COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an 8-week online college course that is both compressed and intense. Designed to introduce students to the basic concepts and theories of sociology, as well as to the methods utilized in sociological research. This course will address how sociological concepts and theories can be utilized to analyze and interpret our social world, and how profoundly society and groups influence individuals. Students' "taken-for-granted" or "common sense" understandings about society, social institutions, and social issues will be challenged. Special attention will be paid to the intimate connections between personal lives and the larger structural features of social life. The implications of social inequalities, such as race/ethnicity, gender, and social class will be discussed.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the semester, when you do your part as a student, you will be able to:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Describe the three sociological perspectives and illustrate their application (set 1)</li> <li>• Apply the perspectives of symbolic interactionist theory, conflict theory and structural-functionalist theory to qualitative and/or quantitative data (sets 1)</li> <li>• Define sociological imagination and describe its application (set 1)</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Describe the contributions of sociological knowledge to the social sciences (sets 2 - 4)</li> <li>• Explain the relationships between social structure, social forces, and individuals (sets 5 - 6)</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explain the relationships between social structure, social forces, and individuals (sets 9 - 10)</li> <li>• Explain intersectionality and the connections between race, class, gender, disability, sexual identity and other forms of structural inequality (sets 9 - 10)</li> </ul>

*SPECIFIC LEARNING OUTCOMES OF EACH SET ARE LISTED IN THE WORKBOOK.

COURSE REQUIREMENT

(YOU MUST READ AND UNDERSTAND THE COURSE REQUIREMENT)

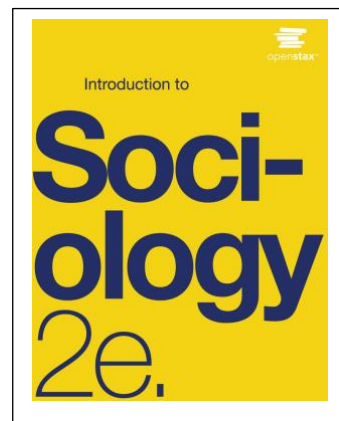

This is a college course—it requires both reading and writing. This course is not for you if you plan to avoid reading or writing. Designed for an eight-week semester, this online course is both compressed and intense. It is not self-paced. Students are required to independently complete the following weekly activities:

- participate in all weekly Discussion Forums
- read between 30 and 40 pages of your textbook
- complete the assigned worksheet from the Workbook
- take weekly online quizzes
- watch online videos from various websites or at Films on Demand via UNM-Valencia library
- check Messages in UNM Learn every other day.

Students are also required to submit 2 assessment assignments and 2 video reflection essays by their deadlines listed on the course schedule. Deadlines are set by Mountain Daylight-saving Time (MDT) of the U.S. time zone. No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK & MATERIALS

1. UNM Net ID and a valid UNM e-mail address
2. Introduction to Sociology. OpenStax College. 2015.
ISBN-10 1938168410 or ISBN-13 978-1-938168-41-3.

3. Free online textbook resources for students at:
<https://openstax.org/details/introduction-sociology-2e#student-resources-section>
4. Workbook for Introduction to Sociology.
Julia W. So. 2018. (2nd ed.) Kendall Hunt Publishing Company.
Purchase the coil-bound hard copy (ISBN 9781524955847)
at the Campus Bookstore.

Or use the QR code on the right to link to the publisher's website so to purchase the eWorkbook (ISBN 9781524959661)

5. Online access to UNM Learn at <https://learn.unm.edu/> for other related course materials
6. Individual personal account to access Films on Demand from UNM-Valencia Library. A login ID and password will be sent to you.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENT

Copyright 1987 Randy Glasbergen. www.glasbergen.com

"I forgot to make a back-up copy of my brain, so everything I learned last semester was lost."

As an online course, all instructional content and interaction will take place over the Internet. First and foremost, it is students' responsibility to have access to the Internet. Not having Internet access does not excuse any students from not doing assignments or submitting work on time. Students should also have a competence level in basic typing skills, proficiency in operating MS-WORD, converting files into PDF formats, uploading/downloading files in UNM Learn, as well as sending/receiving e-mail with PDF attachments.

TECHNOLOGY ASSISTANCE

If you encounter problems while assessing UNM Learn or other online related issues, please create a support ticket either under Main Campus' UNM Learn or under Valencia's Computer Support Service. Both accesses are located on the left panel of the course page. You may also obtain additional Online Learning Resources at: <http://valencia.unm.edu/academics/online-learning/students.html>

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is recorded by submission of assignment and participation in Discussion Forum. Students will be dropped from the course with two consecutive missed assignments or two consecutive weeks' missed postings in Discussion Forum. If you are on financial aid, failing or dropping from any class might affect your future eligibility for financial aid.

MUTUAL EXPECTATIONS

COMMUNICATION WITH ME

- The best way to reach me is via the Send Messages (will respond within 24 business hours) or during my office hours via ZOOM.US
- The Course Café is for any students to post a question and get answers, hopefully in a more speedy way.

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO ...

- not accept late work or work that is not typed.
- respond to your Messages in UNM Learn by the next business day.
- return all assignments in no more than two weeks.

YOU CAN ALSO EXPECT ME TO DROP YOU WHEN YOU...

- do not log on to UNM Learn two weeks continuously.
- miss two consecutive posting on the Discussion Forum.
- miss two consecutive weekly quizzes.

