SALINAS PUEBLO MISSIONS NATIONAL MONUMENT

TRIBAL COMMUNITIES ENGAGEMENT INDIVIDUAL PLACEMENT

PAID AMERICORPS INTERNSHIP

Salinas Pueblo Missions is looking for a tribal youth, and future leader, to join its team to help the park build and leverage Tribal communities' partnerships, to develop strategies to embed the Tribal/Puebloan perspective into interpretive, educational and environmental programs, and to assist with visitor services duties and park programs/events.

The AmeriCorps Member will support the Division with starting the journey to embed the Tribal/Puebloan perspective into not only the park's programming; but also, into the day-to-day park's management and stewardship decision-making processes, which directly impact the tangible and intangible resources park staff, volunteers, and interns, have been tasked with respecting and protecting.

AmeriCorps

Salinas Pueblo Missions National Monument is an innovative and fast-paced park that protects the archaeological and historical significance and values of the Salinas province by preserving the ruins and artifacts of indigenous Pueblos, associated 17th century Spanish Franciscan missions' architecture, and 19th century Spanish rancheros.
