Part 2: 30 Short Answer Questions	60 points
Part 3: 5 Political Map Questions	5 points
TOTAL.....	100 points

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Students found cheating will receive a zero for the quiz or exam in question.

Students cannot use cell phones, earphones, or other electronic equipment during the quiz or tests.

LATE POLICY:

Students who miss exams or turn assignments in late will lose 10 points off the exam or assignment.

This penalty is not enforced only if the student lets the instructor know prior to the due date that he/she has an emergency and will be unable to take the test or submit the assignment by the scheduled time.

If the instructor agrees that there is in fact an emergency, a new due date will be scheduled as soon as possible.

POLITICAL UPDATES:

Each class will include a discussion of recent political events or issues in the United States or the world.

Each student should be prepared to present 3 such events or issues in case they are called on to do so during these sessions. This will require regularly reading newspapers and/or newsmagazines and/or the internet and/or listening to radio and/or TV news broadcasts.

Political Updates are reported on three 3x5 index cards with your name, date, headline, and source on each card.

/ Jane Doe	July 9, 2018	/
/		/
/ THE DEMOCRATS & REPUBLICANS		/
/ AGREE ON SOMETHING.		/
/	Albuquerque Journal, July 9, 2017	/
/		/
/		/
/		/

Students receive 100% for each class they submit a Political Update. They received 0% for each day they no not report on a Political Update, either because they don't have one or because they are absent.

Political Updates are worth 10% of your final grade.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are not graded on their general class participation. However, those who participate regularly and well in class will benefit if they are within one point of the next higher grade level. In such a case the student would receive the higher grade.

For example, if a student had an 89 average and had participated regularly and well he/she would receive an A- rather than a B+ for the course.

PAIR & SHARE MOMENTS:

You will be asked to identify a person sitting near you to be your Pair & Share Partner.

Periodically, questions will arise in class that you will be asked to discuss with your Pair & Share Partner. After a few moments of discussion (called Pair & Share Moments), you may be asked to share your group's ideas with the class as a whole. In this way we'll try to get as many people as possible involved in class discussions.

EXTRA CREDIT:

Students can earn one extra credit point to be added to their final average by writing an acceptable one-page reaction paper on one of the following:

VIDEOS:

- "All the Kings Men"
 - "Ghosts of Mississippi"
 - "Mississippi Burning"
 - "The Secret Government"
 - "Inside the CIA"
 - "High Crimes & Misdemeanors"
 - "Classics of Political TV Advertising"
 - "13 Days"
- or other political videos agreed on with the instructor

BOOKS:

- Robert Penn Warren, All the Kings Men
- George Orwell, 1984
- Edwin O'Connor, The Last Hurrah
- Brad Meltzer, The 10th Justice
- or other political novels agreed on with the instructor

Most of these videos and books are available in the campus library.

Reaction papers should briefly describe the video or book and comment on its main points as they relate to our discussions in class and your readings. Extra credit reaction papers can be submitted at any time during the semester, but no later than Monday, July 16.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

If you have a documented disability, the Equal Access Services office on campus will provide the instructor with a letter outlining your accommodations. The instructor will then discuss the accommodations with you to determine the best learning environment.

If you feel you need accommodations, but have not documented your disability, please contact Jeanne Lujan, the coordinator for Equal Access Services, at 925-8910 or jmlujan@unm.edu.

TITLE IX:

In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM policy requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

CELL PHONES:

Students can bring cell phones into class to receive emergency calls. However, they must be set to "discreet" and should not ring during class.

PERSONAL CONVERSATIONS:

Students should not engage in personal conversations during class time. Those who do will be given a yellow warning card. If the conversation continues, they will be given a red card, which means that they must leave the class for the rest of the day.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students are expected to attend all class sessions. Attendance is taken both before and at the end of each class session. Students can only sign in prior to and at the end of each class by initializing the attendance book. Late arrivals can not sign in, although they can stay to participate and take notes in class. Late arrivals are considered absent.

Students with 2 consecutive absences (that is, missing 2 straight full days of class) or 3 regular absences (that is, missing any 3 full days of class) will be dropped from the course by the instructor.

There are no “excused absences.”

Students cannot sign the attendance book for other students. Students who sign in for other students will be charged with an absence, as will the student he or she signed in for.

If you are forced to miss a class due to an emergency, you are encouraged to get the notes for the day you missed from your Pair and Share Partner (or any other reliable member of the class).
