HelpNow’s Complete Learning System is divided into 3 mutually-reinforcing sections: Expert Help, Study, and Collaborate.
Live Tutoring: Connect with a live tutor for homework and other academic assistance.

Choose grade level and subject

Bilingual tutor option

Connect to a live tutor

Use the Java based classroom

Get Live Help

Learning Account Features

Other Services
- Live Tutoring
- Writing Lab
- SkillSurfer
- Send Question
- Language Lab
- LEAP
- Brainwave™
- FlashBulb™
- MEET™
SkillSurfer: A library of practice tests, lessons, and videos patrons can use for independent practice and connect with a live tutor when needed.
Problem Solving Strategy — Consecutive Numbers

Consecutive numbers are numbers that follow one after the other, for example:

\[ P = \{1, 2, 3, 4, \ldots\} \quad \text{These numbers just follow one after the other,}\]
\[ P = \{n, n+1, n+2, n+3, \ldots\} \quad \text{where } n \text{ is the first number of the series.}\]

\[ E = \{2, 4, 6, 8, \ldots\} \quad \text{These numbers represent even numbers that follow one after the other, series can be rewritten as}\]
\[ E = \{n, n+2, n+4, n+6, \ldots\} \quad \text{where } n \text{ is the first number of the series.}\]

\[ O = \{1, 3, 5, 7, \ldots\} \quad \text{These numbers represent odd numbers that follow one after the other. This series can be rewritten as}\]
Practice test introduction and summary page: Patrons are able to connect directly with a live tutor from the summary page for additional assistance.
Writing Lab: Available 24/7 for writing. Response by the next business day.

Hi bucks100,
Simply upload your document, and one of our writing experts will analyze it and provide helpful comments.

1. Attach your document
   - From Computer
   - From CloudPack

   Choose File: No file chosen

   Maximum size 1400 KB

2. Add comments
   Add any information that you think our writing expert should know before reviewing your paper.

3. Upload your document
   This process may take a while depending on the size of your file and your connection speed.

   Submit

4. Receive your results
   Check the Message Center for our response (usually within one business day).
Example of Writing Lab Feedback

Welcome to the 24/7 writing lab!

Our overview comments, specific recommendations, and a recommended revisions checklist are included in our tutor response form below. Additional comments are also found in the body of your paper. Feel free to re-submit your paper for further review after using our comments and suggestions to make the recommended changes.

If you have additional questions, you can direct them to info@brainfuse.com.
Thank you for choosing the Brainfuse Writing Lab and best wishes with your revisions!

Persuasive Essay Review

Part I – Overview

Hello Tray, my name is Ellen R., and I was interested in reading this persuasive essay because it is a letter of a conversation that people are having across the United States. You have taken a definite position in it but still managed to make a point and strengthen your argument. I have the main points that you should focus on and go into more detail on suggested revisions in the sections that follow this one.

• Thesis: You list several reasons why guns benefit citizens in your introduction. “protecting hunting, recreation, and sport.” However, your thesis states that the right of citizens to own a gun is the issue. The greater part of the essay is spent discussing gun rights in each body paragraph. Based on what you write, then, come up with a clear and succinct statement that makes your thesis right should not be taken away from U.S. citizens.

• Supporting Details: While the supporting details in the body of the essay are strong, your arguments are often made at the end of each body paragraph. Make sure that you make your point supported by reliable sources.

• Sources: Ask your teacher about the required number of sources. Unlike you are writing a one paper, and are usually not to site at least three different sources.

• Tone: Make sure that the language you use is formal. Exclude superlatives, like “the greatest country ever,” and conversational phrases like “fun but not true.” They make an argument more personal or opposed to sounding objective.

• Title: Add a title that captures the main idea.

“Great Haste Makes Great Waste”

By acting too quickly, people are sure (avoid this word in formal writing) to run into trouble afterwards (consider revising for clarity and grammar). A wise person once said, “Unreasonable haste is the direct road to error.” If people rush things unnecessarily, there will be mistakes and the mistakes will lead to consequences, which can be excellently portrayed in literature (This is a great spot to vary sentence structure. Make this one long sentence 3 short sentences. This will increase the readers’ pace.). This quote is valid because readers are made aware that haste, in most cases, leads right to error. Many literary works show how “unreasonable haste is the direct road to error,” including Shakespeare’s tragic play Romeo and Juliet and Richard Cornell’s short story “The Most Dangerous Game”. The conflicts experienced by Romeo, Juliet, and General Zaroff in these works depict how haste ultimately leads to, in these cases, fatal consequences. (This is a very nice introduction. By the end the reader is aware of the point that you will try to make as well as the supporting details that you will use.)