To excel this class, it is critical that you follow the course schedule and do the work.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Students will be disciplined when engaged in any behaviors that “affect adversely the University’s educational function...interfere with the rights of others to pursue their education, to conduct their University duties and responsibilities or to participate in University activities” per UNM policy at:

<https://pathfinder.unm.edu/code-of-conduct.html>

Mutual respect is expected between students as well as between students and the professor. In an effort to meet obligations under Title IX, UNM faculty, Teaching Assistants (TA), and Graduate Assistants (GAs) are considered “responsible employees” by the Department of Education (see p.15 - <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/qa-201404-title-ix.pdf>). This designation requires that any report of gender discrimination which includes sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence made to a faculty member, TA, or GA must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator at the Office of Equal Opportunity (oeo.unm.edu). For more information on the campus policy regarding sexual misconduct, see: <https://policy.unm.edu/university-policies/2000/2740.html>

Academic Dishonesty includes “dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done by you or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students” and Plagiarism—an academic theft. It is when you copy an idea or any text that is more than six words from any source, including the Internet or your friends, without citing the source. To avoid plagiarism, you must enclose whatever you copy in quotation marks and cite the source. Any student suspected of academic dishonesty will be subject to the investigative and disciplinary process of UNM. Please refer to <http://handbook.unm.edu/policies/section-d/d100.html>

This course has a zero tolerance policy on academic dishonesty. When found guilty, the student will be dropped from the course and a report will be submitted to the Instruction Dean. The same report will be kept in the student’s academic file.

COURSE GRADING SCHEMA

THE EVALUATION OF FINAL COURSE GRADE IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

7 of the 8 Weekly Quizzes	60%
7 of the 8 Weekly Discussion Forum Postings	10%
2 of the 2 required Assessment Assignments	10%
2 of the 2 required Video Reflection Essays	20%
Total	100%

Online Quizzes (60% of course grade)

While eight weekly quizzes are posted, the lowest grade will be dropped. No make-up quizzes are given. If you miss two consecutive quizzes, you will be dropped from the course. The average of seven quizzes account for 60% of the course grade. Quizzes include true/false, multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blanks questions. They will be posted for 48 hours from 12:01 AM Friday to 11:59 PM Saturday. You have 40 minutes to complete a quiz. Once begin, you cannot stop. To avoid interruptions, select your quiz time carefully and time yourself wisely while you take your quizzes. If you are not satisfied with the grade of your first attempt, you can retake the quiz once. All quizzes are closed book and closed notes.

If UNM Learn experiences unexpected down time, either while you are taking the quiz or closes on the day of final quiz, your final course grade will be calculated based on all work assessed up to that point during this semester. It includes the grades from: (1) the average grade from the seven quizzes (the one with the lowest grade will be excluded); (2) the average grade of the two video reflection essays, (3) the average grade of the seven online Discussion Forum postings, and (4) the average grade of the two assessment assignments.

Discussion Forum Postings (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

You are required to participate in an online discussion. The average of the top 7 grades constitutes 10% of course grade. For each posting, you earn five points when you write at least five sentences responding to the question I post and another five sentences when you respond to your peers' posting. One point will be deducted from grammatical and/or spelling mistakes. Discussion Forum for each week is available from 12:01 AM Sunday to 11:59 PM Wednesday.

Guidelines for online discussions:

- acknowledge we all have misinformation & biases that can lead to stereotypes
- acknowledge we live in a society where various forms of privilege and oppression exist
- acknowledge your peers are like you--doing the best they can to learn
- listen with open mind and speak with open heart
- practice active listening (i.e. listen with no judgement)

ONLINE CODE OF CONDUCT

Online classroom is a public place for learning. Students are expected to observe “netiquette.” You can find out more about netiquette @ <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/>

ASSESSMENT ASSIGNMENTS (10% OF COURSE GRADE)

Two assessments are required. Each is worth 10 points. The average of the two assessments constitutes 10% of course grade. Their due dates are listed on the Course Schedule in this syllabus as well as the online calendar. All assessment assignments will be taken down on its due dates.

Assessment (1): Self-esteem Assessment (instructions posted on UNM Learn / due 6/17)

Assessment (2): Test Anxiety Assessment (instructions posted on UNM Learn / due 7/15)

VIDEO REFLECTION ESSAYS (VRE: 20% OF COURSE GRADE)

A total of two VREs are required. Their due dates are listed on the Course Schedule in this syllabus as well as the online calendar. Students are required to watch a video, read an article, and write a two-page reflection essay, addressing the questions posted in the assignments. Specific instructions are listed on UNM Learn. No late work is accepted, nor is hand-written work. The average of both essays accounts for 20% of course grade. A grading rubric is provided on each assignment sheet as well as online.

VRE (1): Raising Cain (instructions posted on UNM Learn / due 7/1)

VRE (2): Unnatural Causes: Is Inequality Making Us Sick? (instructions posted on UNM Learn / due 7/22)

Extra Credit Points

Certificate of Completion: To earn five points towards your week (1) quiz, you are to complete the online orientation module and submit the certificate in jpeg format by 11:59 PM on Thursday 6/6/2019.

End-of-semester Course Feedback: To earn five points towards your week (8) quiz, you are to complete UNM’s course feedback and submit the verification notification generated by the system by 11:59 PM on Thursday 7/25/2019.

The final letter grade on your transcript will be based on the following:

99 - 100	A+
94 – 98.9	A
90 – 93.9	A-
87 – 89.9	B+
84 – 86.9	B
80 – 83.9	B-
77 – 79.9	C+

72 – 76.9	C*	Please note that any grade less than a 72 is a failing grade.
67 – 71.9	D+
64 – 66.9	D
60 – 63.9	D-
Less than 60	F

*According to UNM policy at <http://degrees.unm.edu/units/7051/periods/96/plans>, the passing grade for all sociology courses is a "C." Students must complete all course requirements to earn credit for the course. Those who fail to complete the requirements will be assigned an "F."
