Once you have been with Equal Access, you must send all documented forms to me ASAP. I cannot accommodate any special needs without the proper authorization from UNM Valencia Campus Accessibility Services, who tell me how to help you best. Once I receive your paperwork, pursuant to the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), I accommodate documented special needs. I encourage students to discuss their concerns with me.

E-mail Netiquette

Please keep the following in mind when you write e-mails:

Include an informative subject line. In every e-mail you write to me, the subject line should contain a descriptive phrase specifically about the problem. For example, “Problems with Nouns Worksheet in Lesson 5, question 4” is clear and helpful, but “Nouns Worksheet” is not. Unclear subject lines slow my response because I do not have enough information without having to asking you for clarification.

Do not use instant-messaging spelling. If u want 2 b treated like a pro, write like 1.

DO NOT SEND ALL CAP MESSAGES. All capital letters means you are screaming at the person to whom you are writing. In an online class, this would be considered inappropriate behavior. If you wish to emphasize a point, underline it or put it in bold font.

YOUR PROFESSOR (IN A NUTSHELL)

I was born Douglas Deane but have been called Diego since childhood. I developed a love for Spanish as a teenager in Puerto Rico. This interest continued as a college student with a Major in Foreign Language. The principle concentration for my degree was Spanish with accompanying coursework in German and Hebrew. While working on my undergrad I spent a semester in Tijuana, Mexico during the height of the cartel wars. After graduation I took a job at the US State Department with the office of Cuban Affairs. A few years later I came to New Mexico to pursue an M.A. in Latin American Studies. I graduated with concentrations in Spanish Linguistics, Brazilian Studies, and International Management. Every summer during grad school I would do “research” (jiu-jitsu) in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. More recently I spent a year in Cali, Colombia working as fashion model. I currently split time between Albuquerque and Mexico City to fulfill my teaching and modeling responsibilities.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

STUDENT PRESENCE AND PARTICIPATION: Learning a new language well requires consistent effort. Student activity in the course shell is recorded and allows instructor to know how much time and effort a student has put into class presence. Students enrolled for credit or audit are expected to log-in to the course and actively participate in the course with frequency. You should expect to be in class at least 3-5 hours per week. If your class presence is less than the recommended time for 3 weeks, your instructor may drop you or assign you a grade of 'F'. Failure to log-in during the first week of class could result in the student being dropped.

Participation is 30% of your overall grade. It consists of the following activities/assignments: 3 passport activities, discussion/introduction, el horario and Aurora's email assignments, and the oral project. Directions for all of these are included in the learning modules in UNM Learn and they are also listed in the weekly assignment checklist.

ONLINE HOMEWORK: The online homework is done through an external website. vhlcentral.com This website also gives you access to the online version of the book (ebook) and all of the homework activities.

Therefore, you do not need to buy an actual textbook for this course. (the directions to set up your account are included below) Every week when you log into this site, you will see a list of the activities and their corresponding due dates. Most of the activities are machine graded, meaning it will be graded instantly. Some activities may require you to listen to a dialogue and answer questions accordingly. At times you may also need to record your answer as part of the activity. So, you will need functioning speakers and a microphone to complete all activities (these are built-in on most computers). You can attempt every activity as many times as you'd like until you achieve your desired score.

QUIZZES and EXAMS: There will be a quiz at the end of each chapter as well as possible short quizzes on specific topics at the instructor's discretion. There are no make-up quizzes. Quizzes total 25% of the final grade. There will be a comprehensive mandatory final exam covering the material in Lecciones 6 through 10. The final exam is worth 10% of the total grade.
