COURSE DESCRIPTION

Signed languages and signing systems frequently used by deaf people are discussed. Cross-linguistic and cross-cultural information on ASL will be discussed. Focus is on ASL, signed English and fingerspelling, and the most common manually coded signed systems. In addition to the acquisition of basic vocabulary and grammar, this course emphasizes knowledge of the characteristics, values and cultural and linguistic diversity of the Deaf Community. Additional activities and topics may include: discussions of challenges facing families with deaf members, singing/music in signed language, number subsets in ASL, historical and linguistic background of ASL and pioneers of ASL linguistic research.

REQUIRED TEXT: A Basic Course in American Sign Language, Humphries, Padden, O'Rourke, TJ Publishers: Silver Spring, Maryland.

Learning to See: American Sign Language as a Second Language*, Wilcox and Wilcox

COURSE OBJECTIVES: By the end of this 3 credit hour course

1. Students will effectively communicate-expressively and receptively- on a basic level with the Deaf/Hard of Hearing individuals representing a cross-section of the Deaf community.
2. Students will understand the basic education and access issues as implications of deafness.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge of American Sign Language (ASL) and manually coded English sign systems.
4. Students will identify basic linguistic principles and describe the history of the recognition of American Sign Language.
5. Students will describe the cultural diversity and dynamics of the Deaf Community.

Federal Credit Hour Definition

Federal Credit Hour Definition: A credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally-established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than:

(1) one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or (2) at least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other activities as established by an institution, including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading toward to the award of credit hours. 34CFR 600.2 (11/1/2010)

<https://www.hlcommission.org/Policies/assignment-of-credits.html>

This is a three credit-hour course. Class meets for two 75-minute sessions of direct instruction for fifteen weeks during the semester. Students are expected to complete a minimum of six hours of out-of-class work (or homework, study, assignment completion, and class preparation) each week.

UNM STUDENT EMAIL**

Please maintain and check your UNM email daily!

Notices, Handouts and reminders etc. will be posted as needed through UNM LEARN.

*Use of Electronic Devices (cell phones/recording audio & video) is not permitted in class.

Cell phones are very disruptive to class. As a matter of courtesy, all audible signals of communication devices should be turned off or disabled during class. Individual discretion should be used in determining when exceptions should be made relative to emergency or personal situations.

Students are permitted to use computers during class for note-taking and other class-related work only. Those using computers during class for work not related to that class will be asked to leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period.

*No Food or drinks in Classrooms/Valencia policy.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students must inform instructor of special needs and provide the necessary university paperwork as soon as possible to ensure that those needs are met in a timely manner.

Call 925-8560 or go to website <http://www.valencia.unm.edu>

Qualified students with disabilities should contact the Accessibility Resource Center.

Reasonable accommodations will be given to any individual with a legitimate disability..

Reasonable accommodations will be given to any individual with a legitimate disability. Please contact the instructor privately for arrangements. If you are a qualified person with disabilities who might need appropriate academic adjustments, please communicate with me as soon as possible so that we may make appropriate arrangements to meet your needs in a timely manner. Frequently, we will need to coordinate accommodating activities with other offices on campus. Course materials can be made available in alternative formats.

In accordance with University Policy 2310 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), academic accommodations may be made for any student who notifies the instructor of the need for an accommodation. It is imperative that you take the initiative to bring such needs to the instructor's attention, as I am not legally permitted to inquire. Students who may require assistance in emergency evacuations should contact the instructor as to the most appropriate procedures to follow.

If you need an accommodation based on how course requirements interact with the impact of a disability, you should contact me to arrange an appointment as soon as possible. At the appointment, we can discuss the course format and requirements, anticipate the need for adjustments and explore potential accommodations. I rely on the Disability Services Office for assistance in developing strategies and verifying accommodation needs. If you have not previously contacted them, I encourage you to do so.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Students must submit written requests for accommodation to course instructor. The student should submit the request by the end of the second week of the semester. The request should include the date, times, and specific event for which accommodation is being requested.

CAMPUS POLICY REGARDING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Title IX: The Equal Opportunity in Education Act of 2002 (known as Title IX) states that "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance." It is important for all faculty, teaching assistants, graduate assistants, staff and students to understand the following. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education (<http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>, p. 15). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>. There are organizations on campus that can maintain anonymity and are not required to report possible Title IX violations.

