

INTRODUCTION TO PSYCHOLOGY

Course Syllabus

Psychology 1110.501: Spring 2020

UNM Valencia, Vocational/Career Tech Center, Room 103

Mondays/Wednesdays, 9:00 – 10:15 a.m.

Instructor: Cheryl Bryan, Ph.D.

Office: Arts & Sciences Bldg., Room 111

Office Phone: 505.925.8643

Social Sciences Division Office: 505.925.8600

Office Hours: M/W 11:45 AM – 2:45 PM, or before/after class, or by appointment. If you cannot meet with me in-person, you may also contact me using the following tools in UNM Learn:

Email: Use the Course Messages tab in Learn (To start an email, click “Create Message” and then “To” to see a drop-down list in which you will see my name—listed in alphabetical order.

Do Not send any mass emails from this area. If you want to contact the class as a whole, use General Class Questions—see below.

If you have a question about course material, please go to “General Class Questions” (under the “Discussion” tab) to submit your question. Using this tool allows all students to view your question & my answer—students are encouraged to answer each other’s questions as well.

Emergencies ONLY: If Learn is down and you are trying to submit an assignment the day it is due, you can email it to me using LoboMail (cbryan@unm.edu). Be sure to attach the assignment.

If you have an issue that needs immediate attention (e.g., you can’t access an exam), you can text me through Remind (an app) by texting our class code (psyc1110) to 81010 after 7:00 AM and before 7:00 PM.

If you run into any technical problems: Please contact UNM Learn at 277-0857 or toll free (1-877) 688-8817 Email: learn@unm.edu.

Textbook: Ciccarelli, S. K., and White, J. N. (2015). Psychology: an exploration. 3rd Edition. NY: Pearson Publishers.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites: None

Student Demographics and Email: Check your contact information in LoboWeb! If it is not up-to-date, please update the contact information . . . I may need to contact you.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will introduce you to the concepts, theories, significant findings, methodologies, and terminology that apply to the field of psychology.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The following are the student learning objectives for this course. The activities in this course are developed so that you can demonstrate you have met these objectives. An appreciation for cultural diversity is an integral part of this course and will be addressed in the text and lectures.

Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Explain how the scientific method and psychological research methodologies are used to study the mind and behavior.
2. Recall key terms, concepts, and theories in the areas of neuroscience, learning, memory, cognition, intelligence, motivation and emotion, development, personality, health, disorders and therapies, and social psychology.
3. Explain how information provided in this course can be applied to life in the real world.
4. Identify the major theoretical schools of thought that exist in psychology as they relate to the self, the culture, and the society.

INSTRUCTOR BIO:

I first became passionate about learning psychological theories and concepts when taking Introduction to Psychology. I have always had a fascination with how people think, why they act a certain way, and how society (e.g., peers, family, community) influences their choices. This curiosity led me to a career in sales and marketing. Later, at the age of 45, I returned to college and earned my undergraduate degree in Psychology, and then earned a Ph.D. Now I am a developmental psychologist with a research focus on adolescent development of vocational identity. I especially enjoy sharing my passion of psychological principles with my students.

My goal is to help you enhance your love of learning and improve upon your current critical thinking skills through individual, group, and classroom activities and assignments. My commitment to you is to provide you with knowledge that leads to your learning of our course objectives in a relevant, organized, interactive, and challenging way.

My expectation of you is to commit to this course as well. I expect you to arrive on-time, as well as prepared and willing to participate in your learning process. Additionally, I expect you to complete assignments in a timely manner.

I know that you have a desire to successfully complete this course and your college journey. Why else would you be here? I will do my part by being accessible to you and supporting your professional goals. Please utilize me as a resource—I will help you in any way possible. I am confident that, if you choose to do so, you can be successful in this class as well as your other college courses.

Thank you in advance for what I know will be a rewarding semester for each of us. I am glad that you are my student and look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship.

