Course Descriptions

This course is the first part of a college level introduction to Spanish that promotes language learning in a cultural context. This course is designed for students with little exposure to Spanish. This course develops basic listening, speaking, reading and writing skills and basic intercultural competence in interpretive, interpersonal and presentational modes of communication at the Novice Level of proficiency based on ACTFL guidelines. During this course, students perform better and stronger in the Novice Mid-level while some abilities emerge in the Novice High range This is an introductory course aimed at helping the student to communicate in Spanish in everyday familiar situations via recognition and production of practiced or memorized words, phrases, and simple sentences.

Technology Skills and Requirements

This class was designed for people who are comfortable with technology. We will be learning via various modes; videos, audio, visual presentations, and navigating the web. The class will be intense for those who are not comfortable with multimodal instruction that uses various sites to complete your assignments. Be aware that you will be responsible for becoming familiar with all the tools required to complete your assignments. Also be aware that help is always available through campus technology, website assistance, or the instructor. If you are computer and internet savvy, this class is for you.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS/ATTENDANCE

Attendance and Participation: Learning a new language well requires consistent effort. In the online classroom attendance and participation are determined by your involvement and engagement with the weekly assignments. There are assignments that must be completed each week in VHL central and UNM Learn. You are required to submit weekly assignments in Blackboard/UNM Learn by the assigned due dates in the course syllabus. You should expect to be on VHL at least 3-5 hours per week.

Flipgrid: Our conversations will take place via Flipgrid. To create a free account, go to www.flipgrid.com. Register for a free account and set up your profile. You can also use a smart phone. The purpose of this forum is to create a virtual conversation with the class. An audio response is mandatory to receive conversation credit.

Module Discussions: Each module will have a module discussion where you will be able to share thoughts/ideas/resources with classmates revolving around culture, lexical variations, family traditions ect.

VHL ONLINE WORKBOOK and LABMANUAL: The online workbook and lab manual provide practice of the material presented in your textbook. It is divided into a Workbook section, which focuses on vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing practice; and a Laboratory Manual section, which focuses on pronunciation and listening comprehension. The online work provides immediate feedback so you can monitor your progress. All online exercises should be submitted before or on the assigned due date. Late workbook assignments will be penalized at 5% a day. The reason for requiring that online exercises be completed by the scheduled due date is because this is not a self-paced course and will have homework due each week so that the student has sufficient opportunity to master the material presented in class and is optimally prepared to take tests at the end of each chapter.

Presentations: In lieu of a midterm each student will be assigned a Spanish speaking country. In a PowerPoint presentation you will focus on some of the following topics: food, culture, traditions, history, languages, government ect. More information and a Rubric will be provided.

Quizzes and Exams: There will be a quiz at the end of each chapter on specific topics at the instructor's discretion. There are no make-up quizzes; however, the instructor will drop the lowest quiz score at the end of the semester. Thus, should a student miss a scheduled quiz due to unavoidable circumstances, the grading consequences are minimized. Only one 'drop' is allowed. Quizzes will become unavailable after the due date. Please ensure that you prepare ahead of time to complete your quizzes before the due date. All quizzes will be due on a Sunday before midnight. There will be a mandatory final exam covering the material in Lecciones 1 through 5.

| Letter Grade Breakdown | | |
|-------------------------------|---------|----------|
| 100-97=A+ | 96-94=A | 93-90=A- |
| 89-87=B+ | 86-84=B | 83-80=B- |

Attendance Policy: The particular hour and day you “attend” isn’t important, but you must show participation regularly and while logged on, e.g., posting on the discussions boards, submitting assignments, and completing other course work.

Students must actively participate during the first week of class through responses and/or assignment completion. A VHL account must be set up during the first week. A student who does not submit the required tasks/assignments for Week 1 and has not contacted the instructor may be dropped from the course.

A student with excessive missed assignments may be dropped from the course. Missing 3 or more learning modules in a 12–15-week term (2 or more learning modules in a 6-11 week term) constitutes excessive missed assignments.

Students should not assume he/she will be dropped automatically. A student who is dropped by an instructor for nonattendance is notified at their UNM e-mail address. The instructor's decision is final, but if the student disagrees with the action, he or she must contact the instructor within two working days of receipt of the notification.

