work at Rutgers University, U.C.L.A., and Case Western Reserve University. My major fields of interest are World history, American history, the history of the American West, women’s studies, and international relations. I have taught at the University of Minnesota-Crookston, Montana State University Northern, Peru State College, the University of Alaska, the University of Hawaii, Lassen College in California, Shandong University in Jinan, China, and online for Rowan-Cabarrus College in North Carolina. I have lectured at Istanbul University and in Morocco and Tunisia. I am a member of the Speakers Bureau for Humanities Montana and the Humanities Committee of Idaho. I live on the west bank of the South Payette River in the isolated mountain and canyon region of south-central Idaho—cell phones do not work here. Having grown up in Socorro and being part of a family of Lobos—my father, two of brothers, and sister earned UNM degrees—I visit the area reasonably regularly and claim some familiarity with the culture of New Mexico and the greater Southwest.

Grading Scale

Grade	Percentage Range	Points Required	Assigned Points
A+	96-100%	480	Each quiz – 10 pts – 70 points total (8 quizzes; lowest score dropped)
A	93-95	465	Each Exam – 100 pts – 200 points total
A-	90-92	450	Each Essay – 100 pts – 200 points total
B+	86-89	430	Discussion Board – 5 points each – 30 points total
B	83-85	415	Total points possible -- 500
B-	80-82	400
C+	76-79	380
C	73-75	365

C-	70-72	350
D	60-69	300
F	Below 60%	Fewer than 300	Failure to turn in an essay or exam will result in a failing grade for the course.

You can earn A, B, C, D (fractionated), W, F, or I. C through A+ is passing, and C- or lower is failing. D's and F's, which are failing, are assigned to students who have consistently submitted work that does not meet expectations. F's are NOT given to help students maintain financial aid, scholarships, immigration status, or sports eligibility. If you earn an I, you have neither passed nor failed the course; you must complete the missing portfolio during the following semester or the University automatically converts the I to an F. The Instructor, the student, and the Division Chair must agree on the requirements for completion of an I and conversion to a credit letter grade. A W is used for students who have not been dropped from the class but have not participated or done work in the class.

Reasons Students Are Dropped

Students may be dropped from the course if they . . .,

1. Fail to participate in this course for more than two week.
2. Do not turn in any one of the major essays assignments. Please remember, no late papers are accepted without specific permission, which may or may not be granted depending on the reason and supporting evidence.
3. Have a 50% grade average at the Midterm.
4. Threaten the mental or physical safety or well-being of any member of the class. This includes stalking, cyber stalking, or threats of/actual physical violence.
5. Are disrespectful to me or other classmates in correspondence, such as discussions, e-mails, or peer editing sessions, or during class meetings. This behavior includes rude comments, swearing, or threats.

General Policies for Grade Disputes

You should be familiar with one very important rule regarding disputes: the Student Privacy Act, a federal statute called FERPA, strictly prohibits the instructor administrators from talking to anyone but the student about his/her grades, progress, or work. Therefore, if you have questions about a grade on an assignment or about the final grade for the course, FERPA dictates that you are the ONLY ONE who may speak to me regarding grades, work, or progress. In other words, a UNM VC instructor or administrator cannot speak to parents, relatives, or friends of the student about student grades, progress, or work.

Avoiding Plagiarism

You must complete two essays of from 500 to 750 words—two to three pages double-spaced. Your writing assignments must not be plagiarized. Plagiarism means using or copying language and/or ideas without acknowledging where you got them. Plagiarism includes copying another student's papers or ideas, downloading and turning in papers from the Internet, copying passages from sources without proper documentation, or rephrasing an author's ideas and then presenting them as your own original thoughts. To learn how to avoid plagiarism, e-mail me or consult a tutor. To learn more, complete the Plagiarism Tutorial in Course Materials in Blackboard LEARN or at <http://library.acadiau.ca/tutorials/plagiarism>. (Pick Dylan in the tutorial.) If you would like even more information about plagiarism, The Owl at Purdue website offers sage advice: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/01>. In addition, talk to me about methods of quoting that will help you avoid plagiarizing. See Writing Tips in Module I as well.

In a world of high stress and busy schedules, coupled with ample resources on the Internet, you may be tempted to plagiarize. Stop! Ignore that temptation! Why? If you do plagiarize, you will face one or more of the following consequences: being dropped from the course, failing the assignment, failing the course, or facing disciplinary action taken by the University. Your actions may also be reported to the Dean of Instruction. Further disciplinary action, in addition to the actions taken for the plagiarism, may be taken based on the severity of the behavior. The University considers plagiarism a serious form of academic dishonesty or stealing.

Meeting Due Dates

- Due dates for all work—Discussion Board, quizzes, essays, and exams are in the course schedule here and in the course modules, as well as with the assignments themselves. This is an online course, but that does not mean that any old time will work. Deadlines are generally midnight Sunday of each week. I realize that work, family issues, illness, or technical glitches may get in the way, but each and all of these should be very rare and exceptions are allowed only with clear evidence and timely notice. If you do not have a consistently available computer, an online course is not for you. I expect you to respond to e-mails sent directly to you.

Editing Your Essay: Running the Spell and Grammar Checker

Before you submit any writing, run the spell/grammar check. While this is not a full "revision," it is a type of revision called line-by-line editing, a necessary step that will help you get a better grade. This is a history course, but correct grammar and spelling count.

In Word, you can set the spell and grammar check to catch more errors. (If you need additional help, type "settings for spelling and grammar" in the help box.) The following are the directions for Word 2007:

In the 2007 version of Word, click on the circle in the upper left-hand corner of the screen. In the new window that opens, select "Word Options" located at the bottom.

1. In Word 2007, click on "Proofing."
2. In the section that reads, "When correcting spelling and grammar in Word," change "Writing Style" from "Grammar Only" to "Grammar and Style."
3. Next, click on "Settings," which is right next to "Writing Style."
4. In "Grammar and Style Options" section under the word "Require," set the boxes to "Always," "Inside," and "2." Click on "Ok." The window will disappear. Then, click on "Ok." The second window will disappear.
5. Note: in "Proofing" (Word 2007), you can also reset your spell checker if you want to recheck a document on which you have previously run the spell or grammar checker. Click on "Recheck Document."

You are now ready to spell and grammar check your document. To actually spell check, click on the tab called "Review" and then click on "Spelling and Grammar," on the upper left hand side of that screen. Also, read your document carefully to catch any errors grammar and spell check may have missed – e.g. form/from. You may also want to consult helpful grammar sites such as "Grammar Girl" if you have questions about usage.

Computer Policies

Technical Safeguards

Please save all of your work. First, save all assignments on your hard disk and then save copies to memory sticks. For even better protection, print out hard copies of your work. Important Note: At UNM Valencia, losing a file is not an excuse for late work.

Getting Computer Help

If you experience computer difficulties, you must call (505) 277-5757 for help and fix the problem. These computer technicians can answer questions you may have concerning specific software, hardware, and other procedural issues related to this course.

Computer Policies in a UNM VC Lab

If you use the computers on campus, you must adhere to all policies set forth by the University of New Mexico at Valencia Campus. Check with the person who oversees the lab for a copy of the policies.