COURSE STRUCTURE AND REQUIREMENTS

Instructor Response Time: Within Learn, I routinely check for student correspondence and respond within 24 hours (Mon - Thurs) and 48 hours (Fri - Sun). I will not guarantee a response time if you email me through LoboMail—instead, use Course Messages in Learn. If Learn is unavailable, and you must reach me immediately, you can text me at 505.301.6222 between the hours of 7:00 AM and 7:00 PM. (Be sure to state your name and the course you are texting about in the message.) If you email me through LoboMail, please note that it is UNM policy to not accept email from non-UNM accounts. In other words, I will not respond to emails from your gmail or other such accounts. Also, be sure to put something in the subject line; otherwise, I might not read it thinking it is SPAM. I check Course Messages in Learn much more often than LoboMail, so if you need a timely response, email me through Course Messages in Learn.

Procedures for Completing Coursework:

- All assignments/assessments open and close on specific dates at specific times and will NOT reopen after they close—see Course Schedule for assignment dates. In other words, late assignments are not accepted; you must complete course work on-time.
- Make-up Exam (not quizzes): Generally speaking, there are NO make-up exams (for missed exams) in this course; however, occasionally there are legitimate reasons for missing an exam. Please let me know, either in advance or within 24 hours of the exam, if you are unable to take an exam. Depending on circumstances, you may be allowed to make up the exam—however, it might be a different exam than originally posted on Learn and could be an essay exam. If you become extremely sick or encounter some other emergency on the day of the exam, you will need to provide some verification (e.g., a note from your physician, an accident report, etc.).
- All work in this course needs to be submitted within Learn. If you have difficulty using a tool to complete work, use the “Create a Support Ticket” link in the Course Menu immediately and notify me (your instructor) as well. If necessary, we’ll make other arrangements.

ASSIGNMENTS—What you will need to do to master course content

Class Participation: (10 points - 3% of your final grade)

Participation points will be randomly credited, in class, throughout the semester. You are expected to fully participate in all class activities and discussions, which will sometimes require you to complete an assessment outside of class. It is your responsibility to access the chapter slides and bring them to class—you can print/view the slides in any format that works for you. Research shows that split attention (trying to copy the slides during lecture) negatively affects learning. There may also be opportunities to earn extra credit for class participation.

Plagiarism Tutorial: (10 points - 3% of your final grade)

The University of Indiana has developed a tutorial to help students understand plagiarism. This on-line tutorial, which takes approximately 1-2 hours, is required for this course, and can be located at <https://www.indiana.edu/~academy/firstPrinciples/index.html>. You will need to submit your unique confirmation certificate to receive credit for taking the tutorial. Do not send me only your confirmation number—this number does not give me access to your certificate. You may have to take a screen shot (or two) of the completion information.

Quizzes: (12 x 5 = 60 points: 19% of your final grade)

There are 12 quizzes (one per chapter), which open at designated times in Learn (see schedule)—each quiz is open until the night before the respective exam. You are allowed to take each quiz as often as wanted (while open) with your highest score counting toward your grade. Each quiz has 20 questions and is worth a total of five (5) points each (.25 points per question). Quizzes CANNOT be made up if missed (for any reason) and will not be reopened at a later date, as all quizzes are open for at least 10 days. You will have 30 minutes to complete each 20-question quiz. Within a chapter no two quizzes are the same, and exam questions will not be taken from the quiz questions. All quiz questions are taken from the textbook.

Discussions: (5 x 10 points = 50 points: 16% of your final grade)

You will complete your first discussion at the beginning of class. This discussion is a “get to know your classmates” assignment and is titled Introduction Discussion. In the remaining four discussions, you will relate what you have learned in a particular segment, what needs further explanation/study, and how you can apply learned information to your life—Minimum 500 words. You will also respond to two other students’ post—at least three sentences and more than simply an agreement for what they wrote.

Exams: 150 points (2 of the first 3 exams + final exam = 150 points: 48% of your final grade)

Four (4) examinations will be given covering material presented in the lectures, text, and videos. All of the examinations are noncumulative. Exams will consist of objective questions in a multiple-choice format. You will have 75 minutes to take each exam, although each is designed to require only 50 minutes. Each exam is worth 50 points (50 questions) and each is worth approximately 18% of your final grade in this class. Your lowest of your 1st 3 exam scores is dropped.