These include Student Health and Counseling, CARS, and UNM Advocacy centers including the LoboRESPECT Advocacy Center, the Women's Resource and the LGBTQ Resource center. Get Help Now at <https://loborespect.unm.edu/Get%20Help%20now/index.html> LoboRespect Advocacy Center, for concerns such as sexual misconduct, hate/bias, bullying, hazing.

Citizenship and/or Immigration Status: All students are welcome in this class regardless of citizenship, residency, or immigration status. Your professor will respect your privacy if you choose to disclose your status. As for all students in the class, family emergency-related absences are normally excused with reasonable notice to the professor, as noted in the attendance guidelines above. UNM as an institution has made a core commitment to the success of all our students, including members of our undocumented community. The Administration's welcome is found on our website: <http://undocumented.unm.edu/>.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Class participation is essential in this class. The key advantage of class participation is that it forces each student to be well-prepared and thus become an active, rather than a passive learner. Participation also provides you with the opportunity to gain from the experiences and talents of everyone in the class. You should feel free to ask questions, provide supportive comments, or challenge constructively what has been said. Those who participate regularly and well will benefit. If they are within one point of the next higher grade level, they will earn the higher grade. For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

This does not apply for grades between an A and an A+ (check grading chart below).

It is expected that you will attend every class and that you will arrive on time. Recurring lateness or repeated absences will be considered grounds for removal from the course. If a guest speaker is scheduled for class, it is imperative that you arrive promptly

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

While the instructor does not expect problems when working with adult learners, a guiding principle of respect for one another will ensure a safe and productive environment.

Interruptions with non-related comments are discouraged. There may be issues a student needs to discuss that would be more appropriately handled in private and outside of the classroom. No Toleration policy for obscene language, sexual harassment, and threatening behavior towards students or instructor. There is a process in place to handle complaints...report to The Chair of CHES and to the Dean of Instruction.

EXAMS

Students are eligible to take a make-up exam [written only] if they (in UNM handbook)

1. Have an emergency that prevents them from taking the regularly scheduled exam;
2. Alert the instructor to the emergency prior to the regularly scheduled exam
3. Obtain the instructor's agreement that this is an emergency and that the regularly scheduled exam cannot be taken. If you miss an exam without the permission of the instructor a score of zero will be assigned. Make-up exams are granted at the discretion of the instructor, only with prior arrangement, and must be completed prior to the next class meeting (unless circumstances involved make this clearly impractical).

Make-up receptive exams are strongly discouraged due to the nature of sign language and the fairness to those who attended the scheduled test.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students found cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero for the exam or assignment in question. UNM Plagiarism Policy <http://unm.edu/~unmvclib/handouts/somplagiarism.pdf>

DEAF/HH VISITORS

Deaf/HH children and adults from the community are invited to attend the class to add input and to make certain that no stereotyped image of the "typical" deaf person prevails. Students will be asked to prepare questions for these dates that will be announced later in the semester.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

ALL Handouts are on UNM LEARN:

Brief history of sign language; Descriptions of manually coded sign systems;

Various articles on mainstreaming, linguistics of ASL, or other appropriate material

Videotapes: "A Basic Course in American Sign Language" Tape #1 (on reserve in the library)

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Attendance is taken at the beginning of each session. Students with two (2) or more consecutive absences or three (3) or more regular absences may be dropped from the class by the instructor. *Student's grades will be affected by absences, dropping half a grade for every three absences.

GRADING CHART

Grades are determined from the total test scores accumulated, signing skills, class participation, and weekly partner reports.

98-100 : A+ Students must have a 98-100 average and do an extra credit paper in order to qualify for an A+ for the course.

94 - 97: A	88 – 89: B+	78 – 79: C+	68 – 69: D+	0 – 59: F
90 – 93: A-	84 – 87: B	74 – 77: C	64 – 67: D
	80 – 83: B	70 – 73: C-	60 – 63: D-

The grade of INCOMPLETE (INC) is given only when extenuating personal circumstances prevent completing the work by the official ending date of the course (as per UNM Faculty Handbook).

PARTNER REPORTS

Required outside classroom participation: selection of a partner from within the class. The pair should meet a minimum of one hour each week to practice signing without their voices.

A Journal entry is expected from each partner specifying location of practice, time, and a brief summary and both signatures. Reports are collected weekly on Wednesdays throughout the semester before 10 PM. Partner reports will NOT be accepted if late.
