COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an 8-week online college course that is both compressed and intense. Designed to introduce students to the basic sociological concepts, this course helps students to better understand how culture and socialization shape one’s behaviors and worldviews. In addition to promoting a clearer understanding of the impact of the social, political, and economic environments on individual lives, this course also strives to cultivate students’ capacity to link “personal troubles” and “public issues” using sociological concepts.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the semester, when you do your part as a student, you will be able to:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES	NM HIGHER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT REQUIREMENT
Describe and explain the concept of social structure, and its key elements such as status, role, class, power, ethnicity, race, gender, and social stratification.	Area IV, Competency 1

This is a college course—it requires both reading and writing. This course is not for you if you plan to avoid reading or writing. Designed for an eight-week semester, this online course is both compressed and intense. It is not self-paced. Students are required to independently complete the following weekly activities:

- participate in all weekly Discussion Forums

- read between 20 and 30 pages of your textbook
- complete the assigned worksheet from the e-workbook
- take weekly online quizzes
- watch online videos from various websites or at Films on Demand via UNM-Valencia library
- check Messages in UNM Learn every other day.

Students are also required to submit 3 assessment assignments and 2 video reflection essays by their deadlines. Deadlines are set by Mountain Standard Time (MST) in the U.S. time zone. No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work.

MUTUAL EXPECTATIONS

COMMUNICATION WITH ME

- The best way to reach me is via the Send Messages (will respond within 24 business hours) and Course Café during my online office hours. Both media are in UNM Learn.

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO ...

- not accept late work or work that is not typed.
- respond to your Messages in UNM Learn by the next business day.
- return all assignments in no more than two weeks.

YOU CAN ALSO EXPECT ME TO DROP YOU WHEN YOU...

- do not log on to UNM Learn two weeks continuously.
- miss two consecutive postings on the Discussion Forum.
- miss two consecutive weekly quizzes.

To excel this class, it is critical that you follow the course schedule and do the work.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students will be disciplined when engaged in any behaviors that “affect adversely the University’s educational function...interfere with the rights of others to pursue their education, to conduct their University duties and responsibilities or to participate in University activities” per UNM policy at:

<https://pathfinder.unm.edu/code-of-conduct.html>

Mutual respect is expected between students as well as between students and the professor. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants (TA), and Graduate Assistants (GAs) are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see p.15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

Academic Dishonesty includes “dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done by you or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students” and Plagiarism—an academic theft. It is when you copy an idea or any text that is more than six words from any source, including the Internet or your friends, without citing the source. To avoid plagiarism, you must enclose whatever you copy in quotation marks and cite the source. Any student suspected of academic dishonesty will be subject to the investigative and disciplinary process of UNM. Please refer to <http://handbook.unm.edu/policies/section-d/d100.html>

This course has a zero tolerance policy on academic dishonesty. When found guilty, the student will be dropped from the course and a report will be submitted to the Division Chair and the Instruction Dean. The same report will be kept in the student’s academic file.

7 of the 8 Online Discussion Forum Postings	10%
2 of the 2 required Assessment Assignments	10%
2 of the 2 required Video Reflection Essays	20%
Total	100%

Students are required to take eight online quizzes—one per week. The lowest grade from the eight quizzes will be dropped. The last quiz is mandatory. No make-up quizzes are given. If you miss two consecutive quizzes, you will be dropped from the course. The average of the seven quizzes account for 60% of the course grade. Quizzes include true/false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blanks questions. They will be posted for 48 hours from 12:01 AM Friday to 11:59 PM Saturday. You have 48 hours to complete the quiz. Once begin, you cannot stop. To avoid interruptions, select your quiz time carefully and time yourself wisely while you take your quizzes. If you are not satisfied with the grade of your first attempt, you can retake the quiz once. All quizzes are closed book and closed notes.

If UNM Learn experiences unexpected down time, either while you are taking the quiz or closes on the day of final quiz, your final course grade will be calculated based on all work assessed up to that point during this semester. It includes the grades from: (1) the average grade from the six quizzes (the one with the lowest grade will be excluded); (2) the average grade of the two video reflection essays, (3) the average grade of the seven online discussion forum postings, and (4) the average grade of the two assessment assignments.