Papers: (30 points = Career Paper (6% of your grade) & Peer-Reviewed Journal Assignment (3%))

Career Paper (20 points): For this assignment you must meet with a Career Counselor twice and an Academic Advisor at least once, and then write a paper about your experience. Please note that this assignment is due mid-semester.

Peer-Reviewed Journal Assignment (10 point): You will find and summarize a psychological peer-reviewed journal article on the topic of your choice. Please follow the format as written, which is located in the appropriate assignment area in Learn. Please see Course Schedule for due dates.

EXTRA CREDIT OPTION (Optional, worth up to 10 points)

You may independently earn up to a total of 10 extra credit points that count toward your final point total for the semester—these are simply added to your total points earned from your assignments to determine your final letter grade. The primary objective for the research paper is to allow you additional exposure to methodological issues relevant to psychology research. Extra credit is due no later than midnight on the Sunday before the last day of class. Extra credit will not be accepted after this date. Separately, there may be additional extra credit opportunities in class.

Extra Credit Research Paper (worth up to 10 points). This paper will familiarize you with using professional journals in exploring the field of psychology. For each paper, you must first find a topic within the field of psychology that interests you and for which you can find three (3) peer-reviewed journal articles. Each article should present original research data (not just a discussion, opinion, review, or theoretical paper), and all articles should directly relate to the topic you have chosen. When writing the paper, you should employ the following format:

- 1) Introduction (1 point): State the topic you chose and why you were interested in it.
- 2) Research (3 points): Summarize in your own words the findings of each of the studies that you read—one paragraph for each of the three studies. What is the purpose of each study? What was learned in each study? Be sure to go beyond what is contained in the abstract alone (i.e., don't just review the abstracts).
- 3) Evaluation (3 points): In discussing each study, give your own evaluation—one paragraph for each of the three studies. How good was each study? Why? Do you agree with the conclusions drawn by the authors? Why or why not? Could the findings be explained in another way?
- 4) Summary (2 points): After presenting the individual studies, tie them together—at least one paragraph plus a closing paragraph. What do they have in common? Do their findings fit together in any way? What have you learned about the topic?

Each paper must follow APA formatting (1 point). Here is a reference site for APA formatting (no need to write an abstract): <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>. Your paper must be typewritten, double-spaced, Times New Roman 12 pt. font, and a minimum of nine (9) paragraphs—this limit does NOT include the cover page or the References page, which are also expected to follow APA format. Submit under the Assignments tab in Learn. Additional to your paper, copy the abstract (summary paragraph at the beginning of each journal article) for each of the three (3) articles and attach these copies with your paper—you can cut-and-paste the abstracts, placing them at the end, after the Reference page.

GRADING

Although you are required to take four exams in this class, only three will count toward your final grade. The final (4th) exam is mandatory, and of the first three exams your lowest grade will be dropped. Therefore, your final grade will consist of your two (2) best exam scores from the first three (3) exams + your score from the final exam + quizzes + writing assignments. Make-up essay exams will also be worth 50 points. Grades will not be curved.

Grading Scale:	Your Total Points	Percentage: Total	Letter Grade
	304-310	98-100	A+
	279-303	90-97.9	A
	273-278	88-89.9	B+
	248-272	80-87.9	B
	242-247	78-79.9	C+
	217-241	70-77.9	C
	211-216	68-69.9	D+
	186-210	60-67.9	D
	≤ 185	≤ 59.9	F

Grading Procedures

- Late assignments will NOT be accepted (for any reason), unless noted otherwise below.