Late Work Policy: Late VHL assignment will be penalized at 5% a day. Late Flipgrid assignments and Module Discussion will not be accepted. There are no late Quiz therefore the lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

Withdrawal Policy: Participants are expected to comply with UNM regulations regarding withdrawal from a course as noted in the class schedule. Note: If you have not shown regular participation for the first full week of the course you may be dropped for non- attendance. Students should not assume they will be dropped automatically. Please drop the class if you no longer intend to attend.

Instructor Communication Policy: Emails and messages will be responded to within 24 hours Monday- Thursday, and within 48 hours Friday-Sunday. Contact me directly through lgalvan2@unm.edu. Provide your name and class section in the subject box.

Grades are generally released for all assignments and assessments within five days after the due date for the assignments has ended. Feedback will be provided.

Special Needs Accommodations (Americans with Disabilities Act-ADA): Qualified students with special learning needs are encouraged to notify the instructor at the beginning of the class about any specific assistance that may be required to support the student's learning. It is the instructor's intent to assist qualified students with special learning needs by making course modifications that will ensure a successful learning experience for the student.

ADA and STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office will provide me with a letter outlining your accommodations. I will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment. If you feel that you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Jeanne Lujan, the coordinator for Equal Access Services at 925- 8910 or contact Jeanne Lujan at jmlujan@unm.edu. You can also access more information at <http://www.unm.edu/~vcadvise/equalaccess.htm>

Title IX Statement: In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education. This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION: In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants, and Graduate Assistants are considered "responsible employees" by the Department of Education (see page 15)

Other Class Policies Computer Requirements: Prior to getting started you will want to review the necessary computer requirements to properly run the Blackboard Learn management system. For best performance, it is recommended that you use Firefox as your internet browser. You can download Firefox for free at www.mozilla.org/en-US/Firefox/new/ Firefox is available on all campus computers by clicking the Start Button > All Programs. It is also a good idea to run the Blackboard Learn Browser Check. Required Software: In order to view the materials presented in the course, you will need: • Adobe Reader Word, Pages, or other word processing software • Excel, Numbers, or other spreadsheet software • Adobe

Flash • BbIM software (for office hours) –available as a download in our Course Shell. Downloads for required and recommended software are available to you in the Start Here Module of our course.

Netiquette: Your participation is expected to be collegial, academic, and constructive. It is important to recognize that each of us may have a different point of view. It is acceptable to debate a topic using facts and citations to support your stance or viewpoint; however, you should conduct your debate in a professional tone.

Netiquette Guidelines: Please follow these guidelines when communicating with others online.

-Identify yourself:

- Begin messages with a salutation and end them with your name.
- Use a signature (a footer with your identifying information) at the end of a message

-Include a subject line: Give a descriptive phrase in the subject line of the message header that tells the topic of the message.

-Avoid sarcasm: People who do not know you may misinterpret its meaning.

-Respect others' privacy: Do not quote or forward personal email without the original author's permission.

-Acknowledge and return messages promptly.

-Copy with caution: Do not copy everyone you know on each message.

-Be concise: Keep messages concise—about one screen, as a rule of thumb.

Use appropriate language:

- Avoid coarse, rough, or rude language.
- Observe good grammar and spelling.

-When necessary, use appropriate emoticons (emotion icons) to help convey meaning.

Academic Dishonesty and Plagiarism: Academic Dishonesty is any behavior on the part of a student that results in that student's or any other students' giving or receiving unauthorized assistance in an academic exercise or receiving credit for work which is not their own. Such acts include, but are limited to: cheating, plagiarism, falsification/fabrication, unauthorized collaboration, or the use of any resource on an assessment which is not allowed by the instructor students may work with one another on assignments but each must contribute an equal share. In other words, each student must understand the concept and be able to perform the skill on his/her own. Copying or relying on another student for answers is considered cheating. If it is found that he or she committed any infractions of dishonest academic process, that he or she will lose credit for the assignment or assessment, may be dropped from the course, lose credit, and /or Fail the course.