Important note: Tutors do NOT edit papers, but provide guidance on how to correct errors.
Important note: Tutors do NOT provide answers, but rather provide guidance.

Send Question: Available 24/7 for academic questions. Response by the next business day.
Foreign Language Lab: Provides assistance with Spanish language homework or for those who wish to brush up on Spanish language skills.
Flashbulb: A unique flashcard authoring tool, and 24-7 access to an extensive flashcard library.
eParachute: Learn more about yourself and appropriate majors or career choices.

Co-founded by Richard Bolles author of What Color is Your Parachute?
MEET: An online meeting room for students to collaborate on projects and assignments.
Brainwave: A unique, animated note-taking tool for concepts that require a more visual understanding.

\[
solve \ x = \sqrt{x + 6} \\
(x)^2 = (\sqrt{x + 6})^2 \\
x^2 = x + 6 \\
x^2 - x - 6 = 0
\]
Cloudpack: Use to store classroom materials, documents, and web pages so you can share them with your tutor during a session.
Adult Learning Center: Adult tutoring, test prep, and a unique academic skills center featuring live, online tutors.
High School Equivalency Test Preparation: Study materials, practice tests and the ability to connect with a live, online tutor for help with GED, TASC, and HiSET.

Earn Your High School Equivalency Degree
Prove that you are ready for career and college success by passing your state’s high school equivalency exam.

1. Click below to visit our resources page for general information about your test.

2. Get Ready for Test Day. This collection of practice tests will help you build the stamina you need to stay focused throughout the exam and identify areas that you need to review. Simply select a section that you would like to take and click "Take a Test."

3. Review & Reinforce Skills. Work through challenging questions with our live, online tutors. They are here to help you with each section of the exam. Select the section you would like to focus on and click "Live Online Tutors."

---

Study Materials  ➔

Take a Test  ➔

Live Online Tutors  ➔
US Citizenship Test Preparation: Study materials, practice tests and the ability to connect with a live, online tutor for help with the US Citizenship Test.

United States Citizenship Test
All the resources you need to pass the test

We've assembled all of the resources you need to pass the U.S. Citizenship Test. Simply follow the steps below.

1. STUDY
The first step is to study and review the information we've gathered to help you prepare for the U.S. Citizenship Test, including a tutorial produced for Adult Learning Center patrons by the San Diego County Public Library.

   Click "Study Materials" to begin.

2. GET HELP
Our online tutors can help answer any questions you might have as you prepare for the U.S. Citizenship Test.

   Click "Live Online Tutors" to connect with a live Brainfuse tutor.
   (check with your institution regarding hours of availability)

3. TAKE TESTS
We've created 10 practice tests that cover all of the information you need to know to pass the U.S. Citizenship Test.

   To get started, click "Take a Test" below.
Microsoft Office Help: Online resources and the ability to connect with a live, online tutor for help with Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.
Career Resources: Organized by general job site, job site for recent grads, and job sites for veterans.

Online Resources for Job Seekers

Nationwide Resources for Job Seekers

Below you will find links specific to students, recent graduates, veterans, and general job seekers. Click the links below to be taken directly to each area.

GENERAL JOB SITES

JOB SITES FOR STUDENTS AND RECENT GRADS

JOB SITES FOR VETERANS

GENERAL JOB SITES

About.com: Interviews
Interview Tips & Advice

CareerBuilder
CareerBuilder Job Search

CareerExplorer.net
Specializes in short term training, two year degrees, MBA programs and distance education.
Write a Winning Resume: Includes resources, resume templates, a resume lab, and live resume assistance.

Write a Winning Resume
Get help for all the steps in creating a resume

Our resume lab gives you all of the tips and resources you need to write an effective resume. Simply follow the steps below.

1. EXAMPLES AND RESOURCES
   We’ve gathered many useful resources (including tried-and-tested resume templates) to help you get started.
   Click "Online Resources" to begin.

2. GET HELP
   Once you have prepared a draft of your resume, simply upload it to one of our writing experts. We will return your edited resume within 24 hours.
   Click "Upload Resume" to send your resume to a Brainfuse writing expert.

3. DISCUSS
   Once you have received your resume, you can get live help from a Brainfuse online instructor.
   Simply click "Get Live Resume Help" to connect with a Brainfuse Instructor.
Brainfuse Mobile App: Anywhere access to live tutoring, mobile writing lab, and more! Available in the iTunes and Google Play stores.