- For each assignment/assessment you will be graded on your knowledge of psychological theory and research. Content will depend on learning objectives for the chapter being studied.
- For quizzes and exams, you will have immediate feedback of your score once you submit the assessment—as long as you submit it on-time. If you submit after the designated time allotment, then it goes into my grading section and I will need to submit it—no penalty. Please note that this only relates if you started the quiz or exam before it closed.
- For all written assignments, grades will be posted (with comments) within one week of the due date. For discussions, the due dates are noted in the Course Schedule—your initial post is always due on a Thursday, and usually the response posts are due that respective Sunday at 11:59 PM—so your grade will be posted by 11:59 PM that following Sunday.
- It is your responsibility to check the “My Grades” page in Learn to ensure your points are posted correctly and to contact me if you have any questions or concerns. You have one week after points have been posted to contact me regarding a grade correction. Grades may not be changed if you fail to contact me within one week from the posting of the score . . . so check your grades often and contact me if something looks wrong. Please note: To calculate your grade, you must do it manually as the total points and percentages showing in MyGrades are NOT correct.

COURSE POLICIES

Attendance: You are required to attend all classes and complete all assignments; at the same time, occasionally, there are extenuating circumstances. If, for any reason, you are unable to attend class be sure to notify me through Course Messages in Learn that you will not be in class and why. You may have up to four (4) excused absences* or miss up to four (4) assignments—or any combination of the two—before I reserve the right to drop you from the course (possibly without notice to you). Please keep in mind that you are responsible to drop this course if you've decided not to complete it. Experience has shown that students who miss four (4) or more classes/assignments do poorly in the course and often fail to reach a grade of C or better. This policy is regardless of your financial aid requirements.

* Excused absences can be anything that prevents you from attending class—your choice—and can include any religious or cultural events that are not accounted for in the UNM schedule.

Please note: Due to safety concerns, the classroom doors automatically lock. You will be admitted late to class; however, it will count as a half absence.

In-Class Behavior: It is very important to minimize disruptions and to show respect and consideration for other students. For this reason, please arrive to class on time, and once class starts, please refrain from leaving, talking, reading, or sleeping. In class, please be prepared to actively listen/participate and take notes. If you need to leave class early (or arrive late), please sit near an exit and leave quietly.

Cell Phones and Technology: As a matter of courtesy, please turn off cell phones, and other communication and entertainment devices prior to the beginning of class. Notify me in advance if you are monitoring an emergency, for which cell phone ringers should be switched to vibrate. If you bring a laptop to class, sit in the back of the room so as not to disturb other students. If you are caught accessing sites that are not related to class content, you will be asked to immediately leave the classroom so as not to disrupt other students' learning.

Copyright Issues: All materials in this course fall under copyright laws and should not be downloaded, distributed, or used by students for any purpose outside this specific course.

Netiquette: Your online participation is expected to be academic and constructive. It is important to recognize that each of us may have a different point of view. It is acceptable to debate a topic using facts and citations to support your stance or viewpoint; however, you should conduct your debate in a professional tone. Here is the link to UNM's Discussion and Blog Netiquette policy (also located in Learn under the Introduction tab): <http://online.unm.edu/help/learn/students/pdf/discussion-netiquette.pdf>.

Accommodation of Learning Disabilities/Special Needs: If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office will provide me with a letter outlining your accommodations. I will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment. If you feel that you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Jeanne Lujan, the coordinator for Equal Access Services at 925-8910 or jmlujan@unm.edu. For Valencia campus the website is: <http://valencia.unm.edu/students/advisement-and-counseling/equal-access-services.html>.

Withdrawal: In accordance with University regulations, students withdrawing after the deadline to withdraw without an assigned grade, are assigned a grade of "W." (For UNM scheduled deadlines, check with the Office of the Registrar -- <http://schedule.unm.edu/>)

Incomplete: Under special circumstances, a grade of Incomplete (I) can be granted. Contact me as soon as possible to arrange this and provide me with written documentation of why the course could not be completed. Please Note "Incomplete grades must be resolved no later than one year (twelve months) from the published end day of the semester in which the grade was assigned. Incomplete grades not resolved within the time frame stated in this policy will be converted automatically to an "F" (failing) grade. The student is responsible for making arrangements with the instructor for resolving an incomplete grade" (<https://dos.unm.edu/resources/general-faq.html#faq-11>).

