COURSE DESCRIPTION

Signed languages and signing systems frequently used by deaf people are discussed. Cross-linguistic and cross-cultural information on ASL will be discussed. Focus is on ASL, signed English and fingerspelling, and the most common manually coded signed systems. In addition to the acquisition of basic vocabulary and grammar, this course emphasizes knowledge of the characteristics, values and cultural and linguistic diversity of the Deaf Culture. Additional activities and topics may include: discussions of challenges facing families with deaf members, singing/music in signed language, number subsets in ASL, historical and linguistic background of ASL and pioneers of ASL linguistic research.

REQUIRED TEXTS: A Basic Course in American Sign Language, Humphries, Padden, O'Rourke, TJ Publishers: Silver Spring, Maryland.

Learning to See: American Sign Language as a Second Language, Wilcox and Wilcox

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To be able to communicate-expressively and receptively- on a basic level with Deaf/Hard of Hearing individuals representing a cross-section of the deaf community.
 2. To understand the basic problems and implications of deafness.
 3. To be familiar with the differences between American Sign Language (ASL) and manually coded systems.
 4. To become aware of one's own signing limitations and capabilities

*UNM STUDENT EMAIL****

Please maintain and check your UNM email! Notices and reminders will be posted as needed through UNM LEARN.

*STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES****

Students must inform instructor of special needs and provide the necessary university paperwork as soon as possible to ensure that those needs are met in a timely manner. Call 925-8560 or go to website <http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm>

*Use of Electronic Devices (cell phones/recording audio & video) is not permitted in class.
*No Food or drinks in Classrooms/VC policy.

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see pg 15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Class participation is essential in this class. Those who participate regularly and well will benefit. If they are within one point of the next higher grade level, they will earn the higher grade. For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course. This does not apply for grades between an A and an A+.

Attendance: Regular attendance is expected. Students are allowed three absences during the semester without penalty (the equivalent of one week of classes). Each subsequent absence may result in lowering your final grade by one percentage point. For example, in the case of four absences a score of 84 becomes 83; in the case of five absences 84 becomes 82.

Students who miss 5 consecutive classes may be dropped from the course as per UNM Pathfinder. Any missed activities, quizzes/tests, or assignments cannot be made up without a documented excuse. All make-up exams must be scheduled within one week of the original date and may be subject to 10 point deduction from final score. Students are responsible for getting missed information from another student.

PARTNER REPORTS

Requirements outside classroom participation: selection of a partner from within the class. The pair must meet a minimum of an hour each week to practice signing without their voices. A written report is expected from each partner specifying location of practice, time, and a brief summary and both signatures. Reports are collected weekly throughout the semester. No partner reports will be accepted late.

DEAF/HH VISITORS

Deaf/HH children and adults from the community are invited to attend the class to add input and to make certain that no stereotyped image of the “typical” deaf person prevails. Students will be asked to prepare questions for these dates that will be announced later in the semester.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

Handouts:

Brief history of sign language. Descriptions of manually coded sign systems

Various articles on mainstreaming, linguistics of ASL, or other appropriate material

Videotapes: “A Basic Course in American Sign Language” Tape #1 (on reserve in the library)

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

While the instructor does not expect problems when working with adult learners, a guiding principle of respect for one another will ensure a safe and productive environment. Interruptions with non-related comments are discouraged. There may be issues a student needs to discuss that would be more appropriately handled in private and outside of the classroom. No Toleration policy for obscene language, sexual harassment, and threatening behavior towards students or instructor. There is a process in place to handle complaints...report to The Chair of CHESS and to the Dean of Instruction.

EXAMS

Students are eligible to take a make-up exam [written only] if they (in UNM handbook)

1. Have an emergency that prevents them from taking the regularly scheduled exam;
2. Alert the instructor to the emergency prior to the regularly scheduled exam
3. Obtain the instructor's agreement that this is an emergency and that the regularly scheduled exam cannot be taken.

Make-up receptive exams are strongly discouraged due to the nature of sign language and the fairness to those who attended the scheduled test.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students found cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero for the exam or assignment in question.

GRADING CHART Grades are determined from the total test scores accumulated, signing skills, class participation, and weekly partner reports.

98-100 : A+

Students must have a 98-100 average and do an extra credit paper in order to qualify for an A+ for the course.

94 - 97: A

90 - 93: A-

87 - 89: B+

84 - 86: B

80 - 83: B-

77 - 79: C+

74 - 78: C

70 - 73: C-

67 - 69: D+

64 - 66: D

60 - 63: D-

0 - 59: F

The grade of INCOMPLETE (INC) is given only when extenuating personal circumstances prevent completing the work by the official ending date of the course (as per UNM Faculty Handbook).

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Attendance is taken at the beginning of each session.

Students with two (2) or more consecutive absences or three (3) or more regular absences may be dropped from the class by the instructor. *Student's grades will be affected by absences, dropping half a grade for every three absences.