Academic Integrity: Having academic integrity is paramount to your success in any class. Plagiarism or cheating is not tolerated. Any instance of this will result in a grade of zero for that assignment. Here is the link to the UNM Academic Dishonesty Policy:

<https://policy.unm.edu/regents-policies/section-4/4-8.html>. The policy states:

Each student is expected to maintain the highest standards of honesty and integrity in academic and professional matters. The University reserves the right to take disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, against any student who is found guilty of academic dishonesty or who otherwise fails to meet the expected standards. Any student judged to have engaged in academic dishonesty in course work may receive a reduced or failing grade for the work in question and/or for the course.

Academic Dishonesty is defined as: "Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students; misrepresenting academic or professional qualifications within or without the University; and nondisclosure or misrepresentation in filling out applications or other University records.

Please Note: In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education (see p. 15: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>.

Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. Your professor will respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. As for all students in the class, family emergency-related absences are normally excused with reasonable notice to the professor, as noted in the attendance guidelines above. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. The Administration's welcome is found on our website: <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>.

TECHNICAL SKILLS AND REQUIREMENTS

Technical Skills: In order to participate and succeed in this class, you will need to be able to perform the following basic technical tasks:

- Use UNM Learn (Help documentation located in the "How to Use Learn" link, which is located in the left-hand column/course menu in Learn.)
- Use Learn Email ("Course Messages") – including attaching files, opening files, downloading attachments
- Use Zoom (for online meetings with Instructor)
- Copy and paste within applications including Microsoft Office
- Open a hyperlink (click on a hyperlink to get to a website or online resource)
- Use Microsoft Office applications (If you are working on an Apple device, you will need to translate all documents to a MS Word format.)
 - Create, download, update, save and upload MS Word documents
 - Download, change view, as well as print and/or save MS PowerPoint presentations
 - Create, download, update, save and upload PDF files

Technical Requirements: For UNM Learn Technical Support: (505) 277-0857 (24/7) or use the "Create a Support Ticket" link in your course.

Computer: A high-speed Internet connection is highly recommended.

- Supported browsers include: Internet Explorer, Firefox, and Safari. Detailed Supported Browsers and Operating Systems: <http://online.unm.edu/help/learn/students/>
- Any computer capable of running a recently updated web browser should be sufficient to access your online course. However, bear in mind that processor speed, amount of RAM and Internet connection speed can greatly affect performance. Many locations offer free high-speed Internet access at UNM-Valencia, including the Learning Center (Learning Center Hours) and Library (Library Hours), as well as UNM Main Campus Computer Pods.
- For using the Kaltura Media Tools inside Learn, be sure you have downloaded and installed the latest version of Java, Flash, and Mozilla Firefox. They may not come preloaded.
- Microsoft Office products are available free for all UNM students (more information on the UNM IT Software Distribution and Downloads page: <http://it.unm.edu/software/index.html>)

Tracking Course Activity: UNM Learn automatically records all students' activities including: your first and last access to the course, the pages you have accessed, the number of discussion messages you have read and sent, discussion text, and posted discussion topics. This data can be accessed by the instructor to evaluate class participation and to identify students having difficulty.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN PSYC 1110 (aka Expectations for Participation):

- Spend 5-7 hours per week on this course (outside of class-time)
 - Read textbook chapter(s) associated with each lecture before the class lecture.

- Access PowerPoint slides on Learn—use to take notes while reading the textbook and during class lecture . . . this is your study guide.
- Attend each class, actively listen, take notes, and observe classroom etiquette.
- Know how to navigate in Learn; including communication with one another in discussions, check Announcements daily, address technical problems immediately, and observe netiquette at all times.
- Trade contact information with one or two students whom you feel comfortable trading this information, so, if you miss class, you can get notes from a classmate.
- Come to office hours (or make an appointment to meet with me) if you need to discuss anything pertaining to this course.
 - It is important to keep me (the instructor) informed of class related problems, or problems that may prevent you from full participation.
- Take advantage of Extra Credit opportunities!
- Participate in a study group! This is a tool that A students consistently employ.
- Utilize student support services. If you need assistance finding the support you want, please meet with me—I am here to help you succeed in this course.
 - Also, here is a link: <http://valencia.unm.edu/campus-resources/>
 - See next page for a few phone numbers and websites for often contacted resources.
